On Art, Labor, and Religion Ellen Starr, 2017 Provided by publisher      On Art, Labor, and Religion Ellen Gates Starr, Mary Jo Deegan, Ana-Maria Wahl, Starr's interdisciplinary writings touching on social work religion education US history women's studies sociology and urban studies add to the growing anthology of women's history and the lived experiences of the common woman Choice Chicago was a tumultuous and exciting city in 1889 Immigration industrialization urbanization and politics created a vortex of social change This lively chaos called out for both celebration and reform and two women Ellen Gates Starr and Jane Addams responded to this challenge by founding the social settlement Hull House Although Addams is one of the most famous women in American history and a major figure in sociology Starr remains virtually unknown On Art Labor and Religion is the first anthology of Starr's writings and biography and makes evident her contributions to national and international sociological thought and practice In addition to co founding Hull House Starr actively brought the Arts and Crafts movement in Britain to Chicago through extensive and intensive relations with this group of artisans theorists socialists and proto sociologists founding a number of important societies based on their ideals and practices Her writings on art like those of William Morris and John Ruskin stress the need for a unitary life and meaningful work that is aesthetically expressive and in harmony with nature and the community In the first two decades of the twentieth century she gained national fame as a visible socialist and advocate for women's labor movements whose activism helped secure greater safety for many strikers An adherent of Fabian socialism Starr's writings on labor unrest reflect her turning away from aestheticism toward more active political engagement Her firm commitment to feminism expressed between 1892 and 1920 reveal a pragmatic belief in human improvement more inclusive democracy and our capacity to end major social problems On converting to Catholicism in 1920 she left Hull House to follow a more private spiritual journey eventually entering the Benedictine religious order where she remained until her death in 1940 Her late religious and mystical writings renounce her former activism and the Protestant ethic in favor of an otherworldly dedication and an ordered life of prayer and devotion to Christ Her essays make a distinct contribution to our knowledge about early sociology and the social settlement movement This volume restores a significant figure to her rightful place in American social history Mary Jo Deegan is professor of sociology at the University of Nebraska Lincoln She is the author of Jane Addams and the Men of the Chicago School and the editor of George Herbert Mead's Essays in Social Psychology both available from Transaction Ana Maria Wahl is assistant professor of sociology at the University of Nebraska Lincoln She specializes in labor studies and comparative sociology with an emphasis on Mexico      There Were Also Many Women There Katherine E. Harmon, 2013-01-01 Where are the women in liturgical history In considering the influential liturgical movement in the United States during the first half of the twentieth century Katharine E Harmon reveals that the reality is analogous to Matthew's account of the crucifixion of Jesus there were also many women there Matt 27:55 In this groundbreaking study Harmon considers women's involvement in the movement Here readers explore the contributions of Maisie Ward Dorothy Day Catherine deHueck Doherty Ade Bethune Therese Mueller and many others Harmon shows how movements and institutions such as progressivism Catholic women's organizations Catholic Action the American Grail Movement and daily Catholic family life played a prominent role in the liturgical renewal The historical record is clear that women were there they ministered to the Mystical Body and their important work must be recognized

The Routledge Companion to Marxisms in Art History Tijen Tunalı, Brian Winkenweder, 2025-03-31 This companion is an essential contribution to the study of historical materialism in general and the social history of art in particular Each chapter in the collection focuses on a key figure concept or historical epoch Increasingly scholars adopt an array of Marxist methods intertwined with a host of other theoretical practices particularly the historiography of key issues regarding hegemony ideology and identity Ideological issues of connoisseurship patronage and analyses of the artwork as a form of labor and leisure are essential to the practice of Marxisms in art history This collection spotlights a plurality of Marxian theories in which the ideas of such figures as Walter Benjamin Guy Debord and T J Clark are debated and developed through analyses of the socio-historical conditions that impact how art is produced circulated and received This ultimately underscores that the historical contextualization of artworks and their markets within a class-based society is crucial for writing socially engaged art history This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies visual sociology communication studies and the sociology of art

