Patients Of The State The Politics Of Waiting In Argentina:

Patients of the State Javier Auyero, 2012-05-04 Describes the power that can be imposed and the misery that is caused especially for the poor by the simple act of waiting This title also describes a variety of different situations including waiting for national identity cards for welfare agencies and the endless waiting for relocation from the slums The D-Word:

Perspectives on Democracy in Tumultuous Times Christi van der Westhuizen, Siphiwe Dube, Zwelethu Jolobe, 2024-03-12 This curated collection engages international debates about the current challenges facing democracy Given the proliferation of crisis literature on democracy this volume finds its distinctive niche in presenting perspectives from the global margins that bridge disciplinary sectoral national and conceptual divides South Africans enter into conversation with scholars and activists from elsewhere in the Global South including the Arab world and the rest of Africa and from the European periphery Insights on democracy are offered from a diversity of perspectives and voices spanning philosophy socio legal and political studies sociology public administration and queer and gender studies and activism The book will be of interest to academics activists policymakers development planners and the general public The D Word is a timely contribution addressing burning questions are current contestations about the relevance of democracy due to systemic flaws in how it is constituted received practised and even imagined and can the democratic project be salvaged The book s unique approach brings a variety of lenses to bear on the prospects for democracy The critical reflections it contains make for an enriching broad canvas of ideas Professor Sandy Africa University of Pretoria Ethnographies of Waiting Manpreet K. Janeja, Andreas

Bandak, 2020-05-27 We all wait in traffic jams passport offices school meal queues for better weather an end to fighting peace Time spent waiting produces hope boredom anxiety doubt or uncertainty Ethnographies of Waiting explores the social phenomenon of waiting and its centrality in human society Using waiting as a central analytical category the book investigates how waiting is negotiated in myriad ways Examining the politics and poetics of waiting Ethnographies of Waiting offers fresh perspectives on waiting as the uncertain interplay between doubting and hoping and asks When is time worth the wait Waiting thus conceived is intrinsic to the ethnographic method at the heart of the anthropological enterprise Featuring detailed ethnographies from Japan Georgia England Ghana Norway Russia and the United States a Foreword by Craig Jeffrey and an Afterword by Ghassan Hage this is a vital contribution to the field of anthropology of time and essential reading for students and scholars in anthropology sociology and philosophy The Politics of the Near Jérôme Tournadre, 2022-05-17

The Politics of the Near offers a novel approach to social unrest in post apartheid South Africa Keeping the noise of demonstrations barricades and clashes with the police at a distance this ethnography of a poor people s movement traces individual commitments and the mainsprings of mobilization in the ordinary social and intimate life of activists their relatives and other township residents Tournadre s approach picks up on aspects of activists lives that are often neglected in the study of social movements that help us better understand the dynamics of protest and the attachment of activists to their organization and its cause What Tournadre calls a politics of the near takes shape through sometimes innocuous actions and beyond the separation between public and domestic spheres By mapping the daily life of Black and low income neighborhoods and the intimate domain where expectations and disappointments surface The Politics of the Near offers a different perspective on the rainbow nation a perspective more sensitive to the fact that three decades after the end of apartheid poverty and race are still as tightly interwoven as ever

The Long Shadow of the Border Ida Marie Savio Vammen, Signe Cold-Ravnkilde, Hans Lucht, 2023-06-19 This book delves beyond the spectacular images of African migrants struggling to scale border fences or cross the Mediterranean in unseaworthy rubber dinghies by unpacking the policies and emerging practices that shape contemporary border governance in the expanding EU African borderlands For decades Africa has been the scene of a wide range of European interventions aimed at restraining irregularised migration to Europe creating an accelerated moment of control and confinement Today the externalisation of Europe's borders into Africa encompasses agreements on the return of migrants securitised border operations and projects under the EU's Emergency Trust Fund for Africa At a time when safe and legal mobility is limited and the human social and political conditions of African migrants are severely challenged this book emphasises how European efforts are both assisted but also resisted by local actors with agendas of their own Based on ethnographic fieldwork the different contributions vividly portray how African lives continue to be shaped by Europe's desire to contain and govern human mobility and how dominant spatial geopolitics are contested on various levels This book will be of particular value to students and researchers interested in African studies International Politics Border Governance Anthropology Human Geography and Global Studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Geopolitics

