Steinbock,2009-12-22 Exploring the first person narratives of three figures from the Christian Jewish and Islamic mystical traditions St Teresa of Avila Rabbi Dov Baer and R zbih n Baql Anthony J Steinbock provides a complete phenomenology of mysticism based in the Abrahamic religious traditions He relates a broad range of religious experiences or verticality to philosophical problems of evidence selfhood and otherness From this philosophical description of vertical experience Steinbock develops a social and cultural critique in terms of idolatry as pride secularism and fundamentalism and suggests that contemporary understandings of human experience must come from a fuller more open view of religious experience Islam in Spanish Literature Luce Lopez-Baralt,2023-09-20 Islam in Spanish Literature is a sweeping reinterpretation of Spanish literature taking as its given the enormous debt to Arab culture that Spain incurred through the eight centuries of Islamic presence on the Iberian Peninsula This volume takes up the thread of the work of the Arabist Miguel As n Palacios the first to comment extensively upon the marked Islamic features in many Spanish classics After an initial survey of the presence of Islam and Judaism in Spanish history and culture succeeding chapters explore the Muslim context of Juan Ruiz the author of the Libro de buen amor St John of the Cross St Teresa de Jesus the anonymous sonnet No me mueve mi Dios aljamiado morisco literature and then official Moorophile literature standing in such dramatic contrast to one another and last the novelist Juan Goytisolo who writing today continues to reflect upon the impact of the East on Spanish culture It is no exaggeration to state that this book redefines the ground of the study of Spanish literature it will be hard for the contemporary reader ever again to read it with innocence as a literature exclusively European Women, Sainthood, and Power Oliva M. Espín, 2019-10-23 Women Sainthood and Power explores the life stories of an international gallery of female saints from the wide angle lens of several intellectual disciplines and the close up view afforded by keenly observed fine points of character Oliva M Esp n combines multidisciplinary scholarly research with a novelist s eye for detail to create vivid portraits of saints in their times and places Using her own memories Esp n argues that there are lessons to learn today from the lives of these exceptional women This book is recommended for scholars and students of psychology religious studies gender and women s studies history cultural studies and ethnic studies A New Companion to Hispanic Mysticism Hilaire Kallendorf, 2010 The canon of Hispanic mysticism is expanding No longer is our picture of this special brand of early modern devotional practice limited to a handful of venerable saints Instead we recognize a wide range of marginal figures as practitioners of mysticism broadly defined Neither do we limit the study of mysticism necessarily to the Christian religion nor even to the realm of literature Representations of mysticism are also found in the visual plastic and musical arts The terminology and theoretical framework of mysticism permeate early modern Hispanic cultures Paradoxically by taking a more inclusive approach to studying mysticism in its marginal manifestations we draw mysticism in all its complex iterations back toward its rightful place at the center of early modern spiritual experience Contributors Colin Thompson Alastair Hamilton Christina Lee Clara Herrera Darcy Donahue Elena del Rio Parra Evelyn Toft Fernando Duran Lopez Piansisco Morales Freddy Dominguez Glyn Redworth Jane Ackerman Jessica Boon Jose Adriano de Freitas Carvalho Luce Lopez Barat Maria Mercedes Carrion Maryrica Lottman and Tess Knighton The Last Years of Saint Therese Thomas R. BOOK JACKET Dreams of Waking Vincent Barletta,Mark L. Bajus,Cici Malik,2022-12-22 In this anthology Vincent Barletta Mark L Bajus and Cici Malik treat the Iberian lyric in the late Middle Ages and early modernity as a deeply multilingual transnational genre that needs to break away from the old essentialist ideas about language geography and identity in order to be understood properly More and more scholars and students are recognizing the limitations of single language nationalist and period bound canons and are looking for different ways to approach the study of literature The Iberian Peninsula is an excellent site for this approach where the history and politics of the region along with its creative literature need to be read and studied together with the way the works were composed by poets and eventually consumed by readers With a generous selection of more than one hundred poems from thirty three poets Dreams of Waking is unique in its coverage of the three main languages Catalan Portuguese and Spanish and lyrical styles employed by peninsular poets It contains new translations of canonical poems but also translations of many poems that have never before been edited or translated Brief headnotes provide essential details of the poets lives and a general introduction by the volume editors shows how the poems and languages fruitfully intersect With helpful annotations to the poetry as well as a selected bibliography containing the most important editions and translations from all three of the main Iberian languages this volume will be an indispensable tool for both specialists and students in comparative literature

Poetry and Pedagogy across the Lifespan Sandra Lee Kleppe,Angela Sorby,2018-10-08 This book explores poetry and pedagogy in practice across the lifespan Poetry is directly linked to improved literacy creativity personal development emotional intelligence complex analytical thinking and social interaction all skills that are crucial in contemporary educational systems However a narrow focus on STEM subjects at the expense of the humanities has led educators to deprioritize poetry and to overlook its interdisciplinary multi modal potential The editors and contributors argue that poetry is not a luxury but a way to stimulate linguistic experiences that are formally rich and cognitively challenging To learn through poetry is not just to access information differently but also to forge new and different connections that can serve as reflective tools for lifelong learning This interdisciplinary book will be of value to teachers and students of poetry as well as scholars interested in literacy across the disciplines

Hall of Theological Courage | 4 Eureka Clrce,2025

Santa Teresa Dr. Martina Bengert,Iris Roebeling-Grau,2019-07-15 Even prior to her widely observed 500th anniversary Teresa of vila 1515 1582 was already considered one of the most important authors of occidental mysticism This volume gathers together contributions from a multitude of disciplines to explore the writings and reception of the Spanish author and saint Previously disregarded lines of tradition are explored for a new understanding of her oeuvre which is examined here with special regard to the potential to affect its readers Teresa proves to not only be an accomplished but also a very literary writer Santa Teresa proves to be a figure of cultural memory and the diffusion of her thinking is traced up to the present whereby a recurrent focus is put on the phenomenon of ecstasy Part of the widespread resonance of her work is the image of the iconic saint whose emergence as an international phenomenon is presented here for the first time The volume is closed by an interview with Marina Abramovi answering four questions about Teresa

The Intersubjectivity of the Mystic Mary Frohlich,1993 In the popular mind the mystic is seen as the supreme solitary This image if accurate would make the mystical quest marginal in an era when much theology has emphasized socially responsible praxis Against the popular image Mary Frohlich develops a theological model based on the writings of Bernard Lonergan and the self psychology of Heinz Kohut that both respects mysticism's irreducible character and shows how it concretely transforms people and systems She then applies this model to an interpretation of a classic expression of spiritual transformation the Interior Castle of the sixteenth century mystic Teresa of Avila
