Mothers and Children Susan E. Chase, Mary Frances Rogers, 2001 Motherhood is a highly personal array of experiences with a uniquely public dimension preoccupying policymakers advice givers health care providers religious leaders child care workers educators and total strangers who feel entitled to judge mothers they see with their children in the neighborhood or on the TV news Chase U of Tulsa and Rogers U of West Florida approach motherhood and mothering as feminist sociologists focusing on questions such as how ideas about motherhood are shaped by social and historical conditions how ideas about motherhood change over time and across social contexts who has the power to make their definitions of motherhood stick and what diverse groups of mothers themselves think Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Mothers, Mothering and Motherhood Across Cultural Differences - A Reader Andrea O'Reilly, 2014-05-01 Mothers Mothering and Motherhood across Cultural Differences the first ever Reader on the subject matter examines the meaning and practice of mothering motherhood from a multitude of maternal perspectives The Reader includes 22 chapters on the following maternal identities Aboriginal Adoptive At Home Birth Black Disabled East Asian Feminist Immigrant Refugee Latina Chicana Poor Low Income Migrant Non Residential Older Queer Rural Single South Asian Stepmothers Working Young Mothers and Mothers of Adult Children Each chapter provides background and context examines the challenges and possibilities of mothering motherhood for each group of mothers and considers directions for future research The first anthology to provide a comprehensive examination of mothers mothering motherhood across diverse cultural locations and subject positions the book is essential reading for maternal scholars and activists and serves as an ideal course text for a wide range of courses in Motherhood Studies Feminist Mothering Andrea O'Reilly, 2008-10-09 Feminist Mothering goes beyond critiques of patriarchal motherhood to locate and investigate feminist maternal practices as sites for women s empowerment and social change The contributors see feminist mothering as practices of mothering that seek to challenge and change the norms of patriarchal motherhood that are limiting and oppressive to women For many women practicing feminist mothering offers a way to disrupt the transmission of sexist and patriarchal values from generation to generation Contributors explore the ways in which women integrate activism paid employment nonsexist childrearing practices and non child centered interests in their lives and other caregivers into their children s lives in order to challenge existing societal inequality and create new egalitarian possibilities for women men and families Motherhood and Feminism Amber E. Kinser, 2010-05-04 How does feminism relate to motherhood how has it changed over time and what does the future of motherhood and feminism look like These are just some of the questions Amber E Kinser PhD tackles in Motherhood and Feminism The latest in the Seal Studies series Motherhood and Feminism is an important title examining the role of feminism within motherhood The topic has garnered a lot of attention lately as society shifts to adapt to new definitions of these roles Kinser has made a career of speaking teaching and writing about motherhood and feminism weaving her own experience as a mother together with the knowledge and critique she has garnered through her studies She offers insight on the core questions of motherhood what it means to be a good mother the role of mothers in the family and in society and how motherhood has been redefined throughout time Kinser examines how the changing world of motherhood fits into feminist activism and speculates on the future directions of these identities Matricentric Feminism: Theory, Activism, Practice. The 2nd Edition Andrea O'Reilly, 2021-04-04 The 2nd edition includes a new preface that considers how matricentric feminism in positioning mothering as a verb affords a gender neutral understanding of motherwork and allows for an appreciation of how motherwork is deeply gendered and how this may be challenged and changed through empowered mothering The book argues that the category of mother is distinct from the category of woman and that many of the problems mothers face are specific to women's role and identity as mothers Indeed mothers are oppressed under patriarchy as women and as mothers Consequently mothers need a feminism of their own one that positions mothers concerns as the starting point for a theory and politic of empowerment O'Reilly terms this new mode of feminism matricentric feminism and the book explores how it is represented and experienced in theory activism and practice The Matrix of Race Rodney D. Coates, Abby L. Ferber, David L. Brunson, 2017-09-25 The authors are proud sponsors of the 2020 SAGE Keith Roberts Teaching Innovations Award enabling graduate students and early career faculty to attend the annual ASA pre conference teaching and learning workshop The Matrix of Race Social Construction Intersectionality and Inequality is a textbook that makes race and racial inequality visible in new ways to all students in race ethnic relations courses regardless of their backgrounds from minorities who have experienced the impact of race in their own lives to members of dominant groups who might believe that we now live in a color blind society The matrix refers to a way of thinking about race that reflects the intersecting multilayered identities of contemporary society and the powerful social institutions that shape our understanding of race Its goals are to help readers get beyond familiar us vs them arguments that can lead to resistance and hostility promote self appraisal and stimulate more productive discussions about race and racism Free Poster Making Race and Racial Inequality Visible in New Ways A Complete Teaching Learning Package SAGE coursepacks FREE Easily import our quality instructor and student resource content into your school's learning management system LMS and save time Learn more SAGE edge FREE online resources for students that make learning easier See how your students benefit In (M)other Words Andrea O'Reilly, 2024-04-30 Dr Andrea O'Reilly is internationally recognized as the founder of Motherhood Studies 2006 and its subfield Maternal Theory 2007 and creator of the concept of Matricentric Feminism a feminism for and about mothers 2016 and Matricritics a literary theory and practice for a reading of mother focused texts 2021 With this collection O'Reilly continues the conversation on the meaning and nature of motherhood initiated by Adrienne Rich in Of Woman Born close to fifty years ago In In Mother Words O'Reilly shares 25 of her chapters and articles published between 2009-2024 to examine the oppressive and empowering dimensions of mothering and to explore motherhood as institution experience subjectivity and empowerment The collection considers the central themes and theories of motherhood studies including normative motherhood feminist mothering maternal regret matricentric pedagogy young mothers academic motherhood matricentric feminism matricritics motherhood and feminism the motherhood memoir the twenty first century motherhood movement mothers and daughters mothers and sons pandemic mothering and the motherline Normative Motherhood: Andrea O'Reilly,2023-03-23 A central aim of motherhood studies is to examine and theorize normative motherhood Where does it come from What are its defining features and demands How does it work as a regulatory discourse and practice across differences of age class race ability sexuality and region What is the impact of normative motherhood on women s lives What does an intersectional analysis of normative motherhood reveal How is normative motherhood reflected and enacted in public policy workplace practices family arrangements and so on How is normative motherhood represented and resisted in literature art photography and film How do or may women resist normative motherhood This collection explores these questions of normative motherhood under three interrelated topics Regulations Representations and Reclamations

