K. Patell, Deborah Lindsay Williams, 2024-03-05 The Oxford History of the Novel in English is a twelve volume series presenting a comprehensive global and up to date history of English language prose fiction written by a large international team of scholars The series is concerned with novels as a whole not just the literary novel and each volume includes chapters on the processes of production distribution and reception and on popular fiction and the fictional sub genres as well as outlining the work of major novelists movements and tendencies This book offers an account of US fiction during a period demarcated by two traumatic moments the eve of the entry of the United States into the Second World War and the onset of the Covid 19 pandemic The aftermath of the Second World War was arguably the high point of US nationalism but in the years that followed US writers would increasingly explore the possibility that US democracy was a failure both at home and abroad For so many of the writers whose work this volume explores the idea of nation became suspect as did the idea of national literature as the foundation for US writing Looking at post 1940s writing the literary historian might well chart a movement within literary cultures away from nationalism and toward what we would call cosmopolitanism a perspective that fosters conversations between the occupants of different cultural spaces and that regards difference as an opportunity to be embraced rather than a problem to be solved During this period the novel has had significant competition for the US public s attention from other forms of narrative and media film television comic books videogames and the internet and the various forms of social media that it spawned If however the novel becomes a residual form during this period it is by no means archaic The novel has been reinvigorated over the past eighty years by its encounters with both emergent forms such as film television comic books and digital media and the emergent voices typically associated with multiculturalism in the United States

Mornings in Jenin Susan Abulhawa,2010 Post-Orientalism and Contemporary American Novels Mousa Abu Haserah,2023-08-09 This book provides a scientific and academic contribution to the scholarly exploration of the complex relationship between the East and the West in American literature The study focuses on four novels Mornings in Jenin Falling Man The Reluctant Fundamentalist and Riyadh Al Janna The Wind of Paradise to discuss how the literature reflects on Middle Eastern themes in relation to the situations and conditions of the New East It treats the Orient as a moving body and takes Edward Said s Orientalism into account also showing Post Orientalism or the New East as a literary phenomenon in the 21st century specializing in politics militarism and post colonial ideology The book explains and divides the Middle East into two parts the Arab Islamic Middle East and the non Arab Islamic Middle East It highlights the similarities and differences between these two parts as depicted in various novels presenting the East as a land of desolation and destruction due to the political regional and religious changes that have shaken it

Women's War Stories Michelle Hartman, Malek Abisaab,2022-09-09 Women have consistently been left out of the official writing of Lebanese history and nowhere is this more obvious than in writing on the Lebanese Civil War As more and more histories of the war begin to circulate few include any in depth discussion of the multiple roles women played in wartime Lebanon Fewer still address the essential issues of women s work and their creative production such as literature performance art and filmmaking Developed out of a larger oral history project collecting and archiving the ways in which women narrated their experiences of the Lebanese Civil War this book focuses on a wide range of subjects all framed as women telling their war stories Each of the six chapters centers on women who worked or created art during the war revealing in their own words the challenges struggles and resistance they faced during this tumultuous period of Lebanese history Breaking Broken English Michelle Hartman,2019-03-26 Black Arab political and cultural solidarity has had a long and rich history in the United States That alliance is once again exerting a powerful influence on American society as Black American and Arab American activists and cultural workers are joining forces in formations like the Movement for Black Lives and Black for Palestine to address social justice issues In Breaking Broken English Hartman explores the historical and current manifestations of this relationship through language and literature with a specific focus on Arab American literary works that use the English language creatively to put into practice many of the theories and ideas advanced by Black American thinkers Breaking Broken English shows how language is the location where literary and poetic beauty meet the political in creative work Hartman draws out thematic connections between Arabs Arab Americans and Black Americans around politics and culture and also highlights the many artistic ways these links are built She shows how political and cultural ideas of solidarity are written in creative texts and emphasizes their potential to mobilize social justice activists in the United States and abroad in the ongoing struggle for the liberation of Palestine Recontextualizing Resistance Emily Golson,2018-01-23

Resistance is a concept that rose to the forefront of several areas of study when Max Weber made careful distinctions between authority force violence domination and legitimation It gained strong attention when the well known Palestinian journalist activist fiction writer and critic Ghassan Kanafani 1936 1972 published a study entitled the Literature of Resistance in Occupied Palestine 1948 1966 a work that contributed to postcolonial theories of power race ethnicity and gender and second generation theories of orientalism feminism and disability Initially identified by philosophers historians and social critics as a focal point for situations in which oppressors brutally destroy the identity or subjectivity of the oppressed resistance has been transformed by fiction writers filmmakers lyricists and speechmakers into a process in which responses and counter responses to some type of injustice create difficult situations with complicated nuances These works now form the foundation for what has come to be recognized as resistance art This book gathers the insight knowledge and wisdom found in different manifestations of this art to further our understanding of the impact of resistance on contemporary life

