The Routledge Companion to Religion and Film John Lyden, 2009 The Routledge Companion to Religion and Film brings together a lively and experienced team of contributors to introduce students to the key topics in religion and film and to investigate the ways in which the exciting subject of religion and film is developing for more experienced scholars Divided into four parts the Companion analyzes the history of the interaction of religion and film through periods of censorship as well as appreciation of the medium studies religion in film examining how the world's major religions as well as Postcolonial Japanese and New Religions are depicted by and within films uses diverse methodologies to explore religion and film such as psychoanalytical theological and feminist approaches and audience reception analyzes religious themes in film including Redemption the Demonic Jesus or Christ Figures Heroes and Superheroes considers films as diverse as The Passion of the Christ The Matrix Star Wars and Groundhog Day This definitive book provides an accessible resource to this emerging field and is an indispensable guide to religion and film for students of Religion Film Studies and beyond

Catholics in the Movies Colleen McDannell, 2008 Catholicism was all over movie screens in 2004 Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ was at the center of a media firestorm for months A priest was a crucial character in the Academy Award winning Million Dollar Baby Everyone it seemed was talking about how religious stories should be represented marketed and received Catholic characters spaces and rituals have been stock features in popular films since the silent era An intensely visual religion with a well defined ritual and authority system Catholicism lends itself to the drama and pageantry of film Moviegoers watch as Catholic visionaries interact with the supernatural priests counsel their flocks reformers fight for social justice and bishops wield authoritarian power Rather than being marginal to American popular culture Catholic people places and rituals are all central to the world of the movie Catholics in the Movies begins with an introductory essay that orients readers to the ways that films appear in culture and describes the broad trends that can be seen in the movies hundred year history of representing Catholics Each chapter is written by a noted scholar of American religion who concentrates on one movie that engages important historical artistic and religious issues and then places the film within American cultural and social history discusses the film as an expression of Catholic concerns of the period and relates the film to others of its genre Tracing the story of American Catholic history through popular films Catholics in the Movies should be a valuable resource for anyone interested in American Catholicism and religion and film

The Holy Fool in European Cinema Alina G. Birzache, 2016-02-05 This monograph explores the way that the profile and the critical functions of the holy fool have developed in European cinema allowing this traditional figure to capture the imagination of new generations in an age of religious pluralism and secularization Alina Birzache traces the cultural origins of the figure of the holy fool across a variety of European traditions In so doing she examines the critical functions of the holy fool as well as how filmmakers have used the figure to respond to and critique aspects of the modern world Using a comparative approach this study for the first time offers a comprehensive explanation of the enduring appeal of this protean and fascinating cinematic character Birzache examines the trope of holy foolishness in Soviet and post Soviet cinema French cinema and Danish cinema corresponding broadly to and permitting analysis of the three main orientations in European Christianity Orthodox Catholic and Protestant This study will be of keen interest to scholars of religion and film European cinema and comparative religion

Ethics of Cinematic Experience Orna Raviv,2019-10-16 Ethics of Cinematic Experience Screens of Alterity deals with the relationship between cinema and ethics from a philosophical perspective finding an intrinsic connection between film spectatorship and the possibility of being open to different modes of alterity The book s main thesis is that openness to otherness is already found in the basic structures of cinematic experience Through a close examination of the ethical relevance of the philosophy of Maurice Merleau Ponty Stanley Cavell Emmanuel Levinas and Gilles Deleuze to cinema studies Ethics of Cinematic Experience Screens of Alterity pursues the question of how film can open the viewer to what is not her and so bring her to encounter otherness in a way that is unique to cinematic experience The book sees ethics as not just the subject content or story of a film but part of its aesthetic structure Accompanied by readings of films mainly from mainstream cinema each chapter focuses on a different aspect of the encounter with alterity through cinema The book gives particular attention to how theoretical discussion of the cinematic close up can lead to ethical insights into the status of both the human and the non human in film and thus lead to an understanding of the relationships the viewer makes with them The book is a helpful resource for students and scholars interested in the relationship between philosophy film and ethics and is appropriate for students of philosophy and media and cultural studies The Routledge Companion to Religion and Film John Lyden,2009 World Cinema, Theology, and the Human Antonio D. Sison,2012 Forging an open minded but reasoned dialogue between nine acclaimed titles of world cinema and a range of theological perspectives that touch on the theme of human experience World Cinema Theology and the Human offers fresh portals of insight for the interdisciplinary area of Theology and Film In Sison s approach it is the cinematic representation of vivid humanity not necessarily propositional statements about God and religion that lays down a bridge to a conversation with theology Thus the book s project is to look for the divine presence written not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts depicted on screen by way of audiovisual language Seeking to redress the interdisciplinary s narrow predilection for Hollywood blockbusters the book casts its net wider to include a culturally diverse selection of case studies from festival gems such as Singapore s Be With Me and South Africa s Yesterday to widely acclaimed sleeper hits such as Britain s Slumdog Millionaire and New Zealand s Whale Rider The book will appeal to scholars of theology and religious cultural studies interested in the Theology Religion Film interface and because of its commitment to an examination of film qua film a crossover readership from film studies Cine-Ethics Jinhee Choi, Mattias Frey,2013-10-15 This volume looks at the significance and range of ethical questions that pertain to various film practices Diverse philosophical traditions provide useful frameworks to discuss spectators affective and emotional engagement with film which can function as a moral ground for one s connection to others and to the world outside the self These traditions encompass theories of emotion phenomenology the philosophy of compassion and analytic and continental ethical thinking and environmental ethics This anthology is one of the first volumes to open up a dialogue among these diverse methodologies Contributors bring to the fore some of the assumptions implicitly shared between these theories and forge a new relationship between them in order to explore the moral engagement of the spectator and the ethical consequences of both producing and consuming films Philosophical Theories of Political Cinema ANGELO EMANUELE. CIOFFI,2021-11 This book utilizes philosophical tools to build up a framework for the classification analysis and assessment of political cinema The author first maps the category of political cinema clarifying what it means for a film to be political and then analyzes the relation between the value of a film as a political film and its value as art Through philosophical enquiry Angelo Cioffi builds up a framework that could be of use in art critical practice and that can help with the classification and assessment of political films Grounded in analytic philosophy of art and cognitivist film theory with insights from political science political philosophy epistemology and cognitive science the book presents a unique analysis of the relation between films and the political This theory is tested with detailed case studies and the author uses specific films as examples of the applicability and explanatory power of this theoretical framework As such this book will be of interest not just to film studies film theory and political philosophy scholars but to anyone with an interest in political film aesthetic practice and philosophy of art

