Morris Jumel Mansion Images Of America:

Morris-Jumel Mansion Carol S. Ward,2015 Morris Jumel Mansion is an engaging look at the history of Manhattan s oldest residence Built by Roger Morris in 1765 as a summer estate it has truly been a witness to history throughout the last 250 years Located in the upper Manhattan neighborhood of Washington Heights the mansion sits on a large hill with sweeping views of both the East and Hudson Rivers George Washington strategically located his headquarters here during the fall of 1776 but the Jumels who made the house their home from 1810 to 1895 left the most indelible mark In 1904 the residence became a museum thanks to the Daughters of the American Revolution who saved the house and allowed it to grow with the changing neighborhood Today this landmark is a symbol of both the long history of the city and the contemporary face of its now diverse neighborhood Morris Jumel Mansion Creative Company,2015-04-27 Hamilton Heights and Sugar Hill Davida Siwisa James,2024-04-02 Explores four centuries of colonization land divisions and urban development around this historic landmark neighborhood in West Harlem It was the neighborhood where Alexander Hamilton built his country home George Gershwin wrote his first hit a young Norman Rockwell discovered he liked to draw and Ralph Ellison wrote Invisible Man Through words and pictures Hamilton Heights and Sugar Hill traces the transition of this picturesque section of Harlem from lush farmland in the early 1600s to its modern day growth as a unique Manhattan neighborhood highlighted by stunning architecture Harlem Renaissance gatherings and the famous residents who called it home Stretching from approximately 135th Street and Edgecombe Avenue to around 165th all the way to the Hudson River this small section in the Heights of West Harlem is home to so many significant events so many extraordinary people and so much of New York s most stunning architecture it s hard to believe one place could contain all that majesty Author Davida Siwisa James brings to compelling literary life the unique residents and dwelling places of this Harlem neighborhood that stands at the heart of the country s founding Here she uncovers the long lost history of the transitions to Hamilton Grange in the aftermath of Alexander Hamilton s death and the building boom from about 1885 to 1930 that made it one of Manhattan s most historic and architecturally desirable neighborhoods now and a century ago The book also shares the story of the LaGuardia High School of Music Art one of the fi rst in the nation to focus on arts and music The author chronicles the history of the James A Bailey House as well as the Morris Jumel Mansion Manhattan s oldest surviving residence and famously known as George Washington s headquarters at the start of the American Revolution By telling the history of its vibrant people and the beautiful architecture of this lovely well maintained historic landmark neighborhood James also dispels the misconception that Harlem was primarily a ghetto wasteland The book also touches upon the Great Migration of Blacks leaving the South who landed in Harlem helping it become the mecca for African Americans including such Harlem Renaissance artists and luminaries as Thurgood Marshall Count Basie Duke Ellington Mary Lou Williams Paul Robeson Regina Anderson Andrews and W E B Du Bois Enchanted Lives, Enchanted Objects Dianne Sachko Macleod,2008 This insightful and beautifully illustrated book offers the first feminist analysis of the phenomenon of women art collectors in America Dianne Sachko Macleod brings a surprising paradox to light showing that collecting which provided wealthy women with a private sense of solace also liberated them to venture into the public sphere and make a lasting contribution to the emerging American culture Beginning in the antebellum period continuing through the Gilded Age and reaching well into the twentieth century Macleod shows how elite women enlisted the objets d art and avant garde paintings in their collections in causes ranging from the founding of modern museums to the campaign for women s suffrage