Genocide in Gaza Ahmet Davutoglu,Richard Falk,2025-05-01 The December 2023 issuance of a Declaration of Conscience and Concern of Global Intellectuals to Stop Gaza Genocide to leading civil society activists and former governmental and UN officials throughout the world recorded 127 invited signatories and over 1500 endorsers On this basis the Declaration s originators Ahmet Davutoglu and Richard Falk invited a select number of signatories to an emergency conference in London to lend their authority to a further expression of the international community s deepest concerns in light of the continuation of the genocidal assault on the peoples of Gaza This book brings together the most valuable of the presentations delivered by conference participants It provides a coherent perspective on the extreme human catastrophe that was exposed as it unfolded in real time arousing intense responses of outrage from the peoples of the world which failed to alter the shameless and shocking levels of active complicity on the part of several leading Western liberal democracies The latter constituted a cynical embrace of moral hypocrisy and double standards paralyzing the UN and ignoring the most flagrant violations of international law on Israel's part The book assesses the Israeli response to the Hamas attack of October 7 from the perspective of international law and morality as well as providing informed accounts of the inability of the UN to implement the demands of a permanent and unconditional ceasefire in Gaza It also provides accounts of the implementation of forced evacuation induced starvation and disease efforts calculated to destroy the civilian population in whole or in part Israel's defiance of the UN the ICJ Interim Order and international humanitarian law in the course of transparent violations of the Genocide Convention At a time when neither governments nor international institutions are demonstrating either the will or the capability to act in accord with the rule of law or the popular will of the majority of the peoples of the world who have demonstrated against the genocide in their millions these substantial essays give an overview of the extraordinary damage wrought and what can and should be done to protect Palestinian rights and construct a future that empowers Palestinians to give content to their right of self-determination rather than victimized by yet another effort to impose a solution from without or enable Israel to control the day after developments when the violence stops

Being There, Being Here Maurice Ebileeni, 2022-06-16 Arabic is unconditionally the national language of Palestinians but for many it is no longer their mother tongue More than a century after the early waves of immigration to the Americas and more than seven decades after the Nakba of 48 generations of Palestinians have grown up in a variety of different contexts within Israel Palestine and the world at large This ongoing scattered state has led to the proliferation of Palestinian culture as it is simultaneously growing in multiple directions depending on geographical political and lingual contextualization The Palestinian story no longer exists exclusively in Arabic A new generation of Palestinian and Palestinian descended writers and artists from both Latin and North America Scandinavia and Europe at large as well as Israel Palestine are bringing stories of their heritage and the Palestinian nation into a variety of languages such as Spanish Italian English Danish and Hebrew among so many other languages Being There Being Here is the product of an eight year long journey in which Maurice Ebileeni explores how the Palestinian homeland is being imagined in multiple languages from a variety of positions both locally and globally The book poses unsettling questions about this current situation and also looks to the future to speculate about how a Palestinian nation might still house the notion of home for an increasingly diverse Palestinian population

Community Boundaries and Border Crossings Kristen Lillvis, Robert Miltner, Molly Fuller, 2016-12-21 Globalization and transnationalism have reshaped our communities and their borderlines. Communities exceed fixed boundaries existing instead in the liminal spaces where narratives intersect, clash or cooperate. These liminal spaces, physical and virtual, local and global, provide opportunities for diversifying discussions on diaspora, cultural hybridity and ethnic identity. Ethnic women writers make significant contributions to this dialogue regarding the reconfiguration of people and their perimeters. A multigenre and multicultural text, Community Boundaries and Border Crossings explores the novels, short stories, essays, autobiographies, testimonios, plays, poems and hybrid poetics of established and emerging ethnic women writers. This collection of critical essays highlights the new zones of cultural contact and exchange that are defining the twenty-first century. Each chapter reflects an awareness of cultural changes and challenges, engaging readers in a richly productive conversation concerning the interconnectedness of border crossings and community boundaries.

Spiritual Homelands Asher D. Biemann, Richard I. Cohen, Sarah E. Wobick-Segev, 2019-12-02 Homeland Exile. Imagined Homelands are features of the modern experience and relate to the cultural and historical dilemmas of loss, nostalgia, utopia, travel, longing and are central for Jews and others. This book is an exploration into a world of boundary crossings and of desired places and alternate identities into a world of adopted kin and invented allegiances.

Contemporary Arab-American Literature Carol Fadda-Conrey, 2014-05-30 The last couple of decades have witnessed a flourishing of Arab American literature across multiple genres. Yet increased interest in this literature is ironically paralleled by a prevalent bias against Arabs and Muslims that portrays their long presence in the US as a recent and unwelcome phenomenon. Spanning the 1990s to the present, Carol Fadda Conrey takes in the sweep of literary and cultural texts by Arab American writers in order to understand the ways in which their depictions of Arab homelands, whether actual or imagined, play a crucial role in shaping cultural articulations of US citizenship and belonging. By asserting themselves within a US framework while maintaining connections to their homelands, Arab Americans contest the blanket representations of themselves as dictated by the US nation-state. Deploying a multidisciplinary framework at the intersection of Middle Eastern studies, US ethnic studies and diaspora studies, Fadda Conrey argues for a transnational discourse that overturns the often rigid affiliations embedded in ethnic labels. Tracing the shifts in transnational perspectives from the founders of Arab American literature like Gibran Kahlil Gibran and Ameen Rihani to modern writers such as Naomi Shihab Nye, Joseph Geha, Randa Jarrar and Suheir Hammad, Fadda Conrey finds that contemporary Arab American writers depict strong yet complex attachments to the US landscape. She explores how the idea of home is negotiated between immigrant parents and subsequent generations alongside analyses of texts that work toward fostering more nuanced understandings of Arab and Muslim identities in the wake of post-9/11 anti-Arab sentiments.
