

Mothering Queerly, Queering Motherhood

Resisting Monomaternalism in Adoptive, Lesbian, Blended, and Polygamous Families

An abstract painting featuring a dense crowd of figures. The figures are rendered in soft, blended colors, primarily in shades of yellow, orange, and red on the left side, transitioning into greens and blues towards the right. The overall effect is a sense of a large, diverse group of people, possibly at a social gathering or event. The brushstrokes are visible, giving the painting a textured, expressive quality.

Making Gaybies Jaya Keaney, 2023-10-06 In Making Gaybies Jaya Keaney explores queer family making as a site of racialized intimacy Drawing on interviews with queer families in Australia Keaney traces the lived experiences of choice and constraint as these families seek to craft likeness with their future children and tell stories of chosen family made through love Queer family building often involves multiracial and multicultural encounters as intending parents take part in the global fertility industry Keaney follows queer family making through reproductive technologies and highlights the confines of varied transnational reproductive markets and policies as well as changing formations of race gender sexuality and kinship Whether sharing the story of white gay men choosing Indian and Thai egg donors to make their surrogate born children s ethnicities visually distinct from their own or that of an Aboriginal lesbian and her white partner choosing a Cherokee donor from the United States to articulate a global Indigeneity Keaney foregrounds the entwinement of reproduction race and affect By focusing on queer family making

Keaney demonstrates how reproduction fosters a queer multiracial imaginary of kinship Horrible Mothers Loïc Bourdeau, 2019-12 For too long the main narratives of motherhood have been oppressive and exclusionary frequently ignoring issues of female identity especially regarding those not conforming to traditional female stereotypes Horrible Mothers offers a variety of perspectives for analyzing representations of the mother in francophone literature and film at the turn of the twenty first century in North America including Quebec Ontario New England and California Contributors reexamine the horrible mother paradigm within a broad range of sociocultural contexts from different locations to broaden the understanding of mothering beyond traditional ideology The selections draw from long established scholarship in women's studies as well as from new developments in queer studies to make sense of and articulate strategies of representation to show how contemporary family models are constantly evolving reshaping and moving away from heteronormative expectations and to reposition mothers as subjects occupying the center of their own narrative rather than as objects The contributors engage narratives of mothering from myriad perspectives referencing the works of writers or filmmakers such as Marguerite Andersen Nelly Arcan Gr goire Chabot Xavier Dolan Nancy Huston and Lucie Joubert Fanfiction as Queer Healing Alice M. Chapman-Kelly, 2024-10-31 Exploring the phenomenon of Femslash fanfiction fan narratives that bring together heterosexual female characters from mainstream media and fiction this book analyses fan authored works as forms of literature worthy of studying at length It examines the anti racist feminist sapphic fan works produced in response to white supremacist heteronormative queerbaiting mainstream fantasy and argues that they represent a significant site of queer healing for marginalised audience members Focusing on the Swan Queen fandom where fans pair the white trash heroine Emma Swan and the villainous Latina Evil Queen Regina Mills from ABC's hit show Once Upon a Time Alice Kelly redresses the widespread academic neglect of queer female fandoms and responds to urgent calls to diversify fan and fantasy scholarship With reference to complex theoretical subjects such as ethnography sociology psychology and decolonial queer film and media studies the book also delves into the alternative timescales on which queer female and genderqueer fan authorship runs offers intriguing insights into fanfiction narrative structures and tackles the issues of broader fandom representation and contextualization Making the case that fan texts deserve attention in the academy Kelly shows how some of the most prolific fan works have the ability to enact colour reparation and a reclamation of memory fantasy romance maternity childhood parenting and magic These fictions serve fan communities as a whole through intersectional challenges to the power dynamics of the source text and within the fandom itself and as the book demonstrates offer attendant validation to fantasy fans who have been repeatedly told that the genre is not for them Queer and Religious Alliances in Family Law Politics and Beyond Nausica Palazzo, Jeffrey A. Redding, 2022-07-05 Family law is a site of social conflict and the erasure of non traditional families This book explores how conservative religious and progressive queer groups can cooperatively work together to expand family law's recognition beyond the traditional state sponsored family Various religious groups have shown an interest in promoting alternative family structures For example certain Muslim and Mormon communities have advocated for polygamy thereby aligning with queer groups interest in overcoming the engrafting of monogamy into state law Advocacy by North American religious conservatives for reforms in favor of non conjugal families and against same sex marriage overlaps with certain queer efforts to legitimize friendships and non traditional families more generally This book explores these potential areas of queer and religious political cooperation including limitations and principled reservations to such cooperation It then looks at additional future arenas of queer and religious political cooperation going beyond family law

