The Legend of Gold and Other Stories Jun Ishikawa, 1998-10-01 The four stories and novella translated in this volume represent the best short fiction by Ishikawa Jun 1899-1987 one of the most important modernist writers to appear on the Japanese literary stage during the years before and after World War II Throughout his career Ishikawa resisted the tide of popular opinion to address issues of political and artistic significance and thereby paved the way for a generation of Japanese internationalists and experimentalists including Abe Kobo and Oe Kenzaburo Highly acclaimed and respected in Japan Ishikawa remains little known in the West in part because of the tendency of Western critics and readers of Japanese literature to focus on writers concerned with aesthetic issues Combining a strong interest in politics with a brilliant use of modernist techniques Ishikawa's work defies easy categorization Banned in 1938 Mars Song has been called the finest example of anti war fiction written during Japan's march to war in China and the Pacific In it Ishikawa denounces the chorus of jingoism that swept Japan and via a metafictional tale within a tale he warns against the suicidal destruction to which complicity in warmongering will lead The allegorical Moon Gems written in the spring of 1945 further explores the tenuous position of the writer moving against the current in a country not only still at war but very near defeat In The Legend of Gold and The Jesus of the Ruins both from 1946 Japan has been reduced to a charred wasteland yet Ishikawa envisions destruction as fertile ground for rebirth and resurrection Finally the semi surrealist novella The Raptor plumbs the meanings and possibilities of peace in the post Occupation era William Tyler's eminently readable translations are faithfully expressive of stylistic and tonal nuances in the original works In a perceptive introduction and the critical essays that follow Tyler emphasizes Ishikawa's importance as an anti establishment even resistance writer and argues that the writer's political iconoclasm goes hand in hand with the modernism of his literary experimentation The Legend of Gold will be of tremendous importance in enlarging a Western understanding of the development of the writer's role as social critic and the evolution of the modernist movement in postwar Japan About Love and Other Stories Anton Chekhov, 2008-07-10 the greatest short story writer who has ever lived Raymond Carver's unequivocal verdict on Chekhov's genius has been echoed many times by writers as diverse as Katherine Mansfield Somerset Maugham John Cheever and Tobias Wolff While his popularity as a playwright has sometimes overshadowed his achievements in prose the importance of Chekhov's stories is now recognized by readers as well as by fellow authors Their themes alienation the absurdity and tragedy of human existence have as much relevance today as when they were written and these superb new translations capture their modernist spirit Elusive and subtle spare and unadorned the stories in this selection are among Chekhov's most poignant and lyrical They include well known pieces such as The Lady with the Little Dog as well as less familiar work like Gusev inspired by Chekhov's travels in the Far East and Rothschild's Violin a haunting and darkly humorous tale about death and loss ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more The President and Antoinette De La Zur with Other Stories Geraldine Harris, 2015-06-24 Geraldine Harris has degrees in psychology and education from the University of Southern California She has always been interested in the intricacies of the human mind and human nature She is the author of David and the Whirly Fish a book for children a television script and numerous scenes for television shows Ms Harris lives in Los Angeles California Lest Our Passage Be Forgotten & Other Stories
