Islam, Marketing and Consumption Aliakbar Jafari,Özlem Sandikci,2016-01-13 In recent years a critically oriented sub stream of research on Muslim consumers and businesses has begun to emerge This scholarship located both within and outside the marketing field adopts a socio culturally situated approach to Islam and investigates the complex and multifaceted intersections between Islam and markets This book seeks to reflect various unheard and emerging critical voices from within the Muslim world and provide a series of critical insights on how if and why Islam matters to marketing theory and practice It questions the existing assumptions and polarising discussions which underpin the portrayal of Islam as the other of Modernity while acknowledging that Muslims themselves are partially responsible for creating stereotyped representations of Islam and the Muslim This wide ranging and insightful collection will advance emerging critical perspectives and provide new insights that will influence the generation and application of knowledge in the context of Muslim societies It will open up fresh conversations for scholars in marketing as well as the broader humanities and social sciences

Born to Choose John H Falk,2017-09-05 Born to Choose is John H Falk s compelling account of why and how we make the endless set of choices we do every second of every day of our lives Synthesizing research from across the biological and social sciences Falk argues that human choice making is an evolutionarily ancient and complex process He suggests that all our choices are influenced by very basic and early evolving needs and that ultimately each choice is designed to support survival in the guise of perceived well being This engaging book breaks new intellectual ground and enhances our understanding not just of human choice making but human behavior overall

Industry and Individuals: Branding, Labelling, and Marketing of Food Products Daniel Adrian Gardan,Paweł Bryła,Ionel Dumitru,Iuliana Petronela Gardan,2025-02-10 There is a growing interest in understanding the multifaceted factors that influence individuals food and dietary behaviors and purchasing choices These include psychological cultural economic and social factors However there is a need to delve deeper into the role of food and beverage companies industries and multinational corporations in shaping individuals dietary decisions and purchasing behaviors Despite ever increasing reliance on industry for providing fast convenient and affordable food limited research exists that holistically synthesizes the influence of strategies employed by food companies on the intricate landscape of food consumption and purchasing. More and more food companies and industries battle for consumer attention in a world pushing for healthfulness and environmental and ethical sustainability. With individuals facing an increasingly diverse range of food options and marketing strategies, understanding the factors that guide their choices is critical for both businesses and policymakers. It is therefore crucial for us to understand the understanding usage and consumer perception of food labels including front of pack nutrition information and health claims and other aspects of food packaging design e.g. material colour usage branding. For example, there is an increased need to understand factors that may influence consumer perception around certain brand identities in the context of boycotting and fear of green washing.
