Passage To Juneau A Sea And Its Meanings:

Passage to Juneau Jonathan Raban, 2011-06-22 The bestselling award winning author of Bad Land takes us along the Inside Passage 1 000 miles of often treacherous water which he navigates solo in a 35 foot sailboat offering captivating discourses on art philosophy and navigation and an unsparing narrative of personal loss A work of great beauty and inexhaustible fervor The Washington Post Book World With the same rigorous observation natural and social invigorating stylishness and encyclopedic learning that he brought to his National Book Award winning Bad Land Jonathan Raban conducts readers along the Inside Passage from Seattle to Juneau But Passage to Juneau also traverses a gulf of centuries and cultures the immeasurable divide between the Northwest's Indians and its first European explorers between its embattled fishermen and loggers and its pampered new class Water Worlds: Human Geographies of the Ocean Kimberley Peters, 2016-02-11 Our world is a water world Seventy percent of our planet consists of ocean However geography has traditionally overlooked this vital component of the earth's composition. The word geography directly translates as earth writing and in line with this definition the discipline has preoccupied itself with the study of terrestrial spaces of society and nature This book challenges human geography s preoccupation with the terrestrial investigating the terra incognita of the seas and oceans Linking to new theoretical debates shaping the geographic discipline such as affect assemblage emotion hybridity and the more than human this volume unlocks new knowledge concerning the human geographies of ocean space The book casts adrift stable bounded and fixed conceptions of space and advances geographical understanding based on the world as becoming changing mobile and processional This ontology supports the notion that the oceans are not simply fluid in a literal way but also in a conceptual sense suggesting that the seas have their own fluid natures their own capacities and agencies which are co fabricated with social and cultural life This book features twelve chapters authored by key academics contributing to this growing field of research The book is divided into three sections including an Introduction by the editors and a foreword by Prof Philip E Steinberg the leading scholar in the field of maritime geographies The first section of the book considers the ways in which different watery spaces from the Atlantic Ocean to the Mediterranean Sea have been conceptualized theorized and known through metaphors voyages of discovery and scientific endeavour The second section examines how oceans are experienced through various activities including driving on water kayaking in water and diving under water The final section explores the relations between human life and the nature of the sea as a material mobile and Pacific Exploration Nigel Rigby, Pieter van der Merwe, Glyn Williams, 2018-09-06 Captain Cook is more than human spa generally acknowledged as the first great European scientific explorer His voyage of exploration to the Pacific in HM bark Endeavour commencing in 1768 lasted almost three years recorded thousands of miles of uncharted lands and seas including New Zealand the east coast of Australia and many Pacific islands and tested all Cook s skills as a navigator seaman and leader His voyages were among the first to take civilian scientists notably Sir Joseph Banks and they revealed to European eyes the mysterious and exotic lands peoples flora and fauna of the Pacific never before seen But while Cook understandably dominates the story of 18th century Pacific exploration the achievements of those who followed him on many voyages of science and exploration into the Pacific have been neglected and deprived of the greater attention they deserve Correcting this imbalance Pacific Exploration explores the European voyages that continued Cook s work not only of charting but also starting to exploit and control the Pacific These voyages by William Bligh George Vancouver Matthew Flinders Malaspina Lap rouse and Arthur Phillip span a period that saw Britain becoming the world's leading maritime power a situation well in place by the time that Charles Darwin's voyage in Fitzroy's Beagle laid the basis of even greater understanding of the development of life on earth Recounting and illustrating these achievements and legacies using fascinating text and beautiful illustrations and artworks from the period this book explores topics of scientific discovery engagement with indigenous peoples the use of shipboard artists and scientists the growing professionalism of the hydrographic service the vessels used and the colonial commercial and imperial contexts of the voyages Going Places Robert Burgin, 2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read alikes with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives Going Places A Reader's Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read alikes and related reads by shared key topics The author has also identified award winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit making this work an ideal guide for readers advisors as well a book general readers will enjoy browsing Weather: Spaces, Mobilities and Affects Kaya Barry, Maria Borovnik, Tim Edensor, 2020-12-17 This book delves into the everyday spaces diverse mobilities and affective potency of weather It presents cutting edge research into the multiplicity of weather phenomena and analyses the lived experiences of humans in conjunction with contemporary issues notably climate change The book considers how everyday experiences of weather in the mundane lives of people are linked to broader changes in weather patterns and climate change Heat dust ice snow precipitation sunlight clouds tides and fog are states of weather that impact on the ways in which humans become intertwined with landscapes Our experiences with weather are diverse and ever changing and engaging with weather entangles humans with mobilities materials and landscapes This book thus explores affective and sensory resonances drawing upon a variety of theoretical empirical and creative material to investigate how weather is perceived in different social and cultural contexts Key themes focus on the mobilities generated by weather the affective and sensual potency of weather and the diverse cultural forms and practices that exemplify how weather is historically geographically and artistically represented Offering a social and cultural understanding of weather events this book contributes to a growing literature on weather across various disciplines including human geography and cultural geography and will thus appeal to students and scholars of geography sociology humanities cultural studies and the arts The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English Dominic Head,2006-01-26 This illustrated and fully updated Third Edition of The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English is the most authoritative and international survey of world literature in English available The Guide covers everything from Old English to contemporary writing from all over the English speaking world There are entries on writers from Britain and Ireland the USA Canada India Africa South Africa New Zealand the South Pacific and Australia as well as on many important poems novels literary journals and plays This new edition has been brought completely up to date with more than 280 new author entries most of them for living authors The general reader will find it fascinating to browse and to discover many new writers and works while students will find it an invaluable resource for daily use This is a unique work of reference for the twenty first century that no reader or library should be without

The Adrenaline Junkie's Bucket List Christopher Van Tilburg, 2013-07-16 The Adrenaline Junkie's Bucket List provides a heart stopping and essential guide to the best extreme outdoor adventures on every continent Imagine kayaking the churning whitewater of Africa's wild and wet Zambezi River Getting barreled in a wave surfing Fiji's legendary Cloudbreak reef Trekking New Zealand's famed Milford Track through the lush green fiords This book is the ultimate guide for the outdoor and sports enthusiasts seeking out the world's most fantastic adventures. It runs the gamut of water mountain and hiking sports for all skill levels from beginners to experts Written by a veteran outdoor adventure expert author and wilderness physician Christopher Van Tilburg it presents readers with one hundred amazing and challenging voyages all over the world Organized by continent the book offers fifteen to twenty five trips of a wide variety in each section and also covers local lore and history hotel and restaurant recommendations and other relevant services Sidebars throughout contain practical advice for the adventure travel enthusiast on health safety and outdoor life This is the perfect book for extreme athletes and armchair travelers looking for an adventurous read Ethics of Alaska Travel Writing since 1959 Benjamin Ferguson, 2025-08-28 This book digs into environmental themes in Alaska travel writing since U S statehood in 1959 drawing on the works of six authors including Barry Lopez Jonathan Raban Tom Lowenstein and others Each work though disparate in style advocates for the empowerment of the Alaska Native people by connecting not only with diverse perspectives but with the lived realities in the geographical spaces that have formed them In analyzing how these authors have succeeded in depicting the realities of alterities and where they have perhaps fallen short by more recent standards we may begin to carve out a system of ethics This is important as fresh waves of travel writers search for their own place in the environmental conversations surrounding the ever evolving 21st century Arctic and its place on the front lines of a changing climate
