The Politics and Practices of Cultural Heritage in the Middle East Irene Maffi, 2014-04-21 During the nineteenth century cultural heritage became a dominant feature of the political ideology of the European states and of their colonies It became a new form of legitimization for the rising nation state cementing its inextricable link with that nation's politics and practices The set of concepts and practices defining cultural heritage were exported to and imposed over the colonized populations in North Africa and the Near East The legacy of the colonial period has proven very significant in the domain of cultural heritage which has become a crucial cultural arena in many Arab states As in the majorities of post colonial states in the Arab world the inherited paradigm of cultural heritage has been subject to various forms of adaption and re elaboration that have made it a lively and complex space of negotiations between various actors Thus in The Politics of Cultural Heritage in the Middle East Irene Maffi and Rami Daher draw together expert scholars to unravel these complex processes that are involved in the definition production and consumption of heritage and its material culture in the Middle East and the dynamics of the key actors involved The variety of the cases analysed that cover the region from Morocco to Lebanon as well as the multiplicity of the actors concerned such as the state post colonial or colonial international organizations municipal councils local communities families and even exceptional personalities highlights and explores the complex processes where very local and specific dynamics intertwine with transnational economic political and cultural fluxes In its examination of the workings of cultural heritage in the Middle East this book is an important resource for students and scholars of Middle East Studies Cultural History History of Art and Architecture and for stakeholders involved in the field of cultural heritage

Travel Memories Elizabeth Warren, 2013-10 The travels recounted here are my experiences and outlook at the end of the 20th Century On these particular trips I took notes and wrote them up when I got home I have relived these years through the notes and writing of this memoir It makes me realize how fortunate I have been to visit these countries On these trips I felt a continual excitement at what we were seeing and doing and this was true in spite of physical fatigue In Greece I enjoyed our trek up the Acropolis and the view of Athens on that clear and sunny day was beautiful The Parthenon was graceful even as the workmen were repairing cracks and weathered places in preparation for the upcoming summer Olympics It was stimulating to be on a cruise with Karen Armstrong in Greece She gave lectures about the monotheistic religions as we visited a number of sacred sites Cape Town South Africa is a resort city for Europeans where history had been made when apartheid no longer governed a primarily black nation The changes in law and the culture had been made only a few years before the Parliament of the World's Religions held its convocation there Former President Nelson Mandela addressed us Perhaps the greatest treat for me was the visit to the Soviet Union in 1989 just two months before the Berlin wall came down and the world rejoiced in the televised performance of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony conducted by Leonard Bernstein I enjoyed our visit to Spain and Morocco where we learned from Harvey Cox about the history of convivencia that describes the three monotheist religions as they found ways to live together in Spain My last trip was with Janet Moore and her tour Distant Horizons to Jordan where we learned how educated and capable women live and work in that Muslim country

Owen's Commerce and Travel and International Register Bowker British Library Kickout, 1974 Official Export Guide North American Publishing Company, 1995 Seeds of Destruction Elizabeth Abbott Green, 2017-10-13 Elizabeth Abbott Green has written a compelling narrative of the life of a family lived well but not without struggle a life that spans the last half of the 20th Century and into the Millennium a life of equal parts of joy heartache and faith Even though the rigors of a military life impose unique requirements on the family the added pressures of a foreign war extended absence from the family unit by the military member unexpected and frequent family moves and changes of schools our family seemed to adapt well and for a time to thrive The catalyst for the book Seeds of Destruction was a major incident that almost took the life of our second son Greg The book should be interesting to many audiences young military families trying to cope with the almost constant overseas demands placed on them in today's military people of all ages who love travel and are willing and able to accept the challenge and Christians everywhere who are interested in Bible prophecy Seeds of Destruction is the work of a lifetime not only of the entire family who lived it but especially a work of total commitment for over 30 years by the author and the focused study of Christianity and the signs of our times Elizabeth Abbott Green's analysis of the true path to God's will for us is exemplary and I believe it should be read by all who feel that much of today's world is taking us in the opposite direction