Religion and Film S. Brent Plate, 2017-09-05 Religion and cinema share a capacity for world making ritualizing mythologizing and creating sacred time and space Through cinematography mise en scene editing and other production activities film takes the world out there and refashions it Religion achieves similar ends by setting apart particular objects and periods of time telling stories and gathering people together for communal actions and concentrated focus The result of both cinema and religious practice is a re-created world a world of fantasy a world of ideology a world we long to live in or a world we wish to avoid at all costs Religion and Film introduces readers to both religious studies and film studies by focusing on the formal similarities between cinema and religious practices and on the ways they each re-create the world Explorations of film show how the cinematic experience relies on similar aesthetic devices on which religious rituals have long relied sight sound the taste of food the body and communal experience Meanwhile a deeper understanding of the aesthetic nature of religious rituals can alter our understanding of film production Utilizing terminology and theoretical insights from the study of religion as well as the study of film Religion and Film shows that by paying attention to the ways films are constructed we can shed new light on the ways religious myths and rituals are constructed and vice versa This thoroughly revised and expanded new edition is designed to appeal to the needs of courses in religion as well as film departments In addition to two new chapters this edition has been restructured into three distinct sections that offer students and instructors theories and methods for thinking about cinema in ways that more fully connect film studies with religious studies

Representing Religion in Film Tenzan Eaghll, Rebekka King, 2022-06-30 This is the first full length exploration of the relationship between religion film and ideology It shows how religion is imagined constructed and interpreted in film and film criticism The films analyzed include The Last Jedi Terminator Cloud Atlas Darjeeling Limited Hellboy The Revenant Religulous and The Secret of my Success Each chapter offers an explanation of the particular representation of religion that appears in film a discussion of how this representation has been interpreted in film criticism and religious studies scholarship an in depth study of a Hollywood or popular film to highlight the rhetorical social and political functions this representation accomplishes on the silver screen a discussion about how such analysis might be applied to other films of a similar genre Written in an accessible style and focusing on Hollywood and popular cinema this book will be of interest to both movie lovers and experts alike

Hermeneutic Humility and the Political Theology of Cinema Sean Desilets, 2019-12-10 This book revisits the tradition of Western religious cinema in light of scholarship on St Paul's political theology The book's subtitle derives from the account in the Book of Acts that St Paul was temporarily blinded in the wake of his conversion on the road to Damascus In imitation of Paul the films on which Sean Desilets's analysis hinges including those of Carl Th Dreyer Robert Bresson Pier Paolo Pasolini and Carlos Reygadas place a god blind mechanism the camera between themselves and the divine Desilets calls the posture they adopt hermeneutic humility hermeneutic in that it interprets the world but humble in that it pays particular even obsessive attention to its own limits Though these films may not consciously reflect Pauline theology Desilets argues that they participate in a messianic hermeneutic tradition that runs from Paul through St Augustine Blaise Pascal Karl Barth and Walter Benjamin and which contributes significantly to contemporary discussions in poststructuralist literary theory political theology and religious studies Desilets's insightful explication of Jean Luc Nancy's deconstruction of Christianity and Giorgio Agamben's recent work on religion makes a substantial contribution to film philosophy and emerging critical trends in the study of religion and film This book puts forward a nuanced theoretical framework that will be useful for film scholars students of contemporary political theology and scholars interested in the intersections of religion and media
