Prairie Whistles Dennis Boyer,2001 Recollections told by the men and women who were involved with railroads and railroading conductors porters carmen tower operators telegraph operators and others The tales offer an intimate look at how railroading touched lives throughout the Midwest      Natural Dualism and Mental Disorder Niall McLaren,2021-12-26 This book presents an integrative dualist model of mental disorder for psychiatry as a counter to the so called biomedical approach that dominates the field today Starting with the humanist concept that mental disorder is real it uses a computational approach to build a genuinely bio psycho social model This shows that mental disorder is primarily psychological in nature not biological The historical background extends as far as Descartes and proceeds via some of the revolutionary thinkers who have shaped modern society In particular it builds on the work of George Boole Alan Turing and Claude Shannon to construct a radically new concept of the mind as a real informational space which for better off for worse

can malfunction It extends this idea to build models of personality of personality disorder and then of mental disorder Finally the concepts are tested against a variety of themes from other fields to show its generality Based in the philosophy of science and of mind this work represents a radical departure from anything in the history of psychiatry Its purpose is to provide a formal articulated model of mental disorder to fill the theoretical void at the core of modern psychiatry This book is written for medical students and recent graduates for psychiatrists psychologists social workers and broadly anybody with an interest in human affairs such as philosophy politics and other related fields     Iron Age ,1918     Iron Age and Hardware, Iron and Industrial Reporter ,1918