Critical Kinship Studies Charlotte Kroløkke,, Lene Myong,Stine Willum Adrian,Tine Tjørnhøj-Thomsen,2015-12-11 In recent decades the concept of kinship has been challenged and reinvigorated by the so called repatriation of anthropology and by the influence of feminist studies queer studies adoption studies and science and technology studies These interdisciplinary approaches have been further developed by increases in infertility reproductive travel and the emergence of critical movements among transnational adoptees all of which have served to question how kinship is now practiced Critical Kinship Studies brings together theoretical and disciplinary perspectives and analytically sensitive perspectives aiming to explore the manifold versions of kinship and the ways in which kinship norms are enforced or challenged The Rowman and Littlefield International Intersections series presents an overview of the latest research and emerging trends in some of the most dynamic areas of research in the Humanities and Social Sciences today Critical Kinship Studies should be of particular interest to students and scholars in Anthropology Sociology Cultural Studies Medical Humanities Politics Gender and Queer Studies and Globalization

Creative Families Jana Mikats, Susanne Kink-Hampersberger, Libora Oates-Indruchová, 2021-06-01 This edited collection brings together two strands of current discussions in gender research through the concept of creativity First it addresses creativity in the context of the family by exploring changing and newly emergent family forms and ways of creating and maintaining intimate relationships Creativity here is understood not as just newness or originality but as that which in the words of Eisler and Montouri 2007 supports nurtures and actualizes life by increasing the number of choices open to individuals and communities One aim of this book therefore is to investigate the social collaborative and creative interactions in contemporary family and kin formations in Europe Second the volume examines how new media and technologies are entering and shaping everyday family lives Technological transformations and adaptations have not only enabled the creation of new forms of families and ways of family living but also challenged the established constellations of gender and family arrangements The present volume addresses these issues from multiple perspectives and in different contexts and explores the involvement of different actors By problematizing the creativity of becoming and doing family and kinship the authors acknowledge the increasing fluidity of gender identities the evolving diversity of relationships and the permeation of technology into daily life

Transforming Family Jocelyn Frelier, 2022-11 One of the lasting legacies of colonialism is the assumption that families should conform to a kinship arrangement built on normative nuclear individuality based models An alternate understanding of familial aspiration is one cultivated across national borders and cultures and beyond the constraints of diasporas This alternate understanding which imagines a category of trans families relies on decolonial and queer intellectual thought to mobilize or transform power across borders In Transforming Family Jocelyn Frelier examines a selection of novels penned by francophone authors in France Morocco and Algeria including Azouz Begag Nina Bouraoui Fouad Laroui Le la Sebbar Le la Slimani and Abdellah Ta a Each novel contributes a unique argument about this alternate understanding of family questioning how family relates to race gender class embodiment and intersectionality Arguing that trans families are always already queer Frelier opens up new spaces of agency for both family units and individuals who seek representation and fulfilling futures The novels analyzed in Transforming Family as well as the families they depict resist classification and delink the legacies of colonialism from contemporary modes of being As a result these novels create trans identities for their protagonists and contribute to a scholarly understanding of the becoming trans of cultural production As international political debates related to migration the family unit and the global migrant crisis surge Frelier destabilizes governmental criteria for the regrouping of families by turning to a set of definitions found in the cultural production of members of the francophone North African diaspora

Critical Perspectives on Wives: Roles, Representations, Identities, Work Hallstein Lynn O'Brien, 2019-07-01 This interdisciplinary volume opens an innovative space for critical discussion and production of new imaginaries within feminist scholarship analysis and feminist politics about what is and has been meant by involved in required of and what it means to be a wife Contributions within this volume together critically explore and tease out intersections overlaps and distinctions between the social categories of wife and mother and the link and separate labours of wife work and maternal caregiving labour This volume brings together diverse critical perspectives through creative contributions personal narratives and scholarly works Chapters discuss critical theorizing about roles representations identities and work associated with being a wife

New Maternalisms: Tales of Motherwork (dislodging the Unthinkable) Rokhsana Badruddoja, 2016-04-01 New Maternalisms: Tales of Motherwork Dislodging the Unthinkable explores the perceptions of those who engage in and or research motherwork or the labour of caregiving and how mothers view themselves in comparison to broader normative understandings of motherwork Here the anthology serves to deconstruct motherwork by highlighting and dislodging it from maternal ideology the socially constructed good mom read as sacrificial mom and feminized hegemonic discourse The objective of the edited volume then is to critically explore how we experience motherwork what motherwork might mean and how motherwork impacts and is impacted by the communities in which we live Such an examination involves contesting dominant ways of thinking about motherwork