Motherhood, Social Policies and Women's Activism in Latin America Alejandra Ramm, Jasmine Gideon, 2019-07-10 This book is a critical resource for understanding the relationship between gender social policy and women's activism in Latin America with specific reference to Chile Latin America's mother centered kinship system makes it an ideal field in which to study motherhood and maternalism the ways in which motherhood becomes a public policy issue As maternalism embraces and enhances gender differences it has been criticized for deepening gender inequalities Yet invoking motherhood continues to offer an effective strategy for advancing women's living conditions and rights and for women themselves to be present in the public sphere In analyzing these important relationships the contributors to this volume discuss maternal health sexual and reproductive rights labor programs paid employment women miners unionization housing policies environmental suffering and LGBTQ intimate partner violence

Networks, Labour and Migration among Indian Muslim Artisans Thomas Chambers

,2020-04-30 Networks Labour and Migration among Indian Muslim Artisans provides an ethnography of life work and migration in a North Indian Muslim dominated woodworking industry It traces artisanal connections within the local context during migration within India and to the Gulf examining how woodworkers utilise local and transnational networks based on identity religiosity and affective circulations to access resources support and forms of mutuality However the book also illustrates how liberalisation intensifying forms of marginalisation and incorporation into global production networks have led to spatial pressures fragmentation of artisanal labour and forms of enclavement that persist despite geographical mobility and connectedness By working across the dialectic of marginality and connectedness Thomas Chambers thinks through these complexities and dualities by providing an ethnographic account that shares everyday life with artisans and others in the industry Descriptive detail is intersected with spatial scales of local national and international with the demands of supply chains and labour markets within India and abroad with structural conditions and with forms of change and continuity Empirically then the book provides a detailed account of a specific locale but also contributes to broader theoretical debates centring on theorisations of margins borders connections networks embeddedness neoliberalism subjectivities and economic or social flux

Informal Metropolis David Yee,2024-11 In the 1940s as Mexican families trekked north to the United States in search of a better life tens of millions also left their towns and villages for Mexico s major cities In Mexico City migrant families excluded from new housing programs began to settle on a dried out lake bed near the airport eventually transforming its dusty plains into an informal city of more than one million people In Informal Metropolis David Yee uncovers how this former lake bed grew into the world s largest shantytown Ciudad Nezahualc yotl and rethinks the relationship between urban space and inequality in twentieth century Mexico By chronicling the residents struggles to build their own homes and gain land rights in the face of extreme adversity Yee presents a hidden history of land fraud political corruption and legal impunity underlying the rise of Mexico City s informal settlements When urban social movements erupted across Mexico in the 1970s Ciudad Nezahualc yotl s residents organized to demand land water and humane living conditions Though guided by demands for basic needs these movements would ultimately achieve a more lasting significance as a precursor to a new urban citizenry in Mexico In the first comprehensive history of modern housing in Mexico City Yee challenges widely held assumptions about urban inequality and politics in Mexico Checkpoint 300 Mark

Griffiths,2025-09-23 Tracing how a notorious checkpoint shapes power resistance and lives in Palestine Checkpoint 300 the highly securitized border facility between occupied Bethlehem and Jerusalem is a central feature of Israeli control of Palestinian land and life An apparatus of turnstiles overcrowded corridors and invasive inspections the checkpoint regulates the movement of hundreds of thousands of Palestinians granting access to some while excluding most Offering a nuanced exploration of space Mark Griffiths reveals Checkpoint 300 as a stark symbol of Israeli colonialism that embodies larger systems of control and violence Griffiths s sensitive and timely work highlights the myriad ways Palestinians are affected by

