Handcrafted Hope

by David

Benjamin Adams and Carolyn Johnson worked as volunteers in Ghana, West Africa. Ben and Carol wanted to help the World All Stars women provide better lives for themselves and for their children. In 2005, these two women formed an organization called Global Mission. The purpose of Global Mission is to help the women of Ghana sell and export handcrafted products. In other words, Global Mission helps women open businesses which produce items such as beaded baskets and bags. The Ghana women are also given assistance in selling their goods to people and places around the world. The women have visited our part of the United States organization, they are proud to say that they are Ghana women.

All of the products made and sold by the Ghana women are handcrafted and handmade. Ben and Carol have been to Ghana and seen how the women work. They are proud to say that the products are made and sold with pride and respect.
