Old World Interiors A Modern Interpretation:

Old World Interiors David Naylor, 2008 Interior designer David Naylor embraces the broad range of possibilities presented by a world of materials old and new of objects both found and manufactured He calls his approach infusion design by which he means capturing the ideas of the Old World without forgetting about the present stirring melting pots of cultures and allowing opposites to coexist and pulling together objects from around the world The timelessness natural warmth and adaptability of the popular Southwestern style aesthetic provide an appealing backdrop for his interpretations which eschew the clichés while retaining the essence The architectural elements of the region round beams adobe walls natural wood finishes create a versatile aesthetic that can embrace an infinite variety of designs while the nomadic nature of Americans generally who move freely about the country bringing their favorite decor items with them makes for limitless opportunities to infuse designs with intriguing juxtapositions and unexpected placements Chapters include Old World New World Luxe Americana Contemporary Comfort Mixing It Up Trained as a painter and visual artist David Naylor turned to furniture and interior design and has opened his own workrooms and showroom to feature pieces that he incorporates into his design commissions He has studied at Philadelphia College of Art and later the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts His design studio Visions Design Group is located in Santa Fe NM

In the World Interior of Capital Peter Sloterdijk, 2014-10-16 Displaying the distinctive combination of narration and philosophy for which he is well known this new book by Peter Sloterdijk develops a radically new account of globalization at the beginning of the twenty first century The author takes seriously the historical and philosophical consequences of the notion of the earth as a globe arriving at the thesis that what is praised or decried as globalization is actually the end phase in a process that began with the first circumnavigation of the earth and that one can already discern elements of a new era beyond globalization In the end phase of globalization the world system completed its development and as a capitalist system came to determine all conditions of life Sloterdijk takes the Crystal Palace in London the site of the first world exhibition in 1851 as the most expressive metaphor for this situation The palace demonstrates the inevitable exclusivity of globalization as the construction of a comfort structure that is the establishment and expansion of a world interior whose boundaries are invisible yet virtually insurmountable from without and which is inhabited by one and a half billion winners of globalization three times this number are left standing outside the door

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 "Fashion, Interior Design and the Contours of Modern Identity " Alla Myzelev, 2017-07-05 Challenging the notion that fashion and furniture were or are separate enterprises and distinct material aesthetic traditions this collection focuses on three material and conceptual links central to understanding the relationship between interior design and fashion the body fabric and space The volume considers the changing visual material and spatial character methodological challenges posed by and formal political and historiographical significance of a wide range of British European and North American case studies since the eighteenth century The volume s eleven case studies allow the reader to understand connecting notions behind the formation of interiors and fashionable clothing. The essays combine a wide range of significant and challenging new examples alongside powerful revisionary analyses of the various periods, artists, designers and their best and significant objects. Fashion, Interior Design and the Contours of Modern Identity is concerned not only with fabric but also with the body and the implications of embodiment in the practices of both design domains which are equally invested in the comfort, aesthetic pleasure, extension and support of the body in different and yet seemingly identical ways.

House and Home Greta Gray, 1923 Willa Cather's Canadian and Old World Connections Robert Thacker, Michael A. Peterman, 1999-01-01. Cather Studies 4 contains eighteen essays and elaborates a theme: Willa Cather's Canadian and Old World Connections. Such connections are central to Cather's art and artistry. She transported much from the Old World to the New, shaping her antecedents to tell in new ways the stories of Nebraska, of the American Southwest and especially of Quebec. In Shadows on the Rock, David Stouck details Cather's numerous Canadian connections. Richard Millington treats her anthropological re-creation of the cultural moment of seventeenth-century Quebec. And Fran ois Palteau Papin finds The Hidden French in Cather's English. A volume of lively and informed criticism. Cather Studies 4 vividly demonstrates Cather's artistry and her work's deep connections to the present cultural and critical moment.

House & Garden's Second Book of Interiors Richardson Little Wright, Margaret McElroy, 1926. Contains seven hundred illustrations of halls, living rooms, libraries, dining rooms, bed chambers and other rooms of the house together with their color schemes.

Old House Interiors, 2004-08. National architectural magazine now in its fifteenth year, covering period inspired design 1700-1950. Commissioned photographs show real homes inspired by the past but livable. Historical and interpretive rooms are included; new construction additions and new kitchens and baths take their place along with restoration work. A feature on furniture appears in every issue. Product coverage is extensive. Experts offer advice for homeowners and designers on finishing, decorating and furnishing period homes of every era. A garden feature, essays, archival material, events and exhibitions and book reviews round out the editorial. Many readers claim the beautiful advertising, all of it design related, no lifestyle ads, is as important to them as the articles.
