Swinging moodily  $\text{♩} = 112$

The musical score is written for piano in a 12-measure blues format. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature (C). The tempo is marked 'Swinging moodily' with a quarter note equal to 112 beats per minute. The first measure starts with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The score is divided into six systems, each with a measure number (4, 8, 12, 16, 20, 24) at the beginning of the first staff. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns such as eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and triplets. The bass line provides a steady accompaniment with eighth and sixteenth notes. The piece concludes with a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic in the final measure.

Birkbeck Word Association Norms Helen Moss,Lianne Older,1996 This is a reference work containing free association norms for over 2000 words in the English language collected over the last eight years from groups of 40-50 British English speakers aged between 17 and 45. These norms provide the information that for example 67% of people give dog as the first word they think of in response to the word cat that 24% give the word society in response to the word pillar and given the name Michael 65% say Jackson whereas less than 5% say Heseltine or Caine. These norms will be of use to researchers and students in many fields of psychology especially language and memory where the degree of association between pairs of words is often an important experimental variable. The main part of the book contains an alphabetical list of all associative responses and their frequency for each of the 2464 stimulus words. In addition there is an index of stimulus words organised according to semantic category to aid selection of experimental materials. Full methodological details of the collection and compilation of the data are also provided in the introduction.
