Neo Victorianism The Victorians In The Twenty First Century 1999 2009:

Neo-Victorianism Ann Heilmann, Mark Llewellyn, 2010-07-28 This field defining book offers an interpretation of the recent figurations of neo Victorianism published over the last ten years Using a range of critical and cultural viewpoints it highlights the problematic nature of this new genre and its relationship to re interpretative critical perspectives on the nineteenth century

The Victorian Era in Twenty-First Century Children's and Adolescent Literature and Culture Sonya Sawyer Fritz, Sara K. Day, 2018-01-19 Victorian literature for audiences of all ages provides a broad foundation upon which to explore complex and evolving ideas about young people In turn this collection argues contemporary works for young people that draw on Victorian literature and culture ultimately reflect our own disruptions and upheavals particularly as they relate to child and adolescent readers and our experiences of them The essays therein suggest that we struggle now as the Victorians did then to assert a cohesive understanding of young readers and that this lack of cohesion is a result of or a parallel to the disruptions taking place on a larger even global scale

Maier, 2024-01-20 This handbook offers analysis of diverse genres and media of neo Victorianism including film and television adaptations of Victorian texts authors life stories graphic novels and contemporary fiction set in the nineteenth century Contextualized by Sarah E Maier and Brenda Ayres in a comprehensive introduction the collection describes current trends in neo Victorian scholarship of novels film theatre crime empire postcolonialism Gothic materiality religion and science amongst others A variety of scholars from around the world contribute to this volume by applying an assortment of theoretical approaches and interdisciplinary focus in their critique of a wide range of narratives from early neo Victorian texts such as A S Byatt s Possession 1963 and Jean Rhys Wide Sargasso Sea 1966 to recent steampunk from musical theatre to slumming and from The Alienist to queerness in their investigation of how this fiction reconstructs the past informed by and reinforming the present The Theological Dickens Brenda Ayres, Sarah E. Maier, 2021-11-18 This is the first collection to investigate Charles Dickens on his vast and various opinions about the uses and abuses of the tenets of Christian faith that imbue English Victorian culture Although previous studies have looked at his well known antipathies toward Dissenters Evangelicals Catholics and Jews they have also disagreed about Dickens thoughts on Unitarianism and speculated on doctrines of Protestantism that he endorsed or rejected Besides addressing his depiction of these religious groups the volume s contributors locate gaps in scholarship and unresolved illations about poverty and charity representations of children graveyards labor scientific controversy and other social issues through an investigation of Dickens theological concerns In addition given that Dickens texts continue to influence every generation around the globe a timely inclusion in the collection is a consideration of the neo Victorian multi media representations of Dickens work and his ideas on theological questions pitched to a postmodern society

Reimag(in)ing the Victorians in Contemporary Art Isobel Elstob, 2023-11-20 From contemporary deployments of taxidermy magic lanterns and microscopy to the visualization of forgotten lives marginalized narratives and colonial histories this book explores how the work of artists including Mat Collishaw Yinka Shonibare Tessa Farmer Mark Dion Dorothy Cross and Ingrid Pollard reimag in es the Victorians in the present Examining how recent paintings sculptures photographs installations and films revisit and re present nineteenth century technologies practices and events the book s rich interdisciplinary approach applies literary media and linguistic theories to its analysis of visual art alongside in depth discussions of the Victorian inventions concepts and narratives that they invoke The book s emphasis on how and why we represent the historical past makes its contribution particularly timely And by drawing attention to the importance of historiography to the work of these artists it also unravels the complicated history of History itself This book will speak to diverse audiences including those interested in art history visual culture Victorian and neo Victorian studies as well as literature histories of science and media postcolonialism museology gender studies postmodernism and the history of ideas

Neo-Victorian Families Christian Gutleben, 2011 Tracing representations of reimagined Victorian families in literature film and television and social discourse this collection the second volume in Rodopi's Neo Victorian Series analyses the historical trajectory of persistent but increasingly contested cultural myths that coalesce around the heterosexual couple and nuclear family as the supposed normative foundation of communities and nations past and present It sheds new light on the significance of families as a source of fluctuating cultural capital deployed in diverse arenas from political debates social policy and identity politics to equal rights activism and analyses how residual as well as emergent ideologies of family are mediated and critiqued by contemporary arts and popular culture This volume will be of interest to researchers and students of neo Victorian studies as well as scholars in contemporary literature and film studies cultural studies and the history of the family Situating the nineteenth century family both as a site of debilitating trauma and the means of ethical resistance against multivalent forms of oppression neo Victorian texts display a fascinating proliferation of alternative family models albeit overshadowed by the apparent recalcitrance of familial ideologies to the same historical changes neo Victorianism reflects and seeks to promote within the cultural imaginary

