For My Daughter On Graduation Day

*Today, as you graduate,
one chapter in your life has closed,
and another is about to begin.
The future stands bright before you,
so take hold of your dreams
and no matter what...don't let go.*

*There will be times ahead
when you will feel overwhelmed,
but try not to give up,
for nothing which is worth anything,
comes without hard work and sacrifice.*

*When you were a little girl,
I held your hand.
I guided you and protected you
as best I could.*

*It's time for me to let go now.
There is some pain in that.
Still, there is also a wonderful sense
of pride and accomplishment
as I look at the young woman that you have become.*

*I love you, Sweetheart, and I pray
that my love will sustain you.*

*It's time now...
spread your wings and fly!*

Chicken Soup for the Soul Celebrating Mothers & Daughters Jack Canfield, Mark Victor Hansen, 2012-09-25 This compilation of stories will touch the reader's soul with the funny moments and sentimental times shared by mothers and daughters. Chicken Soup for the Mother Daughter's Soul II includes stories about young women leaving home for the first time to attend college, how mothers and daughters at odds with each other learn to forgive and forget, and how one daughter comes to terms with saying goodbye. The relationship a mother and daughter shares is at times difficult but in the end it can be one of the most precious.

Poems From the Heart of a Woman Glenda Faye Bagley, 2012-10 My mother Lovella Bagley had ten children. She taught her family about Jesus and the biblical principles of His word. Her dream was to write a book about her husband and all her children. She was married to Lee Earnest Bagley Sr for sixty-five years; he went home to be with the Lord on December 12, 2009. My father had a good sense of humor and an extraordinary personality. He provided for his family by working at an apartment complex as a Supervisor of Plumbing in Lubbock, Texas. In my upcoming book Why am I Here I will talk about specifics in our family's life. Our mother was diagnosed with Alzheimer's at the age of seventy-five, and I watched her sad face as the doctor gave her the news. I watched her go from a vibrant woman to being in a wheelchair. She was determined to finish writing her poetry in her journal because she was quickly losing her memory. Her impending illness did not discourage her; even though she continued to struggle to remember names, events, and wording. Every night she wrote poems and short stories in her journal that she kept in a silver briefcase. Some years passed, and my siblings and I became her caregivers. Throughout the years, I thought about that silver briefcase as our family had relocated to Dallas, Texas. My brother Rodney decided to take a trip to Lubbock, Texas, to visit relatives. During his visit, Rodney went to his storage to get furniture and other items to take back to Dallas. As he walked through the storage, he looked next to a wall and there laid the silver briefcase that held my mother's poems. I was so excited I knew there has to be a reason for us finding the silver briefcase. In my book Poems from the Heart of a Woman, it presents poetry written by my mother as well as myself.
