Patriotism In East Asia Political Theories In East Asian Context:

Patriotism in East Asia Jun-Hyeok Kwak, Koichiro Matsuda, 2014-09-15 Current territorial disputes between the Northeast Asian countries have stimulated a resurgence of bellicose nationalism and threaten to upset recent efforts to achieve regional cooperation and economic integration in East Asia. Alongside this, debates over pre-1945 Japanese wartime atrocities aggravated by still unresolved territorial disputes between Japan and its neighbours have triggered diplomatic conflicts in Japanese-South Korean relations, virulent anti-Japanese protests in China, and a dramatic increase of right-wing nationalism in Japan. Many have perceived these phenomena as inevitable corollaries inasmuch as they regard the Northeast Asian countries as historically homogeneous and nationalistic states and have begun to question the feasibility of the post-Cold War efforts to replace nationalism with a moderate version of civic solidarity. This book contributes to the debates surrounding patriotism and nationalism in Northeast Asia and investigates the feasibility of non-ethnocentric patriotism in countries across the region. In doing so, it highlights the differences between Asian and Western concepts of republican patriotism via theoretical discussions of the evolving discourses on nationalism, patriotism, democracy, and civic solidarity. The chapters combine theoretical discussion with historical case studies such as modern state building in late Qing Dynasty nineteenth-century Japanese political thought and the twentieth-century Korean independence movement. In turn, the contributors explore the possibilities for republican patriotism in contemporary Northeast Asia with a focus on the Chinese term minzu and the possibilities it holds for an alternative configuration of national identity in the age of globalization. Maruyama Masao's theories of nationalism in Japan, the National Security Law in South Korea, and the impact it has had on the country's political culture and the Taiwanese movement for self-governance. Patriotism in East Asia will appeal to students and scholars of Asian politics, political theory, Asian history, and peace studies, as well as to those interested in issues of nationalism.

Patriotism in East Asia Jun-Hyeok Kwak, 2014 Religion and Nationalism in Asia Giorgio Shani, Takashi Kibe, 2019-08-28 This book re-examines the relationship between religion and nationalism in a contemporary Asian context with a focus on East South and South East Asia. Addressing empirical, analytical, and normative questions, it analyses selected case studies from across Asia, including China, India, Iraq, Japan, Pakistan, the Philippines, and Sri Lanka, and compares the differences and commonalities between the diverse configurations of nationalism and religion across the continent. It then goes on to explain reasons for the regional religious resurgence and asks if the nation-state model aligned with secularism is suitable for the region. Exploring the two interrelated issues of legacies and possibilities, this book also examines the relationship between nationalism and modernity, identifying possible and desirable trajectories which go beyond existing configurations of nationalism and religion. Bringing together a stellar line-up of contributors in the field, Religion and Nationalism in Asia will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of Asian religion and politics, as well as sociology, ethnicity, nationalism, and comparative politics.

Confucianism at War Shaun O'Dwyer, 2024-12-16 This is the first book length study of wartime Confucianism in any language providing new insights into key developments in Confucian thought and ideology in East Asia in the 1930s and 1940s In standard scholarship on the ideologies driving nation building and imperialism during the era of Japanese expansionism that began in 1931 Confucianism is rarely referenced and relegated to the background This volume brings together the work of scholars who argue for a revision of this standard view It includes studies of Japanese Chinese colonial Manchurian and Korean intellectuals and reformers who contributed to expansionist collaborationist or nationalist ideology building during the war Contrary to the assumption that Confucianism was an anachronism rendered irrelevant by the Westernizing political reforms and revolutions of the early twentieth century the chapters in this book show that Confucianism remained a potent and also contested cultural resource for promoting national cohesion war mobilization and expansionism in East Asia between the Japanese invasion of Manchuria in 1931 and the end of World War II in 1945 This book will appeal to scholars and students of Asian studies nationalism studies postcolonial studies religious studies and philosophy In particular it is essential reading for those interested in nationalism and modern Confucian thought in East Asia Aristotle in Japan Tomohiko Kondo,Koji environment at particular moments in both colonial and postcolonial eras and analyses their discursive relations in the construction of Korean nationalism By linking concepts of visual spectacle urban space and governmentality this book explores how such notions made the nation imaginable to the public in both the past and the present how they represented a new modality of seeing for the state and contributed to the shaping of collective identities in colonial and postcolonial Korea The author further examines how their different modes were associated with the change in governmentality in Korea In addressing these questions the book interprets the politics behind the culture of displays and shows both the continuity and the transformation of spectacles as a governing technology in twentieth century Korea Aesthetic Constructions of Korean Nationalism is a significant contribution to a study of the politics of visual culture in colonial and postcolonial Korea The book will be of interest to students and scholars of Korean Studies Culture and Heritage Studies and Asian Studies East Asian History, 1995 Regional Co-operation and Its Enemies in Northeast Asia Edward Friedman, Sung Chull Kim, 2007-01-24
