The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimaged in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature

The Tipping Point Coleen Kwan, 2015-08-28 As Ashwood House crumbles around Bella and Reuben Erskine so does their marriage Reuben can't walk away from his family's once majestic manor and the promise he made to his dying father while Bella finds she is no match for a house that demands total dedication from its owners When Bella returns to pack up her things for good she finds the atmosphere in the house more eerie than ever Reuben's cousin mutters about family curses and infamous scandals from yesteryear that forever doomed the Erskine family A bizarre phenomenon catapults Bella and Reuben back to the past and straight into a gathering storm This time Reuben has a chance to prove his love to Bella but only at great cost to his family Will she let him sacrifice everything for her or will she choose a different path 24 000 words NOTE This story is also part of the time travel romance anthology Timeless Encounters a collection of three time travel romance novellas NOTE This story is written in British English     Publishing Romance Fiction in the Philippines Jodi McAlister, Claire Parnell, Andrea Anne Trinidad, 2023-06-08

The romance publishing landscape in the Philippines is vast and complex characterised by entangled industrial players diverse kinds of texts and siloed audiences This Element maps the large multilayered and highly productive sector of the Filipino publishing industry It explores the distinct genre histories of romance fiction in this territory and the social political and technological contexts that have shaped its development It also examines the close connections between romance publishing and other media sectors alongside unique reception practices It takes as a central case study the Filipino romance self publishing collective RomanceClass analysing how they navigate this complex local landscape as well as the broader international marketplace The majority of scholarship on romance fiction exclusively focuses on the Anglo American industry By focusing here on the Philippines the authors hope to disrupt this phenomenon and to contribute to a more decentred rhizomatic approach to understanding this genre world     The Encyclopedia of Fantasy John Clute, John Grant, 1999-03-15

Like its companion volume The Encyclopedia of Science Fiction this massive reference of 4 000 entries covers all aspects of fantasy from literature to art     The Anthology of Colonial Australian Adventure Fiction Ken Gelder, Rachael Weaver, 2011

Marauding bushrangers lost explorers mad shepherds new chums and mounted troopers these are some of the characters who populate the often perilous world of colonial Australian adventure fiction Squatters defend their hard earned properties from attack while floods and other natural disasters threaten to wipe any trace of settlement away Colonial Australian adventure fiction takes its characters on a journey into remote and unfamiliar territory often in pursuit of wealth and well being But these journeys are invariably fraught with danger and everything comes at a price This anthology collects the best examples of colonial Australian adventure fiction with stories by Ernest Favenc Louis Becke Rosa Praed Guy Boothby and many others Also available in this series The Anthology of Colonial Australian Gothic Fiction The Anthology of Colonial Australian Crime Fiction The Anthology of Colonial Australian Romance Fiction     Johannes Schlaf and German Naturalist Drama Raleigh Whiting, 1997 First book in English devoted to Johannes Schlaf the 19th century German playwright bringing fresh insights to the whole movement of German naturalist drama This is the first book in English on the German playwright Johannes Schlaf 1862 1941 whose involvement in consistent realism and modern theatre in the 1890s provides an insight into the origins and development of German naturalist drama Schlaf's main contributions to this movement were with Die Familie Selicke 1890 on which he collaborated with Arno Holz and Meister Oelze 1892 works which show his innovative talents The author considers these works in the context of the experimental prose sketches which Schlaf worked on with Holz after 1888 and of the realist and naturalist dramas of Hebbel Ibsen Hauptmann and Sudermann he brings out their growing concern with trapped women and victimised children as well as their critical focus on the problems of traditional poetry

Fantasy Fiction Jennifer Pullen, 2023-12-14

The first fantasy writing textbook to combine a historical genre overview with an anthology and comprehensive craft guide, this book explores the blueprints of one of the most popular forms of genre fiction. The first section will acquaint readers with the vast canon of existing fantasy fiction and outline the many subgenres encompassed within it, before examining the important relationship between fantasy and creative writing, the academy, and publishing. A craft guide follows, which equips students with the key concepts of storytelling as they are impacted by writing through a fantastical lens. These include Character and dialogue, Point of view, Plot and structure, Worldbuilding, settings, ideologies, and cultures, Style, and revision. The third section guides students through the spectrum of styles as they are classified in fantasy fiction, from Epic and high fantasy through Lovecraftian and Weird fiction to magical realism and hybrid fantasy. An accompanying anthology will provide students with a greater awareness of the range of possibilities open to them as fantasy writers and will feature such writers as Ursula Le Guin, China Miéville, Theodora Goss, Emrys Donaldson, Ken Liu, C. S. E. Cooney, Vandana Singh, Sofia Samatar, Rebecca Roanhorse, Jessie Ulmer, Yxta Maya Murray, and Rachael K. Jones. With writing exercises, prompts, additional online resources, and cues for further reading throughout, this is an essential resource for anyone wanting to write fantastical fiction.

An Anthology of Pre-Raphaelite Writings Carolyn Hares-Stryker, 1997

Here for the first time is a panoramic overview of the most resonant work of the Pre-Raphaelite era in one handy volume. Combining well-known works with previously neglected materials, this ambitious anthology includes writing and art by such figures as the Rossettis, William Morris, John Ruskin, George Meredith, and Algernon Charles Swinburne. Organized chronologically, the book enables the reader to trace the most prominent artists and writers within each decade, revealing how their influence alternately increased and waned over time and further how their work was received by Victorian critics, by turn friendly, satirical, and hostile. Carolyn Hares-Stryker's introduction addresses the principles and origins of the movement, describing the social and political events that shaped the Pre-Raphaelites and the themes to which they returned again and again: social reform, religion, and its role in contemporary life, the allure of the past, and the fragility of utopia.
