Parts Of An Andrology On Representations Of Mens Bodies:

Parts of an Andrology Lawrence R. Schehr, 1997 In studying the white male body a counterpoint in gender studies to the many readings of the representations of the female body this book considers works by such authors as Poe Maupassant Moravia Tournier Roth Guibert and Foucault Parts of an Andrology Lawrence R. Schehr, 1997 The subject of this original and provocative work is the white male body a counterpoint in gender studies to the many readings of the representation of the female body To look at the construction of this figure the author examines a group of discontinuous works that are representative of the discontinuity in the intermittent representation of the male body Especially in nineteenth century narrative where Edgar Allan Poe and Guy de Maupassant write astutely on the subject there is never continuity in representing the male body The Pit and the Pendulum and Bel Ami are flickering episodic investigations into the male body as subject as sentient feeling as the subject of torture or of adulation Not until the twentieth century can this male subject be continuously represented Though the male body is often at center stage in works that treat it as a metonymy of its own phallic and phallogocentric power this body has less often been seen relative to pleasure and pain to aesthetics to human vulnerability An introductory chapter explores a work by Alberto Moravia Io e lui as well as various manifestations of the male body s most salient part the penis in contemporary discourse and aesthetics Another chapter deals with writings about the forbidden activity of masturbation and focuses on the work of three disparate writers Paul Bonnetain Michel Tournier and Philip Roth In the final chapter the author discusses several works that focus on the representation of the male body during the gay liberation movement in France and the subsequent celebration of the male body ending with the inscription of the male body in the literature of AIDS Among the authors discussed are Guy Hocquenghem Herv Guibert and Michel Foucault

Music Video and the Politics of Representation Diane Railton, 2011-07-07 How can we engage critically with music video and its role in popular culture What do contemporary music videos have to tell us about patterns of cultural identity today Based around an eclectic series of vivid case studies this fresh and timely examination is an entertaining and enlightening analysis of the forms pleasures and politics that music videos offer In rethinking some classic approaches from film studies and popular music studies and connecting them with new debates about the current state of feminism and feminist theory Railton and Watson show why and how we should be studying music videos in the twenty first century Through its thorough overview of the music video as a visual medium this is an ideal textbook for Media Studies students and all those with an interest in popular music and cultural studies Revealing Male Bodies Nancy Tuana, William Cowling, Maurice Hamington, Greg Johnson, 2002-05-06 Revealing Male Bodies is the first scholarly collection to directly confront male lived experience There has been an explosion of work in men s studies masculinity issues and male sexuality in addition to a growing literature exploring female embodiment Missing from the current literature however is a sustained analysis of the phenomenology of male gendered bodies Revealing Male Bodies addresses this omission by examining how male bodies are physically and experientially constituted by the economic theoretical and social practices in which men are immersed Contributors include Susan Bordo William Cowling Terry Goldie Maurice Hamington Don Ihde Greg Johnson Björn Krondorfer Alphonso Lingis Patrick McGann Paul McIlvenny Terrance MacMullan Jim Perkinson Steven P Schacht Richard Schmitt Nancy Tuana Craig L Wilkins and John Zuern Figures of Alterity Lawrence R. Schehr, 2003 This book focuses on the extension of realist writing toward alterity toward otherness in its ongoing efforts to enable individuals to speak and be heard correctly Through a series of close readings of six authors from Balzac to Proust the author shows the ways realist narrative engages the problem of bringing the other into the realm of the discursively representable The acts of representation involved in that development were not necessarily coterminous with either the representation of the exotic and its attendant stereotypes or with the representation of individuals themselves The representation of the other was the extension of discourse to what was previously unrepresentable The author argues that the unrepresentable is often perceived as oppositional because of the structuring of discourse by hierarchies and metaphysics whereby any bivalent pair is made into an oppositional pair