Rewriting the Victorians Andrea Kirchknopf, 2013-05-21 The 19th century has become especially relevant for the present as one can see from for example large scale adaptations of written works as well as the explosion of commodities and even interactive theme parks This book is an introduction to the novelistic refashionings that have come after the Victorian age with a special focus on revisions of Charlotte Brontë's Jane Eyre and Charles Dickens's Great Expectations As post Victorian research is still in the making the first part is devoted to clarifying terminology and interpretive contexts Two major frameworks for reading post Victorian fiction are developed the literary scene authors readers critics and the national identity political and social aspects Among the works examined are Caryl Phillips's Cambridge Matthew Kneale's English Passengers Peter Carey's Oscar and Lucinda and Jack Maggs Lloyd Jones's Mister Pip Jean Rhys's Wide Sargasso Sea D M Thomas's Charlotte and Jasper Fforde's The Eyre Affair

Angela Carter's Futures Sarah Gamble, Anna Watz, 2025-02-20 This book explores Angela Carter's creative and critical afterlives as well as the multiple ways in which her work is amenable to being read through current critical and cultural theories

Examining topics as diverse as theatrical adaptations of Carter's novels her post human politics and the inspiration of her work for contemporary writers the essays in this collection demonstrate Carter's continuing relevance into the 21st century This volume will appeal both to scholars and students of contemporary women's writing British fiction critical theory reception studies and gender studies Interventions Andrew Smith, Anna Barton, 2017-07-31 This book aims to intervene in current critical contexts for the study of nineteenth century literature within the academy and beyond Topics discussed include science and technology poetry and philosophy the Gothic anatomical exhibitions the global spread of liberalism Anglo American publishing Punjabi popular culture and the neo Victorian in literature film and performance By bringing together a broad range of intellectually challenging perspectives the book offers an engaging critical overview of the field of nineteenth century literary studies that will appeal both to scholars working within the field and students and teachers encountering this fascinating area of study for the first time

Victorians and Videogames Lin Young, Brooke Cameron, 2025-10-30 Victorians and Videogames will examine how games interact with nineteenth century genres aesthetics and literary themes as a means of engaging critiquing or challenging their original contexts In essence this collection will consider the ways in which embodied user driven storytelling can impact new and challenging engagements with the nineteenth century in the contemporary world This book contains four categories that summarize major trends in nineteenth century oriented games The first section Ludic and Narrative Intertextuality examines games that directly adapt nineteenth century texts considering how ludic and literary elements work together to produce new commentary on the original texts Second Genre and Character re Creation will examine games that are more thematically engaged with the nineteenth century Third Navigation Colonization and Exploration examines the ways in which players move and interact with game environments and how game design itself can often evoke social systems or the politics of imperialist conquest Finally Science Systems and Technologies will examine how contemporary games engage with nineteenth century innovations both good and bad in science and technology In this way the sections begin with more explicit nineteenth century engagements and build to more theoretical and subtextual ones

Sarah Waters Kaye Mitchell, 2013-07-18 A multiple award winning author Sarah Waters is one of the most critically and commercially successful novelists writing today In such novels as Fingersmith Tipping the Velvet Affinity and The Night Watch her writing has played compellingly with popular and generic forms and narrative techniques and covered a number of important contemporary themes This critical guide is the first book to offer a wide range of current critical perspectives on Waters work With chapters written by leading established and emerging scholars the book explores issues such as gender sexuality class time and space in Waters fiction as well as her appropriation of a range of genres from the historical and neo victorian novel to the gothic The book also includes a new interview with Waters herself a timeline of her life chapter summaries and guides to further reading making this an essential guide to the work of one of the most exciting voices in contemporary fiction

