Mitchell, Kerry Ward, 2016-08-23 The New World History is a comprehensive volume of essays selected to enrich world history teaching and scholarship in this rapidly expanding field. The forty-four articles in this book take stock of the history evolving literature and current trajectories of new world history. These essays together with the editors' introductions to thematic chapters encourage educators and students to reflect critically on the development of the field and to explore concepts, approaches, and insights valuable to their own work. The selections are organized in ten chapters that survey the history of the movement, the seminal ideas of founding thinkers and today's practitioners, changing concepts of world historical space and time, comparative methods, environmental history, the big history movement, globalization debates over the meaning of Western power, and ongoing questions about the intellectual premises and assumptions that have shaped the field.

Academic Success Jean Brick, Nick Wilson, Deanna Wong, Maria Herke, 2018-10-26 This hands-on book introduces students to the demands of university study in a clear and accessible way and helps them to understand what is expected of them. It helps students to develop the core skills they need to succeed at university and gives guidance on the key forms of academic writing, including essays, reports, reflective assignments, and exam papers. It shows students how to recognise opinions, positions, and bias in academic texts from a range of genres, develop their own voice, and refer to others' ideas in an appropriate way. It also features authentic examples of academic texts and engaging activities throughout to aid understanding. Packed with practical guidance and self-study activities, this book will be an essential resource for all students new to university-level study.

Their writings explore the growth the field has experienced in the past three decades and offer observations on challenges and opportunities for the future. The contributors represent a wide range of pioneering, established, and promising new scholars with diverse perspectives on history education. Comprehensive in scope, the contributions cover major themes and issues in history education, including policy, research, and societal contexts; conceptual constructs of history education; ideologies, identities, and group experiences in history education; practices and learning; historical literacies; texts, media, and social spaces; and consensus and dissent. This vital resource contains original writings by more than 40 scholars from seven countries. It identifies major themes and issues shaping history education today. Highlights history education as a distinct field of scholarly inquiry and academic practice. Presents an authoritative survey of where the field has been and offers a view of what the future may hold. Written for scholars and students of education as well as history teachers with an interest in the current issues in their field. The Wiley International Handbook of History Teaching and Learning is a comprehensive handbook that explores the increasingly global field of history education as it has evolved to the present day.

The Cambridge World History: Volume 6, The Construction of a Global World, 1400-1800 CE,

Part 2, Patterns of Change Jerry H. Bentley, Sanjay Subrahmanyam, Merry E. Wiesner-Hanks, 2015-04-09 The era from 1400 to 1800 saw intense biological commercial and cultural exchanges and the creation of global connections on an unprecedented scale Divided into two books Volume 6 of the Cambridge World History series considers these critical transformations The first book examines the material and political foundations of the era including global considerations of the environment disease technology and cities along with regional studies of empires in the eastern and western hemispheres crossroads areas such as the Indian Ocean Central Asia and the Caribbean and sites of competition and conflict including Southeast Asia Africa and the Mediterranean The second book focuses on patterns of change examining the expansion of Christianity and Islam migrations warfare and other topics on a global scale and offering insightful detailed analyses of the Columbian exchange slavery silver trade entrepreneurs Asian religions legal encounters plantation economies early industrialism and the writing of history

Archaeologies of Cultural Contact Timothy Clack, Marcus Brittain, 2022 This volume explores cultural transfer with a focus on the combination and modification of material and behavioural attributes under conditions of contact Chapters demonstrate the diverse understandings that can be gained by exploring the material remains of past contact exposing and overcoming limitations of competing models of cultural change

Globalization in Prehistory Nicole Boivin, Michael D. Frachetti, 2018-10-04 Challenges contemporary understandings of globalization by focusing on the role of non state prehistoric societies and their vast realms of connectivity

Imitation Nation Jason Richards, 2017-12-26 How did early Americans define themselves The American exceptionalist perspective tells us that the young republic rejected Europeans Native Americans and African Americans in order to isolate a national culture and a white national identity Imitativeness at this time was often seen as antithetical to self and national creation but Jason Richards argues that imitation was in fact central to such creation Imitation Nation shows how whites simultaneously imitated and therefore absorbed the cultures they so readily disavowed as well as how Indians and blacks emulated the power and privilege of whiteness while they mocked and resisted white authority By examining the republic's foundational literature including works by Washington Irving James Fenimore Cooper Harriet Beecher Stowe Herman Melville and Martin Delany Richards argues that the national desire for cultural uniqueness and racial purity was in constant conflict with the national need to imitate the racial and cultural other for self definition The book offers a new model for understanding the ways in which the nation's identity and literature took shape during the early phases of the American republic

Extended Abstracts 2022 Ignasi Florensa, Noemí Ruiz-Munzón, Kristina Markulin, Berta Barquero, Marianna Bosch, Yves Chevallard, 2024-07-22 This book includes contributions from the conference held in Barcelona in 2022 It brings together researchers interested in the Anthropological Theory of the Didactic ATD and aims at the following objectives Establishing an updated overview of the results and progress in the ATD concerning both basic research and the development of education systems including teacher education Developing a research programme around the most relevant open problems either

The Oxford World History of Empire Peter Fibiger Bang, Christopher Alan Bayly, Walter Scheidel, 2021 This is the first world history of empire reaching from the third millennium BCE to the present By combining synthetic surveys thematic comparative essays and numerous chapters on specific empires its two volumes provide unparalleled coverage of imperialism throughout history and across continents from Asia to Europe and from Africa to the Americas Only a few decades ago empire was believed to be a thing of the past now it is clear that it has been and remains one of the most enduring forms of political organization and power We cannot understand the dynamics and resilience of empire without moving decisively beyond the study of individual cases or particular periods such as the relatively short age of European colonialism The history of empire as these volumes amply demonstrate needs to be drawn on the much broader canvas of global history Volume Two The History of Empires tracks the protean history of political domination from the very beginnings of state formation in the Bronze Age up to the present Case studies deal with the full range of the historical experience of empire from the realms of the Achaemenids and Asoka to the empires of Mali and Songhay and from ancient Rome and China to the Mughals American settler colonialism and the Soviet Union Forty five chapters detailing the history of individual empires are tied together by a set of global synthesizing surveys that structure the world history of empire into eight chronological phases

The Oxford World History of Empire Peter Fibiger Bang, C. A. Bayly, Walter Scheidel, 2020-12-02 Volume Two tracks the protean history of political domination from the very beginnings of state formation in the Bronze Age up to the present

Nomadic Pathways in Social Evolution Kradin, Nikolay N., Barfield, Thomas J., 2015-04-26 The book is written by anthropologists historians and archaeologists specializing in nomadic studies All the chapters presented here discuss various aspects of one significant problem how could small nomadic peoples at the outskirts of agricultural civilizations subjugate vast territories between the Mediterranean and the Pacific What was the impetus that set in motion the overwhelming forces of the nomads which made tremble the royal courts of Europe and Asia Was it an outcome of any predictable historical process or a result of a chain of random events A wide sample of nomadic peoples is discussed mainly on the basis of new data
