Transitions Abroad, 2007 The Portable Writer's Conference Stephen Blake Mettee, 2007 Over 45 editors authors and agents provide insight on the writing craft and the business of getting published Learn from the experts From publisher s description The Age of Asian Migration Yuk Wah Chan, David Haines, Jonathan Lee, 2014-08-11 The second half of the 20th century witnessed a series of mass migration in Asia due to war politics and economic turbulence Combined with recent global economic changes the result is that Asia is now the world region producing the most international migrants and receiving the second most migrants Asian migration has thus been of central concern to both academic researchers and policy communities This book together with its forthcoming second volume provides a full span discussion of Asian migration from historical perspectives to updated analyses of current migration flows and diasporas The book covers six sub regional areas through focused themes Northeast Asia Coping with Diversity in Japan and Korea East Asian Chinese Migration Taiwan Hong Kong and China Vietnamese Migration and Diaspora Cambodian Lao and Hmong Diaspora and Settlement Singapore New Immigrants and Return Migration South Asian Migration and Diaspora Academics as well as general readers will find this book useful for understanding the specific features of Asian migration and how these features have evolved since the latter part of the 20th century In providing an overall reassessment of Asian migration the book enhances academic discussion of Asian migration with crucial implications for migration related policy making in the region Vision ,1968 Regionalism and the Humanities Timothy R. Mahoney, Wendy J.

Katz,2008-12-01 Although the framework of regionalist studies may seem to be crumbling under the weight of increasing globalization this collection of seventeen essays makes clear that cultivating regionalism lies at the center of the humanist endeavor With interdisciplinary contributions from poets and fiction writers literary historians musicologists and historians of architecture agriculture and women this volume implements some of the most innovative and intriguing approaches to the history and value of regionalism as a category for investigation in the humanities In the volume s inaugural essay Annie Proulx discusses landscapes in American fiction comments on how she constructs characters and interprets current literary trends Edward Watts offers a theory of region that argues for comparisons of the United States to other former colonies of Great Britain including New Zealand Australia and Canada Whether considering a writer s connection to region or the idea of place in exploring what is meant by regionalism these essays uncover an enduring and evolving concept Although the approaches and disciplines vary all are framed within the fundamental premise of the humanities the search to understand what it means to be human Riding ,1959 Transnational Migration, Media and Identity of Asian Women Youna
