Christianity and Social Change in Contemporary Africa: Volume One B. Nyamnjoh, A. Carpenter, 2020-05-25 This volume brings together seven empirically grounded contributions by African social scientists of different disciplinary backgrounds. The authors explore the social impact of religious innovation and competition in present day Africa. They represent a selection from an interdisciplinary initiative that made 23 research grants for theologians and social scientists to study Christianity and social change in contemporary Africa. These contributions focus on a variety of dynamics in contemporary African religion, mostly Christianity, including gender, health and healing, social media, entrepreneurship and inter-religious borrowing and accommodation. The volume seeks to enhance understanding of religion's vital presence and power in contemporary Africa. It reveals problems as well as possibilities, notably some ethical concerns and psychological maladies that arise in some of these new movements, notably neo-Pentecostal and militant fundamentalist groups. Yet the contributions do not fixate on African problems and victimization. Instead, they explore sources of African creativity, resiliency and agency. The book calls on scholars of religion and religiosity in Africa to invest new conceptual and methodological energy in understanding what it means to be actively religious in Africa today. Malaysian Christians Online Meng Yoe Tan, 2020-02-26 Many facets of social life are now intrinsically linked to the Internet through increasing dependence on user-centric platforms like blogs, social networking websites, online forums and open source websites. The Malaysian Church is not exempt from having to negotiate with an increasingly tech-savvy and networked community of believers. Based primarily on Internet ethnography and interviews with Christian bloggers and church pastors, this book looks at how the Internet is a component of everyday religion in the lives of Malaysian Christians at individual, institutional and national levels. It examines the ways in which online Christian expressions are increasingly integrated into the everyday religious routines of Christians for the development of their personal identities and inter-religious interactions. This book also shows how the spiritual authority of church pastors can be both challenged and reinforced through the creative use of online tools. It addresses some of the creative ways in which Christians utilise the Internet to engage with national socio-political issues within the context of restrictive and controlled mainstream media as well as the ongoing discourse with Islam in the country. Through a selection of case studies, this book shows that while the Internet may be free, the users of the Internet are not necessarily so. While the Internet has provided Malaysian Christians with new tools to experience their faith in new ways, several aspects of old offline socio-cultural habits persist online. These in turn lead to a robust and growing environment of Internet Christianity in Malaysia. This timely book will be of interest to scholars in religious studies, media and communications and cultural studies in Southeast Asia. Your Rights in Christ Chris Oyakhilome, 2011 The Video Librarian, 2006 Billboard, 1999-08-07 In its 114th year, Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events, brand content and data licensing platform.
