Becoming a Church that Cares Well for the Abused Brad Hambrick, 2019-06-04 Is your church prepared to care for individuals who have experienced various forms of abuse As we continue to learn of more individuals experiencing sexual abuse domestic violence and other forms of abuse it is clear that resources are needed to help ministries and leaders care for these individuals with love support and in cooperation with civil authorities This handbook seeks to help the church take a significant step forward in its care for those who have been abused Working in tandem with the Church Cares resources and videos this handbook brings together leading evangelical trauma counselors victim advocates social workers attorneys batterer interventionists and survivors to equip pastors and ministry leaders for the appropriate initial responses to a variety of abuse scenarios in churches schools or ministries Though the most comprehensive training is experienced by using this handbook and the videos together readers who may be unable to access the videos can use this handbook as a stand alone resource

On This Rock Victor I. Vieth, 2018-07-19 Jesus was the descendant of sexually exploited women narrowly survived a child homicide and grew up to be the world's most prominent defender of children Jesus reserved his harshest words for those who abused or neglected children and went so far as to say our treatment of children says everything about our view of God Although the early church took this message to heart and distinguished itself by its treatment of children this message has been distorted or ignored by many modern Christian leaders As a result the church has often failed to protect children from abuse and in many instances has contributed to their maltreatment In this insightful book Christian theologian and internationally recognized child abuse expert Victor Vieth examines the role of Jesus' life and teachings in reducing child abuse in the New Testament world Vieth urges Christians to once again take seriously everything Jesus had to say about children Using the teachings of Jesus as a blueprint Vieth sets forth a proposal for church reform to prevent many cases of abuse improve the pastoral care of survivors of abuse and witness to the world that Christian faith shows itself in service to children

Unashamed Heather Davis Nelson, 2016-06-14 Shame is everywhere Whether it's related to relationships body image work difficulties or a secret sin we all experience shame at some point in our lives While shame can manifest itself in different ways fear regret and anger it ultimately points us to our most fundamental need as human beings redemption Shame never disappears in solitude and Heather Davis Nelson invites us to not only be healed of our own shame but also be a part of healing for others She shines the life giving light of the gospel on the things that leave us feeling worthless and rejected giving us courage us to walk out of shame s shadows and offering hope for our bondage to brokenness Through the gospel we discover the only real and lasting antidote to shame exchanging our shame for the righteousness of Christ alongside others on this same journey Build on Jesus Deepak Reju,Marty Machowski,2021-10-04 Anyone who has tried it even for a day knows that children s ministry is challenging Pastors Deepak Reju and Marty Machowski have been in your shoes and they want to help Drawing on decades of family ministry experience they have a passion to help children s ministry directors pastors and volunteers remember the why of children s God Made All of Me Justin S.
