On Freedom, Love, and Power Jacques Ellul, 2010-01-01 In these never before published lectures Jacques Ellul refines and clarifies some of his most profound insights on the Jewish and Christian Bibles and their relevance to contemporary society On Freedom Love and Power is easily the most important and exciting work in Christian interpretation that I have read in years This remarkable work offers the reader some of Jacques Ellul s deepest and most controversial insights into what it means to understand and live out what God expects from us and it is what I would recommend first to those who wonder what Ellul understood Christianity to be Richard Stivers Department of Sociology and Anthropology Illinois State University On Freedom Love and Power is a landmark achievement It showcases Jacques Ellul s elegant and insightful thinking on the Bible religion and efficiency A clear and powerful collaboration between Ellul and Willem H Vanderburg two thinkers who are focused on directing human beings toward health and life it is a work I cannot recommend too highly Tim Blackmore Faculty of Information and Media Studies University of Western Ontario Jacques Ellul is one of the most important social and theological thinkers of the twentieth century This book captures Ellul with his students It is subtly personal and direct its informal tone conveys a certain affection that a professor shares with his students around his dining room table People who are weary of organized religion will find On Freedom Love and Power a source of clarity and inspiration Faithful churchgoers will also rejoice as it cuts through to depths of understanding that are new and refreshing Rev Dr Bob Giuliano Professor Emeritus Huron University College