Gendered Mobilities Tim Cresswell,2016-04-22 Being socially and geographically mobile is generally seen as one of the central aspects of women s wellbeing Alongside health education and political participation mobility is indispensable in order for women to reach goals such as agency and freedom Building on new philosophical underpinnings of mobility whereby society is seen to be framed by the convergence of various mobilities this volume focuses on the intersection of mobility social justice and gender The authors reflect on five highly interdependent mobilities that form and reform social life The Routledge Companion to Motherhood Lynn O'Brien Hallstein,Andrea O'Reilly,Melinda Giles,2019-11-04 Interdisciplinary and intersectional in emphasis the Routledge Companion to Motherhood brings together essays on current intellectual themes issues and debates while also creating a foundation for future scholarship and study as the field of Motherhood Studies continues to develop globally This Routledge Companion is the first extensive collection on the wide ranging topics themes issues and debates that ground the intellectual work being done on motherhood Global in scope and including a range of disciplinary perspectives including anthropology literature communication studies sociology women s and gender studies history and economics this volume introduces the foundational topics and ideas in motherhood delineates the diversity and complexity of mothering and also stimulates dialogue among scholars and students approaching from divergent backgrounds and intellectual perspectives This will become a foundational text for academics in Women s and Gender Studies and interdisciplinary researchers interested in this important complex and rapidly growing topic Scholars of psychology sociology or public policy and activists in both university and workplace settings interested in motherhood and mothering will find it an invaluable guide Motherhood in the Media Barbara Barnett,2016-02-19 This book examines contemporary media stories about women who kill their children By analyzing media texts motherhood blogs and journalistic interviews the book seeks to understand better maternal violence and the factors that lead women to harm their children The central thesis of this book is that media practices have changed dramatically during the past 50 years as has society's views on appropriate feminine behavior yet definitions of characteristics of good mothers remain largely defined by 1950s sitcoms Victorian ideals and Christian theology The book contends that in spite of media saturation in American society and the media's increased opportunities to tell complex and nuanced stories news media narratives continue to situate maternal violence as rare unfathomable and unpredictable The news media's shift in focus from public service to profit making industry has encouraged superficial coverage of maternal violence as reporters look for stories that sell not stories that explain Motherhood blogs in contrast offer an opportunity for women to tell their own stories about motherhood based on experience Interviews with journalists offer insights into how the structure of their jobs dictates media coverage of this intimate form of violence

