Darryl Whetter, 2021-08-26 This book examines the dynamic landscape of creative education in Asia, exploring the intersection of post-coloniality, translation and creative education in one of the world's most relevant testing grounds for STEM versus STEAM educational debates. Several essays attend to one of today's most pressing issues in Creative Writing education and education generally: the convergence of the former educational revolution of Creative Writing in the anglophone world with a defining aspect of the 21st century: the shift from monolingual to multilingual writers and learners. The essays look at examples from across Asia with specific experience from India, Singapore, China, Hong Kong, the Philippines and Taiwan.
