The Routledge Handbook of International Law and Anthropocentrism

Vincent Chapaux, Frédéric Mégret, Usha Natarajan, 2023-06-15 This handbook explores contextualises and critiques the relationship between anthropocentrism the idea that human beings are socially and politically at the centre of the cosmos and international law While the critical study of anthropocentrism has been under way for several years it has either focused on specific subfields of international law or emanated from two distinctive strands inspired by the animal rights movement and deep ecology This handbook offers a broader study of anthropocentrism in international law as a global legal system and academic field It assesses the extent to which current international law is anthropocentric contextualises that claim in relation to broader critical theories of anthropocentrism and explores alternative ways for international law to organise relations between humans and other living and non living entities This book will interest international lawyers environmental lawyers legal theorists social theorists and those concerned with the philosophy and ethics of ecology and the non human realms Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Funded by University of Gothenburg and Lund University

Attunement Clifford Chalmers Cain, 2019-12-20 We live in a century in which we must either change our way of regarding and acting toward nature or else imperil our survival as a species and jeopardize as well the fate of the planet itself This book by a theologian and environmental scientist examines four religious figures from European and Asian contexts who could aid us in developing a more sustainable and caring orientation which would allow us to live more in tune with creation twelfth century German nun Hildegard of Bingen thirteenth century Italian monk and patron saint of ecology Francis of Assisi nineteenth century Japanese Zen monk and poet Taigu Rykan and the first pontiff from Latin America twenty first century Pope Francis By emphasizing our intimate and unavoidable organic connection with the network of all life and our charge to care for and protect it they point us in the direction of a new paradigm a healthier perspective a metanoia a change of heart mind attitude and action that would partner what we know about nature an environmental consciousness with what we do an ecological conscience Our children our grandchildren and our great grandchildren deserve at least this much Independent Thinking in an Uncertain World Valerie A.
