Bibliotheca Neerlandica Extra Muros ,1970 The Mirror of Salvation Adriaan J. Barnouw,2012-12-06 In two world wars waged within the life time of one generation Death reaped a prolific harvest His most formidable scythe in former days was not war but pestilence But since medical science has forged all kinds of weapons wherewith to strike that dreaded tool out of his knuckles he resorted in our lifetime to a new technique of morticulture which has yielded him un dreamt of results Using race hatred as fertilizer he has grown on the soil of the globe a crop of dead whose size baffles the imagination The executioners whom he employed in Hitler s Germany kept careful record of the loathsome work they did for him in torture camps and gas chambers They reckoned that six million Jews were delivered to Death by their efforts In Holland alone only fifteen thousand of her one hundred and fifty thousand Jews survived the massacre Death was the chief war profiteer Though his inflated power was reduced by the overthrow of his Nazi henchmen his innings are still large as he stalks across the world with his satellites Poverty Hunger and Disease Dramatizations of Social Change Neck Yoder,2013-12-17

Herman Heijermans 1864 1924 was convinced that he lived in an overgangs 1 tijdperk a transitional period As a young man in the eighteen nineties he rejected those values and life styles which he felt belonged to the past period dominated by the bourgeoisie and sought out situations and a profession which would attune him to the future when he hoped the proletariat would 2 be in power He left the conservative business milieu of Rotterdam in 1892 and went to Amsterdam then teeming with radical ideas At first Heijermans was attracted to a group of poets de tachtigers who were claiming to have enlivened the stale tradition of Dutch poetry by discovering language and beauty in a totally new way but soon he felt them to be elitist Then in 1895 he became a member of the newly founded Dutch Social Democratic Workers Party He alienated himself from the literary circles by claiming that art should be socialistic and by rejecting the class separation between artists and workers He felt himself to be one with the proletariat and through them with The New Life and The New Humanity Stimulated by the ongoing theater revival which he interpreted as an attempt to challenge the bourgeois smugness and moral self righteousness he had started to write plays before becoming interested in the Socialist Party Faits et Valeurs Pierre.

Brachin,2012-12-06 Making the Personal Political Jane Fenoulhet,2017-12-02 Making the Personal Political is an interdisciplinary account of a now forgotten success story in the history of the society and culture of the Netherlands While Dutch women had apparently retreated into domesticity after gaining the vote in 1919 women writers were out there in the market place selling the inside story of women s lives Eight case studies of women writers between 1919 and 1970 trace the unconscious politics of the personal in narratives of women s identity and experience through close readings of texts located in the culture of the time Jane Fenoulhet whose knowledge of Dutch literature and culture in the twentieth century is unparalleled in the English speaking world tracks the public representation of women s private project of self development to the moment when the personal is finally accepted as politically important in Dutch society Suriname Irene

Rolfes,2025-01-20 New Germans, New Dutch Liesbeth Minnaard,2008 In today s globalized world traditions of a national Self and a national Other no longer hold This timely volume considers the stakes in our changing definitions of national boundaries in light of the unmistakable transformation of German and Dutch societies Examining how the literature of migration intervenes in public discourses on multiculturalism and including detailed analysis of works by the Turkish German writers Emine Sevgi Zamer and Feridun Zaimoglu and the Moroccan Dutch writers Abdelkader Benali and Hafid Bouazza New Germans New Dutch offers crucial insights into the ways in which literature negotiates both difference and the national context of its writing The Family of Love 1540-1660 Alastair Hamilton,2025-01-01 Over forty years after its original publication Alastair Hamilton has revised and updated his comprehensive study of the heterodox movement known as the Family of Love Part of the Radical Reformation it has been a source of fascination to scholars earning a reputation for antinomianism alongside its association with some of the greatest humanists of the late sixteenth century They include the philosopher and philologist Justus Lipsius and the greatest typographer of his day Christophe Plantin Hamilton studies the careers and the thought of the two main ideologists of the movement and provides a lucid analysis of the ramifications of the Family of Love not only in the Low Countries but also in France Germany and England Extensively researched Hamilton s detailed study was the first to connect the Family of Love in England with the movement on the continent His book remains a definitive but readable history of a neglected yet significant moment in the history of the Radical Reformation in Europe

