Mother From Hell Kenneth M. Doyle, Patrick Doyle, 2012-10-15 Kenneth and Patrick Doyle grew up in a family of nine children in Tullamore Co Offaly Though the home was dysfunctional and all the children suffered at the hands of their parents Kenneth and Patrick were singled out for horrific abuse at the hands of their mother Starved beaten and sent out to steal their story is a catalogue of abuse It also implicates the authorities who had pages upon pages of reports on their situation and yet never stepped in Sworn to Silence Brendan Boland, Darragh MacIntyre, 2014-07-28 It was March 29th 1975 when Brendan Boland was summoned to give evidence to a secret canonical inquiry The altar boy had just celebrated his 14th birthday He had been abused for almost three years by a priest who would become Irelands most notorious paedophile Now the church wanted to know exactly what happened Brendan told them everything Sworn to Silence is the story of one boy s quiet determination to stop wrongdoing It is a story which the Irish Catholic church kept secret for almost four decades the story of Brendan Boland This compelling and important book will present a candid and often moving first hand account of events by Boland Childhood and After Susan Isaacs, 2013-10-08 This volume consists partly of a selection of technical psycho analytical studies partly of papers which either touch upon the bearing of psycho analysis on the upbringing and education of young children or link their social and emotional life with their intellectual and practical needs Most of these essays deal with children in any case they rest upon the relationship between childhood and adult life as for example The Modifications of the Ego where it can be clearly seen that it is not possible to understand the adult without going back to the feelings phantasies and experiences of the infant In The Criteria of Interpretation there is very little reference to children the paper being concerned with psycho analytic work with adults but the same implications will be seen there also In the nature of the case some of the essays are more popular than others but I hope that none of them will be found so technical as to be devoid of interest to those concerned with the psychological problems of little children Those previously published have not been changed save for a few minor verbal alterations They are arranged simply in order of publication or delivery if previously unpublished This edition first Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Moving In and Out of Islam Karin van Nieuwkerk, 2018-12-05 Embracing a new religion or leaving one s faith usually constitutes a significant milestone in a person s life While a number of scholars have examined the reasons why people convert to Islam few have investigated why people leave the faith and what the consequences are for doing so Taking a holistic approach to conversion and deconversion Moving In and Out of Islam explores the experiences of people who have come into the faith along with those who have chosen to leave it including some individuals who have both moved into and out of Islam over the course of their lives Sixteen empirical case studies trace the processes of moving in or out of Islam in Western and Central Europe the United States Canada and the Middle East Going beyond fixed notions of conversion or apostasy the contributors focus on the ambiguity doubts and nonlinear trajectories of both moving in and out of

Islam They show how people shifting in either direction have to learn or unlearn habits and change their styles of clothing dietary restrictions and ways of interacting with their communities They also look at how communities react to both converts to the religion and converts out of it including controversies over the death penalty for apostates The contributors cover the political aspects of conversion as well including debates on radicalization in the era of the war on terror and the role of moderate Islam in conversions