Little House, Long Shadow Anita Clair Fellman, 2008-05-21 Beyond their status as classic children's stories Laura Ingalls Wilder's Little House books play a significant role in American culture that most people cannot begin to appreciate Millions of children have sampled the books in school played out the roles of Laura and Mary or visited Wilder homesites with their parents who may be fans themselves Yet as Anita Clair Fellman shows there is even more to this magical series with its clear emotional appeal a covert political message that made many readers comfortable with the resurgence of conservatism in the Reagan years and beyond In Little House Long Shadow a leading Wilder scholar offers a fresh interpretation of the Little House books that examines how this beloved body of children's literature found its way into many facets of our culture and consciousness even influencing the responsiveness of Americans to particular political views Because both Wilder and her daughter Rose Wilder Lane opposed the New Deal programs being implemented during the period in which they wrote their books reflect their use of family history as an argument against the state's protection of individuals from economic uncertainty Their writing emphasized the isolation of the Ingalls family and the family's resilience in the face of crises and consistently equated self sufficiency with family acceptance security and warmth Fellman argues that the popularity of these books abetted by Lane's overtly libertarian views helped lay the groundwork for a negative response to big government and a positive view of political individualism contributing to the acceptance of contemporary conservatism while perpetuating a mythic West Beyond tracing the emergence of this influence in the relationship between Wilder and her daughter Fellman explores the continuing presence of the books and their message in modern cultural institutions from classrooms to tourism newspaper editorials to Internet message boards Little House Long Shadow shows how ostensibly apolitical artifacts of popular culture can help explain shifts in political assumptions It is a pioneering look at the dissemination of books in our culture that expands the discussion of recent political transformations and suggests that sources other than political rhetoric have contributed to Americans renewed appreciation of individualist ideals

Theatre History Studies 2016, Vol. 35 Sara Freeman, 2016-12-06 Rosemarie K Bank and Michal Kobialka eds Theatre Performance Historiography Time Space Matter Reviewed by Danny Devlin From Happy Homemaker to Desperate Housewives

Rebecca Feasey, 2012-11-01 From Happy Homemaker to Desperate Housewives: Motherhood and Popular Television is a comprehensive and accessible introduction to key debates concerning the representations of motherhood, motherwork and the maternal role in contemporary television programming. The volume looks at the construction of motherhood in the ostensibly female genre of soap opera, the mother as housewife in the domestic situation comedy, deviant, desiring and delinquent motherwork in the teen drama, the single working mother in the contemporary dramedy, the fragile and failing mother of reality parenting television, the serene and selfless celebrity motherhood profile and the new mother in reality pregnancy and childbirth television. Motherhood and Popular Television examines the depiction of motherhood in this wide range of popular television genres in order to illustrate how the maternal role is being constructed, circulated and interrogated in contemporary factual and fictional programming, paying particular attention to the ways in which such images can be seen to challenge or conform to the ideal image of the good mother that dominates the contemporary cultural landscape.