Dutch Frans Hinskens,Johan Taeldeman,2013-11-27 This handbook aims at a state of the art overview of both earlier and recent research into older newer and emerging non standard varieties dialects regiolects sociolects ethnolects substandard varieties transplanted varieties and daughter languages mixed languages creoles of Dutch The discussion concerns the theoretical embedding potential interdisciplinary connections and the methodology of the studies at issue keeping in mind comparability and generalizability of the findings It presents general concepts and approaches in the broad domain of Dutch variation linguistics and the main developments in different varieties of Dutch and their offspring abroad The book counts 47 chapters written by over 40 scholars from the Netherlands Flanders Germany England South Africa Australia the USA and Jamaica Doing Double Dutch Elke Brems,Orsolya Réthelyi,Ton van Kalmthout,2017-05-22 The importance of a minor language in the field of world literature Dutch literature is increasingly understood as a network of texts and poetics connected to other languages and literatures through translations and adaptations In this book a team of international researchers explores how Dutch literary texts cross linguistic historical geophysical political religious and disciplinary borders and reflects on a wide range of methods for studying these myriad border crossings As a result this volume provides insight into the international dissemination of Dutch literature and the position of a smaller less translated language within the field of world literature The title Doing Double Dutch evokes a popular rope skipping game in which two people turn two long jump ropes in opposite directions while a third person jumps them A fitting metaphor for how literature circulates internationally two dynamic spheres the source culture and the target culture engage one another in a complex pattern of movement resulting in a new literary work translation or adaptation formed somewhere in the middle Contributors Chiara Beltrami Gottmer American International School of Rotterdam Peter Boot Huygens ING Pieter Boulogne KU Leuven Elke Brems KU Leuven Michel De Dobbeleer University of Ghent Caroline de Westenholz Louis Couperus Museum Gillis Dorleijn University of Groningen Wilken Engelbrecht Palack University Olomouc Veerle Fraeters University of Antwerp Maud Gonne KU Leuven Christine Hermann University of Vienna Peter Kegel Huygens ING Tessa Lobbes Utrecht University Marijke Meijer Drees University of Groningen Reine Meylaerts KU Leuven Marco Prandoni University of Bologna Marion Prinse Utrecht University Orsolya R thelyi E tv s Lor nd University Budapest Huygens ING Diana Sanz Roig Universitat Pompeu Fabra Rita Schlusemann Utrecht University Matthieu Sergier Universit Saint Louis Brussels Natalia Stachura Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan Janek Urbaniak University of Wroc aw St phanie Vanasten UCL Louvain la Neuve Ton van Kalmthout Huygens ING Suzanne van Putten Brons Herbert Van Uffelen University of Vienna Marc van Zoggel Huygens ING Nico Wilterdink University of Amsterdam

Women in Europe between the Wars Angela Kimyongür, 2017-11-30 The central aim of this interdisciplinary book is to make visible the intentionality behind the forgetting of European women s contributions during the period between the two world wars in the context of politics culture and society It also seeks to record and analyse women s agency in the construction and reconstruction of Europe and its nation states after the First World War and thus to articulate ways in which the writing of women s history necessarily entails the rewriting of everyone s history By showing that the erasure of women s texts from literary and cultural history was not accidental but was ideologically motivated the essays explicitly and implicitly contribute to debates surrounding canon formation Other important topics are women s political activism during the period antifascism the contributions made by female journalists the politics of literary production genre women s relationship with and contributions to the avant garde women s professional lives and women s involvement in voluntary associations In bringing together the work of scholars whose fields of expertise are diverse but whose interests converge on the inter war period the volume invites readers to make connections and comparisons across the whole spectrum of women s political social and cultural activities throughout Europe

Literature and the Law in South Africa, 1910-2010 Ted Laros, 2017-12-29 In 1994 artistic freedom pertaining inter alia to literature was enshrined in the South African Constitution Clearly the establishment of this right was long overdue compared to other nations within the Commonwealth Indeed the legal framework and practices regarding the regulation of literature that were introduced following the nation s transition to a non racial democracy seemed to form a decisive turning point in the history of South African censorship of literature This study employs a historical sociological point of view to describe how the nation s emerging literary field helped pave the way for the constitutional entrenchment of this right in 1994 On the basis of institutional and poetological analyses of all the legal trials concerning literature that were held in South Africa during the period 1910-2010 it describes how the battles fought in and around the courts between literary, judicial and executive elites eventually led to a constitutional exception for literature. As the South African judiciary displayed an ongoing orientation towards both English and American law in this period, the analyses are firmly placed in the context of developments occurring concurrently in these two legal systems. Strietman, 2012-10-31 Early modern theatre was a visual matter even though the authors wrote plays which were mainly meant to be read. But whether they wrote their plays to have them performed or not, authors could use comedies, tragedies or comedies to influence public opinion, to make a statement in a debate or to convey explicit or implicit lessons that they carried out or had carried out by linguistic, rhetorical and theatrical means. How explicit they were in expressing their views depended on the characters of the authors or the circumstances in which they wrote. Questions regarding the opinion-forming and opinion-following functions of theatre, the means by which authors and theatre makers expressed their ideas and the role of theatre and plays in public debate are discussed from various angles. Such questions refer not only to literary plays but also to other forms of theatrical event such as royal entrances. Contributors include Imre B. Sanger, Hartmut Beyer, Stijn Bussels, Jean-Frédéric Chevalier, Verena Demoed, Arjan van Dixhoorn, Ron Gruijters, Jelle Koopmans, Frans Willem Korsten, Katell Lavant, Hubert Meeus, Marco Prandoni and Helmar Schramm. Women's Writing from the Low Countries 1880-2010 Jacqueline Bel, Thomas Vaessens, 2010 This first of its kind anthology offers the English-speaking readers a unique chance to become acquainted with the leading Dutch and Flemish women writers since the 1880s. Covering a representative range of public and private genres from poetry, critical essays, travel literature and political commentary to diaries and journals, the fifty-six texts are arranged chronologically and are accompanied by brief introductions, chronologies and brief guides to the authors and works. An important contribution to our understanding of modern European literary canon and the long march of feminist history and literature. Dutch ed. Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time. General questions of the literary, as e.g. the relation between literature and reality, truth and fiction, the dependency of author, narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre. Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms. Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles, autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance. By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs, diaries, self-portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre, this three-volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches, systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective. While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition, special emphasis is placed on the modes of self-representation in non-Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers Language, Writing, and Mobility Florian Coulmas, 2022-05-12 This book explores the interaction between three key aspects of everyday life language writing and mobility with particular focus on their effects on language contact While the book adopts an established view of language and society that is in keeping with the sociolinguistic paradigm developed in recent decades it differs from earlier studies in that it assigns writing a central position Sociolinguistics has long concentrated primarily on speech but Florian Coulmas shows in this volume that the social importance of writing should not be disregarded it is the most consequential technology ever invented it suggests stability and it defines borders Linguistic studies have often emphasized that writing is external to language but the discipline nevertheless owes its analytic categories to writing Finally the digital revolution has fundamentally changed communication patterns transforming the social functions of writing and consequently also of language Sociocultural Aspects of Translating and Interpreting

