

The background of the book cover is a painting of an African American woman with her arm around two children, a girl and a boy. The woman is in the upper left, looking down at them. The girl is in the center, looking towards the viewer. The boy is in the lower right, also looking towards the viewer. The style is soft and painterly.

Children's Literature in Action Sylvia M. Vardell, 2019-06-14 This practitioner oriented introduction to literature for children ages 5-12 covers the latest trends, titles, and tools for choosing the best books and materials as well as for planning fun and effective programs and activities. The third edition of Children's Literature in Action provides an activity oriented survey of children's literature for undergraduate and graduate students seeking licensure and degrees that will lead to careers working with children in schools and public libraries. Author Sylvia M. Vardell draws on her 30 years of university teaching and extensive familiarity with the major textbooks in the area of children's literature to deliver something different: a book that focuses specifically on the perspective and needs of the librarian with emphasis on practical action and library applications. Its contents address seven major genres: picture books, traditional tales, poetry, contemporary realistic fiction, historical fiction, fantasy, and informational books. Each chapter includes practical applications for the educator who shares books with children and who develops literature based instruction. Chapters are enriched by author comments, collaborative activities, featured books, special topics, and activities including selected awards and celebrations, historical connections, recommended resources, issues for discussion, and assignment suggestions. This new edition incorporates the 2018 AASL National School Library Standards.

Fourth Grade Homeschooling Greg Sherman, Thomas Bell, Terri Raymond, 2014-04-21 Over 100 discussion questions and activities and 500 questions fill this comprehensive workbook. The book covers science, math, and social science for fourth grade. If you are homeschooling or if you are just trying to get extra practice for your child, then you already know that social science workbooks and curriculum can be expensive. HomeSchool Brew is trying to change that. We have teamed with teachers and parents to create books for prices parents can afford. We believe education shouldn't be expensive. Each subject may also be purchased individually.

This Land Is Our Land Agnes Regan Perkins, Alethea K. Helbig, 1994-09-26 How do you select the best recent works of fiction, oral tradition, and poetry about African American, Asian American, Hispanic American, and Native American Indian experiences and traditions from the profusion of titles being published today? This annotated bibliography of titles for children and young adults published from 1985 through the end of 1993, with 60% published since 1990, provides a one-stop selection tool. Appraisals of 559 titles, as well as information about an additional 188 recent books and 90 earlier ones of importance, are provided. Each entry features a plot summary, incorporating themes, critical comments with a judgment of the book's value as an example of its genre, suggestions of other books by that writer, and related books of importance. The authors, who are recognized authorities in children's literature, and an advisory board of librarians and teachers, each of whom specializes in the literature of a particular ethnic group, have provided insightful critical appraisals and expertise and guidance in the selection of titles. Helpful subject, grade level, author, title, and illustrator indexes are organized for ease of use. Titles in the grade level and subject indexes are also identified by