Victorian Dress in Contemporary Historical Fiction Danielle Mariann Dove, 2023-10-19 Victorian Dress in Contemporary Historical Fiction is the first full length study to investigate and attend to the deeply suggestive and highly symbolic iterations of Victorian women s dress in the contemporary cultural imagination Drawing upon a range of popular and less well studied neo Victorian novels published between 1990 and 2014 as well as their Victorian counterparts 19th century illustrative material and extant Victorian garments Danielle Dove explores the creative possibilities afforded by dress and fashion as gendered sites of agency and affect Focusing on the relationship between texts and textiles she demonstrates how dress is central to the narrativization re formulation and re fashioning of the material past in the present In its examination of the narrative trajectories lively vitalities and material entanglements that accrue to and originate from dress in the neo Victorian novel this study brings a fresh approach to reading Victorian sartorial culture For researchers and students of Victorian and neo Victorian studies dress history material culture and gender studies this volume offers a rich resource with which to illuminate the power of fashion in fiction English Topographies in Literature and Culture, 2016-08-01 English Topographies in Literature and Culture takes a spatial approach to the study of English culture In order to gain a fresh perspective on constructions of English cultural identity the collection treats geography social spaces and spatial practices as well as representations of space and place as complex constellations termed cultural topographies Individual contributions focus on writing landscapes London psychogeography heritage discourses urban planning and idiosyncratic spatial practices such as suburban gardening In line with the affective turn the investigated cultural topographies transcend the dichotomy between the material and the immaterial through embodiment and embeddedness displaying a new sensitivity in textual visual and aural representations that seek to transcend an anthropocentric perspective Space thus emerges as both political and shaped by affect Power and Society in Terry Pratchett's Discworld Justine Breton, 2025-04-24 A critical deep drive into conceptions of power and society in Terry Pratchett's Discworld novels this book brings together experts in fantasy literature political sciences economics philosophy history and journalism to consider the intricate social tapestry of one of the most intricate worlds in modern fantasy Surveying the Discworld's institutionalised power structures from government and police to civil services banks and societies it explores ideas such as language translation humour crowds community justice and coercion in the series major works Featuring analyses of novels such as Men at Arms Equal Rites Carpe Jugulum Guards Guards Jingo Night Watch Wyrdsisters Witches Abroad and many more this collection illuminates how Pratchett juxtaposed his narratives with contemporary reflections on social constructs Broken down into parts looking at social power dynamics building and destroying worlds and the power of language the book offers a much needed corrective to the dearth of scholarship on one of fantasy literature's worldbuilding titans Sarah Waters and Contemporary Feminisms Adele Jones, Claire O'Callaghan, 2016-07-26 Sarah Waters and Contemporary Feminisms presents ten readings of Sarah Waters's fictions published to date in relation to feminism and contemporary feminist theory The analysis offered in the collection investigates how Waters engages with recent debates on women and gender and how her writings reflect the different concerns of contemporary feminist theories In particular the collection includes new and innovative readings of how Waters's novels address issues of patriarchy female confinement madness and misogyny exploitation and oppression repression and subordination abortion marriage and spinsterhood alongside passionate portrayals of female agency desire aesthetics female sexual expression and of course lesbianism Neo-Victorianism and Medievalism, 2024-04-30 Bringing together neo Victorian and medievalism scholars in dialogue with each other for the first time this collection of essays foregrounds issues common to both fields The Victorians reimagined the medieval era and post Victorian medievalism repurposes received nineteenth century tropes as do

neo Victorian texts For example aesthetic movements such as Arts and Crafts which looked for inspiration in the medieval era are echoed by steampunk in its return to Victorian dress and technology Issues of gender identity sexuality imperialism and nostalgia arise in both neo Victorianism and medievalism and analysis of such texts is enriched and expanded by the interconnections between the two fields represented in this groundbreaking collection Victorian Metafiction Tabitha Sparks, 2022-11-17 Critics agree in the abstract that metafiction refers to any novel that draws attention to its own fictional construction but metafiction has been largely associated with the postmodern era In this innovative new book Tabitha Sparks identifies a sustained pattern of metafiction in the Victorian novel that illuminates the art and intentions of its female practitioners From the mid nineteenth century through the fin de siècle novels by Victorian women such as Charlotte Brontë Rhoda Broughton Charlotte Riddell Eliza Lynn Linton and several New Women authors share a common but underexamined trope the fictional characterization of the woman novelist or autobiographer Victorian Metafiction reveals how these novels systemically dispute the assumptions that women wrote primarily about their emotions or were restricted to trivial sentimental plots Countering an established tradition that has read novels by women writers as heavily autobiographical and confessional Sparks identifies the literary technique of metafiction in numerous novels by women writers and argues that women used metafictional self consciousness to draw the reader's attention to the book and not the novelist By dislodging the narrative from these cultural prescriptions Victorian Metafiction effectively argues how these women novelists presented the business and art of writing as the subject of the novel and wrote metafiction in order to establish their artistic integrity and professional authority