Anthony Pym, Miriam Shlesinger, Zuzana Jettmarova, 2006-01-01 Translation Studies has recently been searching for connections with Cultural Studies and Sociology This volume brings together a range of ways in which the disciplines can be related particularly with respect to research methodologies The key aspects covered are the agents behind translation the social histories revealed by translations the perceived roles and values of translators in social contexts the hidden power relations structuring publication contexts and the need to review basic concepts of the way social and cultural systems work Special importance is placed on Community Interpreting as a field of social complexity the lessons of which can be applied in many other areas The volume studies translators and interpreters working in a wide range of contexts ranging from censorship in East Germany to English translations in Gujarat Major contributions are made by Agn s Whitfield Daniel Gagnon Franz P chhacker Michaela Wolf Pekka Kujam ki and Rita Kothari with an extensive introduction on methodology by Anthony Pym Gender Matters Mara R. Wade, 2013-12-05 Gender Matters opens the debate concerning violence in literature and the arts beyond a single national tradition and engages with multivalent aspects of both female and male gender constructs mapping them onto depictions of violence By defining a tight thematic focus and yet offering a broad disciplinary scope for inquiry the present volume brings together a wide range of scholarly papers investigating a cohesive topic gendered violence from the perspectives of French German Italian Spanish English and Japanese literature history musicology art history and cultural studies It interrogates the intersection of gender and violence in the early modern period cutting across national traditions genres media and disciplines By engaging several levels of discourse the volume advances a holistic approach to understanding gendered violence in the early modern world The convergence of discourses concerning literature the arts emerging print technologies social and legal norms and textual and visual practices leverages a more complex understanding of gender in this period Through the unifying lens of gender and violence the contributions to this volume comprehensively address a wide scope of diverse issues approaches and geographies from late medieval Japan to the European Enlightenment While the majority of essays focus on early modern Europe they are broadly contextualized and informed by integrated critical approaches pertaining to issues of violence and gender

Aggregating Dialectology, Typology, and Register Analysis Benedikt Szmrecsanyi, Bernhard Wälchli, 2014-08-22 This volume aims to overcome sub disciplinary boundaries in the study of linguistic variation be it language internal or cross linguistic Even though dialectologists register analysts typologists and quantitative linguists all deal with linguistic variation there is astonishingly little interaction across these fields But the fourteen contributions in this volume show that these subdisciplines actually share many interests and methodological concerns in common The chapters specifically converge in the following ways First they all seek to explore linguistic variation within or across languages Second they are based on usage data that is on corpora of more or less authentic text or speech of different languages or language varieties Third all chapters are concerned with the joint analysis also sometimes known as aggregation or data synthesis of multiple phenomena features or measurements of some sort And lastly the contributors all marshal quantitative analysis techniques to analyse the data In short the volume explores the text feature aggregation pipeline in variation studies demonstrating that there is much mutual inspiration to be had by thinking outside the disciplinary box

Phonological Explorations Bert Botma, Roland Noske, 2012-10-30 The 16 papers contained in this volume address a variety of phonological topics from different theoretical perspectives Combined they provide an excellent showcase for the diversity of the field Topics considered include the place of allomorphy in grammar Dutch clippings the status of recursion in phonology the role of contrast preservation in the Grimm Verner push chain the phonological specification of Dutch tense and lax monophthongs the distribution of English vowels in a Strict CV framework a dependency based analysis of Germanic vowel shifts a Radical CV Phonology approach to vowel harmony emergentist vs universalist perspectives on frequency effects in vowel harmony the representation of Limburgian tonal accents durational enhancement in Maastricht Limburgish high vowels constraint conjunction in Mandarin Chinese lexical tone association in Harmonic Serialism a constraint based account of the McGurk effect a case study of the acquisition of liquids in early L1 Dutch and the learnability of segmentation in Tibetan numerals
