

Permanent Residential Aged Care Request for a Combined Assets and Income Assessment

Purpose of this form

The Australian Government Department of Human Services or the Department of Veterans' Affairs need details about your combined assets and income to determine residential aged care payments. This information you provide will be used to calculate your payments here and charges. This information will also be used to calculate the amount of Government assistance the provider may receive on your behalf.

When to use this form

Residents who enter residential aged care on or after 1 July 2018 may need to pay the maximum fees, means tested fee if they do not have a combined assets and income assessment.

Having a residential aged care combined assets and income assessment will determine:

- the means tested fee you will pay for your care, and
- whether you qualify for additional Government assistance with your accommodation costs.

Note: This assessment is NOT relevant to other eligible care, Private Care Packages or the Financial Fairplay package.
