

Tadwon's Talented Taekwondo

By Tadwon Peoples

Once upon a time, there lived a young boy named Tadwon in Maplewood, a small town. His insatiable curiosity about the world around him made Tadwon a spirited and adventurous ten-year-old. His dark hair always seemed in disarray, giving him the appearance of mischief. It was impossible not to smile when Tadwon was around, with his twinkling eyes and his perpetually bright smile.

Located in a lush green setting, Maplewood Elementary School was Tadwon's school of choice. His favorite thing about school was that he could embark on new adventures every day. In addition to his boundless energy, he was known for his eagerness to learn. His enthusiasm often astonished his classmates and teachers.

One sunny morning, as Tadwon entered the school gates, he noticed a large bulletin board adorned with colorful posters. It announced the upcoming "Talent Show Extravaganza" to be held at the end of the month. Tadwon's heart leapt with excitement. He always wanted to showcase his talents and share his passion with his friends and teachers.

Tadwon brainstormed ideas for his performance. He considered dancing, singing, and even playing a musical instrument. However, he realized that his true passion lay elsewhere—the martial arts. Tadwon had been practicing taekwondo since he was a young child, and he had become quite skilled in the art form. He decided to perform a taekwondo routine for the talent show.

With newfound determination, Tadwon sought out his Taekwondo instructor, Master Lee, and shared his plans for the talent show. Tadwon's ambition impressed Master Lee, who agreed to help him prepare for the performance. They spent countless hours practicing in the dojo, honing Tadwon's moves and perfecting his routine.

As the talent show day approached, Tadwon's excitement grew. He couldn't wait to showcase his skills and entertain his fellow students. However, on the eve of the performance, doubt crept into Tadwon's mind. He worried about what others might think of his chosen talent. Are they going to find it boring or strange? Would he live up to their expectations?

With a heavy heart, Tadwon confided in his best friend, Lily. She listened attentively and reassured him that his Taekwondo routine would be incredible. Lily reminded him of his boundless enthusiasm, talent, and ability to capture an audience with his infectious energy.