Israel's spatial control whether they travel through the checkpoint or not demonstrating how colonial infrastructures of inequity extend far beyond their physical boundaries to shape daily life Drawing on nearly a decade of fieldwork Griffiths examines how colonial power infiltrates family dynamics enforces gendered mobility restrictions shapes local economies and extends into the global exchange of capital and security technologies He also underscores how Palestinians endure and resist under oppressive conditions and how indigenous forms of life and living are sustained illuminating how colonial space is contested and countered unmade and remade Blending meticulous research with vivid human stories to show the lived realities of borders power and resistance in the West Bank Checkpoint 300 portrays the checkpoint as an entry into the ways that colonial space is formed through security infrastructure that is both the product and producer of wider geographies of oppression complicity and control Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions

The Fear of Erring Ingo Rohrer,2024-10-29 The Fear of Erring a combination of thick ethnography and an ethnopoetic storyline illustrates how mistrust ignorance and imagination govern the everyday work of personnel in Argentina's criminal justice system The book shows that Argentina's justice system faces public suspicion and a tense atmosphere of competition and mutual mistrust among employees It provides evidence of widespread fear among legal professionals of being deceived and making erroneous decisions based on manipulated information Rational methods of generating knowledge often hit their limits confronting employees with impenetrable ignorance The detailed description of bureaucratic life demonstrates that legal professionals resort to imagination and speculation yielding insights into their moral positioning By focusing on these imaginaries the book reveals unnoticed routines and functions of the justice system that shape legal processes decision making and the institution's image The book's discussion on mistrust ignorance and imagination extends beyond Argentina addressing key questions about social cohesion knowledge bases and perspectives on the past and future in current social and global debates

Funk the Clock Rahsaan Mahadeo,2024-05-15 Funk the Clock is about those said to be emblematic of the future yet denied a place in time Hence this book is both an invitation and provocation for Black youth to give the finger to the hands of time while inviting readers to follow their lead In revealing how time is racialized how race is temporalized and how racism takes time Rahsaan Mahadeo makes clear why conventional sociological theories of time are both empirically and theoretically unsustainable and more importantly why they need to be funkyed up with Through his study of a youth center in Minneapolis Mahadeo provides examples of Black youth constructing alternative temporalities that center their lived experiences and ensure their worldviews tastes and culture are most relevant and up to date In their stories exists the potential to stretch the sociological imagination to make the familiar i e time strange Funk the Clock forges new directions in the study of race and time by upending what we think we know about time while centering Black youth as key collaborators in rewriting knowledge as we know it

Time and Temporality in

Transitional and Post-Conflict Societies Natascha Mueller-Hirth,Sandra Rios Oyola,2018-03-09 Implicit conceptions of time associated with progress and linearity have influenced scholars and practitioners in the fields of transitional justice and peacebuilding but time and temporality have rarely been systematically considered Time and Temporality in Transitional and Post Conflict Societies examines how time is experienced constructed and used in transitional and post conflict societies This collection critically questions linear transitional justice time and highlights the different temporalities that exist at local and institutional levels through original empirical research Presenting empirical and often ethnographic research from Argentina Brazil Colombia Cambodia Mozambique Palestine Israel Rwanda and South Africa contributors use a temporal lens to investigate key issues including transitional justice institutions peace processes victimhood perpetrators accountability reparations forgiveness reconciliation and memorialisation This timely monograph will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as postdoctoral researchers interested in fields such as political science international relations anthropology transitional justice and conflict resolution It will also be relevant to conflict resolution and peacebuilding practitioners

Governing Migration and Mobility Bronte Alexander, 2025-10-30 This book examines the military humanitarian strategies used to manage the movement of refugees focusing on the Venezuelan migration crisis in northern Brazil Shedding light on the intersecting logics of aid security and vulnerability it reveals the embodied experiences of migration in precarious environments