Hegel: Lectures on the Philosophy of Religion Peter C. Hodgson, 2006-10-26 The Hegel Lectures Series Series Editor Peter C Hodgson Hegel's lectures have had as great a historical impact as the works he himself published Important elements of his system are elaborated only in the lectures especially those given in Berlin during the last decade of his life The original editors conflated materials from different sources and dates obscuring the development and logic of Hegel's thought The Hegel Lectures series is based on a selection of extant and recently discovered transcripts and manuscripts The original lecture series are reconstructed so that the structure of Hegel's argument can be followed Each volume presents an accurate new translation accompanied by an editorial introduction and annotations on the text which make possible the identification of Hegel's many allusions and sources Lectures on the Philosophy of Religion One Volume Edition The Lectures of 1827 Hegel's Lectures on the Philosophy of Religion represent the final and in some ways the decisive element of his entire philosophical system In Peter C Hodgson's masterly three volume edition being reissued in the Hegel Lectures Series from which this volume is extracted the structural integrity of the lectures delivered in 1821 1824 1827 and 1831 is established for the first time in an English critical edition based on a complete re editing of the German sources by Walter Jaeschke This one volume edition presents the full text and footnotes of the 1827 lectures making the work available in a convenient form for study Of the lectures that can be fully reconstructed those of 1827 are the clearest most mature and most accessible to nonspecialists In them readers will find Hegel engaged in lively debates and important refinements of his treatment of the concept of religion the Oriental religions and Judaism Christology the Trinity the God world relationship and many other topics This edition contains an editorial introduction critical annotations on the text and tables bibliography and glossary from the complete edition The English translation has been prepared by a team of eminent Hegel scholars Robert F Brown Peter C Hodgson and J Michael Stewart with the assistance of H S Harris Eleanor

Smith's Hull House Songs Graham Cassano, Rima Lunin Schultz, Jessica Payette, 2018-11-26 In Eleanor Smith's Hull House Songs The Music of Protest and Hope in Jane Addams's Chicago the authors republish Hull House Songs 1916 together with critical commentary Hull House Songs contains five politically engaged compositions written by the Hull House music educator Eleanor Smith The commentary that accompanies the folio includes an examination of Smith's poetic sources and musical influences a study of Jane Addams's aesthetic theories and a complete history of the arts at Hull House Through this focus upon aesthetic and cultural programs at Hull House the authors identify the external and internalized forces of domination class position racial identity patriarchal disenfranchisement that limited the work of the Hull House women while also recovering the sometimes hidden emancipatory possibilities of their legacy With an afterword by Jocelyn Zelasko

Self, War, and Society Mary Jo Deegan, 2017-09-08 George Herbert Mead 1863 1931 is a founding figure in the field of sociology His stature is comparable to that of his contemporaries Emile Durkheim and Max Weber Mead's contribution was a profound and unique American theory that analyzed society and the individual as social objects As Mead saw it both society and the individual emerged from cooperative democratic processes linking the self the other and the community Mary Jo

Deegan a leading scholar of Mead's work traces the evolution of his thought its continuity and change She is particularly interested in the most controversial period of Mead's work in which he addressed topics of violence and the nation state Mead's theory of war peace and society emerged out of the historical events of his time particularly World War I During this period he went from being a pacifist along with his contemporaries John Dewey and Jane Addams to being a strong advocate for war From 1917-1918 Mead became a leader in voicing the need for war based on his theory of self and society After the war he became disillusioned with President Woodrow Wilson with Americans failure to support mechanisms for international arbitration and with the political reasons for American participation in World War I He returned to a more pacifist and co-operative model of behavior during the 1920s when he became less political more abstract and more withdrawn from public debate The book includes Deegan's interpretation of Mead's early social thought his friendship and family networks the historical context of America at war and the importance of analysis of violence and the state from Mead's perspective She also provides illustrative selections from Mead's work much of which was previously unpublished     Lectures on the Philosophy of Religion Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel, 2023-09-01 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1988     The American Missionary, 1927 Vols 13-62 include abridged annual reports and proceedings of the annual meetings of the American Missionary Association 1869-1908 v 38-62 include abridged annual reports of the Society's Executive committee 1883-84 1907-1908     Pragmatist and American Philosophical Perspectives on Resilience Kelly A. Parker, Heather E. Keith, 2019-12-03 The essays in Pragmatist and American Philosophical Perspectives on Resilience offer a survey of the ways that resilience is becoming a key concept for understanding our world as well as providing deeper insight about its specific actual and proposed applications As a concept with multiple theoretical and practical meanings resilience promises considerable explanatory power At the same time current uses of the concept can be diverse and at times inconsistent The American philosophical tradition provides tools uniquely suited for clarifying extending and applying emerging concepts in more effective and suggestive ways This collection explores the usefulness of theoretical work in American philosophy and pragmatism to practices in ecology community rurality and psychology     Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress.
