Mother Tongue Lingua Corsa:

Mother Tongue Karen Stephen, 2014-11-17 Child advocate attorney Liz Fallon desperately needs a break after legal blunders and her own negligence lead to the kidnapping and death of a mother and daughter she represents Fluent in her mother's native Corsican tongue she nabs a job at a Paris newspaper as a lingua corsa translator for Pierre Benatar whose coverage of the explosive Corsican Nationalist movement has enraged every separatist faction When Benatar and his seven year old son disappear she resolves to prevent another tragedy and cons her way to Corsica under the ruse of researching a tabloid story about the mazzeri the isle's ancient harbingers of death She cozies up to the prime suspects using her secret knowledge of lingua corsa and the aid of an elderly Brit and a courageous teen Corsican cousin The hunters suddenly become the hunted when Liz's inquiries arouse the suspicions and passions of both the separatist leader and the French police chief When the mazzeri story also takes a chilling personal turn she has to wonder whether Corsica intends to reclaim her as its prodigal daughter or destroy her Cover photo by Fabie Centulle Corse Passion

Ideologies in Action Alexandra Jaffe, 2013-07-31 In Corsica spelling contests road signs bilingual education bills and Corsican language newscasts leave language planners and ordinary speakers deeply divided over how to define what counts as Corsican and how it is connected with cultural identity In Ideologies in Action Alexandra Jaffe explores the complex interrelationship between linguistic ideologies and practices on the French island of Corsica This detailed exploration of the ideological and political underpinnings of three decades of language planning raises fundamental questions about what it means to save a minority language and the way in which specific cultural political and ideological contexts shape the successes and failures of linguistic engineering efforts Jaffe's ethnography focuses both on the way dominant language ideologies are inscribed in the everyday experience of ordinary people as well as how they shape the evolving strategies of language planners trying to revitalize the Corsican language While Jaffe's analysis demonstrates the pervasive influence of dominant language ideologies on minority language speakers and language planners she also draws on case studies from everyday discourse educational practice and public and mediatized debates over language issues to develop an ethnographically grounded perspective on levels of resistance In the final part of the book she explores the emergence and the limits of radical genres of resistance found in forms of Corsican language activism and in examples of codeswitching and language mixing in bilingual radio practice This book contributes to a growing literature on language ideology and will be of interest to anthropologists political scientists and linguists interested in the practical and theoretical dimensions of language contact minority language literacy bilingual education and language shift

Teaching the Mother Tongue in a Multilingual Europe Witold Tulasiewicz, Anthony Adams, 2005-06-09 In a time when the increasing cultural diversity and population mobility of the continent calls for good communication skills this fascinating book features a wealth of data and critical opinion on the topic of mother tongue education In the first part of the book the two editors address central cultural political and educational concerns relating to the mother tongue using some of the findings of their European Commission funded research on the changing European classroom The second part presents case study articles by practitioners from nine countries which have significant regional or immigrant mother tongue populations These include Welsh in Wales Catalan and Galician in Spain Turkish and Greek in Germany Arabic and Corsican in France and Belorussian in Poland as well as critical accounts of the main first language situation in England Denmark France Germany Poland post Soviet Russia and Spain The concluding part of the book looks at language awareness as a possible approach to linguistic diversity It examines the preparation of teachers at all levels as experinced by the editors through their involvement in an in international language study group based in Calgary Cambridge Mainz and Bialystock Teaching the Mother Tongue in a Multilingual Europe is packed with original information which will be of use to all teachers and educationalists concerned with language