Men of Their Words Nigel Harkness, 2017-12-02 Whereas the centrality of femininity to nineteenth century French fiction has been the focus of widespread critical attention masculinity has until recently received little sustained treatment in either the literary or socio historical domains In this book Nigel Harkness uses the fiction of George Sand 1804-1876 the pre eminent woman writer of the period to explore questions of masculinity as they pertain to the nineteenth century French novel and to map out new approaches to the study of literary masculinity Drawing on contemporary theories of gender and narrative Harkness reveals how Sand's novels repeatedly focus on a nexus of language masculinity and power in which narrative is both a vehicle for the expression of manhood and a site where masculinity is discursively performed Masculinity is thus reconfigured in Sand's fiction as an identity constituted as much through words as through actions Analysis of the performances of masculinity staged in Sand's novels opens onto an exploration of gendered processes of literary representation the links between masculinity and the doxa the equation of writing and power the homosocial function of acts of narration and the masculinity of authorship and authority

Zola, The Body Modern Susan Harrow, 2017-07-05 Emile Zola's reputation as a landmark European novelist is undisputed His monumental achievement the novel cycle Les Rougon Macquart Histoire sociale et naturelle d'une famille sous le Second Empire 1871-1893 fixed his status as a major writer in the naturalist tradition Is there any more to be said Susan Harrow answers boldly in the affirmative challenging the commonplace view that Zola's writing is predictable prolix and transparent what Barthes called readerly for which read tedious Harrow exposes the modernist and postmodernist strategies which surface in the Rougon Macquart novels and reveals Zola's innovatory representation of the body captured here at work at war at play at rest and in arresting abstraction Informed by critical thought from Barthes and Deleuze to Michel de Certeau and Anthony Giddens Zola the Body Modern offers a model for how we can revitalize our understanding of the canonical nineteenth century European novel and learn to travel more flexibly between parameters of century style and aesthetics      Masculinity Peter Lehman, 2013-02-01 Lehman brings together new work on masculinity in film by established film scholars new academics performance artists and cultural critics The essays analyze trends from the role of gay men in saving heterosexuality to the emergence of new queer cinema      Women Constructing Men Sarah S. G. Frantz, Katharina Rennhak, 2010-01-15 Female novelists have always invested as much narrative energy in constructing their male characters as in envisioning their female The collected articles in demonstrate that the topic of female authored masculinities not only allows scholars to re discover almost every novel written by a woman but also triggers reflections on a host of theoretical questions of gender and genre

Men and Masculinities in Christianity and Judaism Bjorn Krondorfer, 2013-02-12 Bjorn Krondorfer one of the leading scholars in this field has collected 35 key texts that have shaped this field within the wider area of the study of gender religion and culture The texts in this critical reader engage actively and critically with the position of men in society and church men s privileged relation to the sacred and to religious authority the ideals of masculinity as engendered by religious discourse and alternative trajectories of being in the world whether spiritually relationally or sexually Each of the texts is introduced by the editor and accompanied by bibliographies that make this the ideal tool for study      New Testament Masculinities Stephen D. Moore, J. C. a. Anderson, 2004 This collection considers themes of Christology patriarchy violence colonialism family structures and sexual practices as it explores the construction and performance of masculinity in the New Testament and related early Christian texts Examining the Gospels Romans the Pastorals Revelation and the Shepherd of Hermas it situates diverse masculinities within a Greco Roman matrix and introduces biblical scholarship to a rich vein of classical scholarship on gender The contributors include Janice Capel Anderson David J A Clines Colleen M Conway Mary Rose D Angelo Page duBois Chris Frilingos Jennifer A Glancy Maud W Gleason Stephen D Moore Jerome H Neyrey Seong Hee Kim Jeffrey L Staley Diana M Swancutt Tat siong Benny Liew and Eric Thurman Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org      Autobiographical Identities in Contemporary Arab Culture Valerie Anishchenkova, 2014-07-16 Over the last 40 years autobiography in Arab societies has moved away from exemplary life narratives and toward more unorthodox techniques such as erotic memoir writing postmodernist self fragmentation cinematographic self projection and blogging Valerie Anishchenkova argues that the Arabic autobiographical genre has evolved into a mobile unrestricted category arming authors with narrative tools to articulate their selfhood Reading works from Arab nations such as Egypt Iraq Morocco Syria and Lebanon Anishchenkova connects the century s rapid political and ideological developments to increasing autobiographical experimentation in Arabic works The immense scope of her study also forces consideration of film and online forms of self representation and offers a novel theoretical framework to these various modes of autobiographical cultural production      Entre Hommes Todd W. Reeser, Lewis Carl Seifert, 2008 Despite its debt to French thought for theoretical constructs masculinity studies have been dominated by work on English language texts and contexts Entre Hommes lays the foundation for French and Francophone masculinity studies in both a cultural and theoretical sense This ground breaking volume considers what is meant by French or Francophone masculinities per se and how these identities have or have not changed over time with essays spanning periods from the Middle Ages to the present An introduction situates the study of masculinity within the work of recent French thinkers and essays examine both key writers and recurring cultural images