The Time of Anthropology Elisabeth Kirtsoglou, Bob Simpson, 2020-12-29 The Time of Anthropology provides a series of compelling anthropological case studies that explore the different temporalities at play in the scientific discourses governmental techniques and policy practices through which modern life is shaped Together they constitute a novel analysis of contemporary chronopolitics The contributions focus on state power citizenship and ecologies of time to reveal the scalar properties of chronopolitics as it shifts between everyday lived realities and the macro institutional work of nation states The collection charts important new directions for chronopolitical thinking in the future of anthropological research The Introduction and Chapters 5 6 and 8 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Sensation of Security Erika Robb Larkins, 2023-05-15 The Sensation of Security explores how private security guards are a permanent conspicuous fixture of everyday life in the Brazilian city of Rio de Janeiro Drawing on long term ethnographic research with security laborers managers company owners and elite global consultants Erika Robb Larkins examines the provision of security in Rio from the perspective of security personnel providing an analysis of the racialized logics that underpin the ongoing work of securing the city Larkins shows how guards communicate a sensa o de seguran a a sensation of security to clients and customers who have the capital to pay for it Cultivated through performances by security laborers the sensation of security is a set of culturally shaped racialized and gendered impressions related to safety order well being and cleanliness While the sensa o de seguran a indexes an outward facing task of allaying fears of crime and maintaining order in elite spaces it also refers to the emotional labor and embodied worlds that security workers navigate The Antechamber Helmut Puff,2023-10-31 Helmut Puff invites readers to visit societies and spaces of the past through the lens of a particular temporal modality waiting From literature memoirs manuals chronicles visuals and other documents Puff presents a history of waiting anchored in antechambers interior rooms designated and designed for people to linger In early modern continental Western Europe antechambers became standard in the residences of the elites As a time space infrastructure these rooms shaped encounters between unequals By imposing spatial distance and temporal delays antechambers constituted authority rank and power Puff explores both the logic and the experience of waiting in such formative spaces showing that time divides as much as it unites and that far from what people have said about early moderns they approached living in time with apprehensiveness Unlike how contemporary society primarily views the temporal dimension to early modern Europeans time was not an objective force external to the self but something that was tied to acting in time Divided only by walls and doors waiters sought out occasions to improve their lot At other times they disrupted the scripts accorded them Situated at the intersection of history literature and the history of art and architecture this wide ranging study demonstrates that waiting has a history that has much to tell us about social and power relations in the past and present Policing the Borders Within Ana Aliverti,2021 This book explores the everyday policing of immigration officers and police officers in charge of inland border controls in the United Kingdom It looks at migration policing in terms of a globalized world and how that presents new demands and challenges on those who enforce it This book aims to advance understanding of border law enforcement In the Meantime Adeline Masquelier,Deborah Durham,2023-03-10 The meantime represents the gap between what is past and the unknown future When considered as waiting the meantime is defined as a period of suspension to be endured By contrast the contributors of this volume understand it as a space of the possible where calculation coexists with uncertainty promises with disappointment and imminence with deferral Attending to the temporalities of emerging rather than settled facts they put the stress on the temporal tactics social commitments material connections dispositional orientations and affective circuits that emerge in the meantime even in the most desperate times Refugee Resettlement Adèle Garnier,Liliana Lyra Jubilut,Kristin Bergtora Sandvik,2018-07-24 Examining resettlement practices worldwide and drawing on contributions from anthropology law international relations social work political science and numerous other disciplines this ground breaking volume highlights the conflicts between refugees needs and state practices and assesses international regional and national perspectives on resettlement as well as the bureaucracies and ideologies involved It offers a detailed understanding of resettlement from the selection of refugees to their long term integration in resettling states and highlights the relevance of a lifespan approach to resettlement analysis
