Olive's Perfect World A Friendship Story:

Olive's Perfect World Jennifer Plecas, 2013-07-11 There's not always a crowd in this book about friendship and the chicken dance. Little kittens Olive and Emily have always been friends ever since they were little. But now Emily has a new friend and it makes Olive feel left out, especially when she realizes all of the things that Emily and her new friend Eva have in common like ballet and eating the same lunch and wearing the same bows in their hair. Olive imagines her perfect world where she and Emily can be friends without Eva there at all. But in the end, Olive realizes that being friends is about more than having things in common; it's about having fun together and cheering each other up when you're sad. It turns out that Olive's perfect world is the world that she's living in where she, Emily, and Eva can all be friends and dance the chicken dance together. This book is perfect for fans of Ladybug Girl and Bumblebee Boy as well as kids whose friendships are changing and maturing as they enter kindergarten and elementary school. Jennifer Plecas is the author and illustrator of the book Pretend and the illustrator of Good Night Good Knight by Shelley Moore and Please is a Good Word To Say and Love is a Good Thing to Feel by Barbara Joosse among others.

Trauma-Responsive Schooling Lyn Mikel Brown, Catharine Biddle, Mark Tappan, 2022-08-23 Trauma Responsive Schooling outlines a novel approach to transforming American schools through student-centered, trauma-informed practices. The book chronicles the use of an innovative educational model, Trauma Responsive Equitable Education (TREE), as part of a multiyear research project in two elementary schools in rural Maine. In this model, Lyn Mikel Brown, Catharine Biddle, and Mark Tappan endorse whole-school change, encouraging educators to upend traditional classroom power dynamics by listening foremost to student voices, validating student experiences, and promoting student agency. The authors provide complex, real-life examples of student involvement in the creation and implementation of trauma-responsive and equitable practices. Their work offers readers concrete, actionable examples of such practices which include supporting the whole child by promoting social and emotional learning (SEL) as well as academic achievement, providing access to basic needs such as food, clothing, and health care, and meeting the instructional requirements of dual language learners. Many rural schools in the United States experience low student achievement and high absenteeism rates as their geographically isolated communities struggle with poverty, substance abuse, and other significant stressors. Yet as the authors demonstrate, supportive learning environments, even in under-resourced rural schools, are able to mitigate adversity, stress, and trauma and thus promote healing. This heartening work illustrates that when educators and school leaders put student needs and interests at the core of school life, long-lasting change for all students is possible.
