French Cinema Rémi Fournier Lanzoni, 2015-10-22 To a large extent the story of French filmmaking is the story of moviemaking From the earliest flickering images of the late nineteenth century through the silent era, Surrealist influences, the Nazi Occupation, the glories of the New Wave, the rebirth of the industry in the 1990s with the exception culturelle and the present Rémi Lanzoni examines a considerable number of the world's most beloved films Building upon his provides an accessible combination of close readings and theoretical reflection presenting figures who inhabit in between territories such as the adventurer the bastard the priest the angel the adulterer the poet and the outcast These figures are read as protagonists in a genealogy of modernity that has not yet been written The essays here also provide fascinating answers as to why these secret protagonists often became major figures in modern philosophy and literary theory and give new insights into such writers as Benjamin Barthes and Derrida
