

NEED ASSESSMENT IN PUBLIC HEALTH CARE

- Public health is responsible for assessing the health needs of the entire population. This responsibility includes the publication and dissemination of the results of the assessment for the use of all interested parties.
- The assessment function of public health must not only consider the needs of the many, it must ensure that the needs of vulnerable groups are also regularly assessed and given attention.
- The results may bring about marked changes. Not only can it alter perceptions regarding the need for an activity or agency, but can also reshape a program's purpose, direction, organization, operations, and personnel complement.