Taboo Hannah Thompson, 2017-07-05 French realist texts are driven by representations of the body and depend on corporeality to generate narrative intrigue But anxieties around bodily representation undermine realist claims of objectivity and transparency Aspects of bodily reality which threaten les bonnes moeurs gender confusion sexual appetite disability torture murder child abuse and disease rarely occupy the foreground and are instead spurned or only partially alluded to by writers and critics This wide ranging study uses the notion of the taboo as a powerful means of interpreting representations of the body The hidden bodies of realist texts reveal their secrets in unexpected ways Thompson reads texts by Sand Rachilde Maupassant Hugo Barbey d'Aurevilly Mirbeau and Zola alongside modern theorists of the body to show how the figure of the taboo plots an alternative model of author reader relations based on the struggle to speak the unspeakable Dr Hannah Thompson is a Senior Lecturer in French at Royal Holloway University of London Her first book Naturalism Redressed Identity and Clothing in the Novels of Emile Zola was published by Legenda in 2004

This Sporting Life Robert Colls, 2020 This Sporting Life offers an important view of England's cultural history through its sporting pursuits carrying the reader to a match or a hunt or a fight viscerally drawing a portrait of the sounds and smells and showing that sport has been as important in defining British culture as gender politics education class and religion

Caravaggio in Film and Literature Laura Rorato, 2017-07-05 Although fictional responses to Caravaggio date back to the painter's lifetime 1571-1610 it was during the second half of the twentieth century that interest in him took off outside the world of art history In this new monograph the first book length study of Caravaggio's recent impact Rorato provides a panoramic overview of his appropriation by popular culture The extent of the Caravaggio myth and its self-perpetuating nature are brought out by a series of case studies involving authors and directors from numerous countries Italy Great Britain America Canada France and Norway and literary and filmic texts from a number of genres from straightforward tellings of his life to crime fiction homoerotic film and postcolonial literature

Angelic Echoes Ralph William Sarkonak, 2000-01-01 In this study Ralph Sarkonak examines many aspects of Guibert's life and production the connection between his books and his photography his complex relationship with Roland Barthes and with his friend and mentor Michel Foucault

Of Muscles and Men Michael G. Cornelius, 2011-09-29 Few movie genres have highlighted the male body more effectively than the sword and sandal film where the rippling torso and the bulging muscle are displayed for all to appreciate Carrying his phallic sword and dressed in traditional garb calculated to bring attention to his magnificent physique the sword and sandal hero is capable of toppling great nations rescuing heroines defeating monsters and generally saving the day Each of these essays examines the issues of masculinity and utility addressed in the sword and sandal genre The contributors offer insights on a film form which showcases its male protagonists as heroic violent fleshy and in the end extremely useful