The Online World of Surrogacy Zsuzsa Berend, 2016-09-01 Zsuzsa Berend presents a methodologically innovative ethnography of SurroMomsOnline.com, the largest surrogacy support website in the United States. Surrogates' views emerge from the stories, debates and discussions that unfold online. The Online World of Surrogacy documents these collective meaning-making practices and explores their practical, emotional and moral implications. In doing so, the book works through themes of interest across the social sciences, including definitions of parenthood, the symbolic role of money, reproductive loss, altruism and the moral valuation of relationships.

The Power and Vulnerability of Love Elizabeth O'Donnell Gandolfo, 2015 Gandolfo constructs a theological anthropology that begins with the condition of human vulnerability as a site to answer why human beings experience and inflict terrible suffering. This volume argues that vulnerability is a dimension of human existence that causes us great anxiety, which forms the basis for violence but also affords the possibility.

Confronting Postmaternal Thinking Julie Stephens, 2012-03-20 Julie Stephens confronts the core claims of postmaternal thought and criticises dominant representations of feminism as having forgotten motherhood. She does this through an investigation of oral histories, life narratives, web blogs and other rich and varied sources. The book highlights the deep cultural anxiety that exists around public expressions of maternalism. It examines why postmaternal thinking has become so influential in recent decades and asks why there has been a growing unease with maternal forms of subjectivity and maternalist perspectives.

Who's Afraid of Women's Studies? Mary Frances Rogers, C. D. Garrett, 2002 In Who's Afraid of Women's Studies? the authors ask why there persists a fear of feminism and women's studies in the academy. Rogers and Garrett remind us that this field came into being as the result of women's practical efforts of advocacy and activism to represent marginalized, excluded and silenced voices. They explain the complex relationship between feminism, women's studies and their deradicalized offspring, gender studies. Six broad topics that have dominated the field over the past twenty-five years are examined in individual chapters: girls and women's bodies, anger and desires, sexuality, identity, politics.

insider backlash and feminist methods The authors challenge women and men alike to reevaluate the concepts and analytical tools available in women s studies that are so uniquely oriented to understanding women s everyday lived experiences They demonstrate how its rich historical and social analyses are the basis for a passionate scholarship one that builds bridges between theory and practice to transform communities women s organizations and social movements This new book will be a stimulating overview of women s studies gender studies and feminist theory as well as a concise introduction to supplement standard texts or anthologies

Infertility in a Crowded Country Holly Donahue Singh,2022-12-06 In Lucknow the capital of India s most populous state the stigmas and colonial legacies surrounding sexual propriety and population growth affect how Muslim women often in poverty cope with infertility In Infertility in a Crowded Country Holly Donahue Singh draws on interviews observation and autoethnographic perspectives in local communities and Lucknow s infertility clinics to examine access to technology and treatments and to explore how pop culture shapes the reproductive paths of women and their supporters through clinical spaces health camps religious sites and adoption agencies Donahue Singh finds that women are willing to transgress social and religious boundaries to seek healing By focusing on interpersonal connections Infertility in a Crowded Country provides a fascinating starting point for discussions of family kinship and gender the global politics of reproduction and reproductive technologies and ideologies and social practices around creating families

Poetry, Method and Education Research Esther Fitzpatrick,Katie Fitzpatrick,2020-07-21 Poetry can be both political and pedagogical It is utilised in a variety of ways in research to enhance critique analyse and express different voices Poetry Method and Education Research brings together international scholars to explore issues as diverse as neoliberalism culture decolonising education health and teacher identities A key strength of the book is its attention to poetry as a research method including discussions of how to engage with poetry in research as well as including a range of research poems Poetry is thus framed as both a method and performance Authors in this book address a wide variety of questions from different perspectives including how to use poetry to think about complex issues in education where poetry belongs in a research project how to write poetry to generate and analyse data and how poetry can represent these findings This book is an essential resource for students and researchers in education programmes and those who teach in graduate research methods courses
