Understanding Special Educational Needs and Disability in the Early Years Janice Wearmouth, Abigail Gosling, Julie Beams, Stephanie Davydaitis, 2017-09-18 This key text provides essential tools for understanding legislation, policy, provision and practice for children in the early years, particularly young children with special educational needs and disability (SEND) Based on extensive research and the four areas of need as defined in the Special Educational Needs and Disability Code of Practice 0 to 25 Years (DfE 2015), the book charts the development of young children and their growing constructions of learning, communication, language, motor movement and emotion Providing material that translates into practice in a straightforward and practical way, this text is packed full of personal accounts and case studies enabling readers to appreciate what the experience of

SEND in the early years means for families and professionals and also to learn more about how they might understand and respond appropriately to a child's needs. Understanding Special Educational Needs and Disability in the Early Years will be of interest to students studying Early Years courses, families, SENDCOs, teachers and other staff supporting young children with a range of special educational needs and disabilities.

The Changing Urban School Robert Thornbury, 2012. The author takes a long look at what goes on in schools and the roles played by people specifically concerned with them but finally the problems of the school are seen as indissolubly bound up with the changes that have overtaken urban life. The school cannot be isolated; teachers, administrators, planners and parents must actively co-operate in making the school work in society and a society which works for the school. Nothing other than such a total vision, he concludes, will enable us to achieve normal educational goals. Robert Thornbury writes out of fifteen years' experience of the urban school and of the problems not only of Britain but also those sometime similar, often more acute, of other countries, in particular the United States and Australia. The need for a total urban strategy is worldwide. His point of view is broad-based but his sympathies lie most of all with the hard-working teacher who stayed on in the urban classroom. It is a book for teachers, therefore, but also by its own argument for all concerned with the future of the inner city and the reordering of education.

Enjoying the Tune of Phrase: An Psychological Symphony within Passing Phase J Paul Devlin

In some sort of consumed by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of fast transmission, the melodic beauty and emotional symphony produced by the prepared word frequently fade in to the background, eclipsed by the persistent sound and distractions that permeate our lives. However, situated within the pages of Passing Phase J Paul Devlin a marvelous fictional value brimming with fresh feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a wonderful composer of language, that charming masterpiece conducts visitors on a mental trip, well unraveling the concealed tunes and profound affect resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths of the poignant analysis, we can investigate the book is central harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing fashion, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
