Remapping the Indian Postcolonial Canon Nirmala Menon, 2016-12-27 This book critically examines the postcolonial canon questioning both the disproportionate attention to texts written in English and their overuse in attempts to understand the postcolonial condition The author addresses the non representation of Indian literature in theory and the inadequacy of generalizing postcolonial experiences and subjectivities based on literature produced in one language English It argues that while postcolonial scholarship has successfully challenged Eurocentrism it is now time to extend the dimensions beyond Anglophone and Francophone literatures to include literatures in other languages such as Hindi Telugu Tamil Tagalog and Swahili

The Concept of Motherhood in India

Zinia Mitra, 2020-02-09 This book presents an overview of heterogeneous and homogeneous exemplifications of the concept of motherhood from ancient times until the present day It discusses the centrality of motherhood in women's lives and considers the ways in which the ideology of motherhood and the concept of ideal motherhood are manufactured This is validated through analysis of various institutional structures of society including archetypes religion and media The first section of the book locates motherhood in its historical context and rereads the myths surrounding it as overarching social constructs The second part explores the different theories which have developed around motherhood in order to outline and understand the concept The section also looks at the lived reality of motherhood

Feminism and Contemporary Women

Writers Radha Chakravarty, 2014-05-30 This book attempts to deal with the problem of literary subjectivity in theory and practice The works of six contemporary women writers Doris Lessing Anita Desai Mahasweta Devi Buchi Emecheta Margaret Atwood and Toni Morrison are discussed as potential ways of testing and expanding the theoretical debate A brief history of subjectivity and subject formation is reviewed in the light of the works of thinkers such as Hobbes Hume Kant Hegel Marx Nietzsche Raymond Williams and Stephen Greenblatt and the work of leading feminists is also seen contributing to the debate substantially

Theatre of Their Own: Indian Women Playwrights in Perspective Dr. Pinaki Ranjan Das, 2021-04-29 In an age where academic curriculum has essentially pushed theatre studies into post script and the cultural space of making and watching theatre has been largely usurped by the immense popularity of television and mainstream cinemas it is important to understand why theatre still remains a space to be reckoned as one's own This book argues for a theatre of their own of the Indian women playwrights and directors and explores the possibilities that modern Indian theatre can provide as an instrument of subjective as well as social political cultural articulations and at the same time analyses the course of Indian theatre which gradually underwent broadening of thematic and dramaturgic scope in order to accommodate the independent voices of the women playwrights and directors LITERATURE AS A SITE OF ACTIVISM: A SELECT STUDY OF WOMEN WRITING IN INDIA G. Sathya, 2018-03-05 In the study Literature as a Site of Activism A Select Study of Women Writing in India an attempt is made to bring the well known contemporary women writers who are very much part of the mainstream society These women writers use their fictional as well as their non fictional writings to exhibit their activist concern They use their writings to criticize certain social happenings Though the writers hail from different parts of our country the issues raised by them in their writings unify them Their concern over various issues is discussed in a particular sense here

Subaltern Perspectives in Indian Context Dipak Giri, 2021-02-03 Translation Today, 2004 Family Fictions and World Making Sreya Chatterjee, 2021-04-29 Family Fictions and World Making Irish and Indian Women's Writing in the Contemporary Era is the first book length comparative study of family novels from Ireland and India On the one hand despite an early as well as late colonial experience Ireland is often viewed exclusively within a metropolitan British and Europe centered frame India on the other hand once seen as a model of decolonization for the non Western world has witnessed a crisis of democracy in recent years This book charts the idea of world making through the fraught itineraries of the Irish and the Indian family novel The novels discussed in the book foreground kinship based on ideological rather than biological ties and recast the family as a nucleus of interests across national borders The book considers the work of critically acclaimed women authors Anne Enright Elizabeth Bowen Mahasweta Devi Jennifer Johnston Kiran Desai and Molly Keane These writers are explored as representative voices for the interwar years the late modern period and the globalization era They not only push back against the male nationalist idiom of the family but also successfully interrogate family fiction as a supposedly private genre The broad timeframe of Family Fictions and World Making from the interwar period to the globalization era initiates a dialogue between the early and the current debates around core and periphery in postcolonial literature
