The Only Mind Worth Having Gardner Fiona, 2016-11-24 In The Only Mind Worth Having Fiona Gardner takes Thomas Merton's belief that the child mind is the only mind worth having and explores it in the context of Jesus' challenging paradoxical and enigmatic command to become like small children She demonstrates how Merton's belief and Jesus' command can be understood as part of contemporary spirituality and spiritual practice To follow Christ's command requires a great leap of the imagination Gardner examines what it might mean to make this leap when one is an adult without it becoming sentimental and mawkish or regressive and pathological Using both psychological and spiritual insights and drawing on the experiences of Thomas Merton and others Gardner suggests that in some mysterious and paradoxical way recovering a sense of childhood spirituality is the path towards spiritual maturity The move from childhood spirituality to adulthood and on to a spiritual maturity through the child mind is a move from innocence to experience to organised innocence or from dependence to independence to a state of being in dependence with God

Man of Dialogue Gregory K. Hillis, 2021-11-21 2022 Catholic Media Association first place award in biography How Catholic was Thomas Merton Since his death in 1968 Merton's Catholic identity has been regularly questioned both by those who doubt the authenticity of his Catholicism given his commitment to ecumenical and interreligious dialogue and by those who admire

Merton as a thinker but see him as an aberration who rebelled against his Catholicism to articulate ideas that went against the church In this book Gregory K Hillis illustrates that Merton's thought was intertwined with his identity as a Catholic priest and emerged out of a thorough immersion in the church's liturgical theological and spiritual tradition In addition to providing a substantive introduction to Merton's life and thought this book illustrates that Merton was fundamentally shaped by his identity as a Roman Catholic The Hidden Ground of Love Thomas Merton, 2011-04-01 Thomas Merton 1915-1968 is the most admired of all American Catholic writers His journals have recently been published to wide acclaim The collection of Merton's letters in The Hidden Ground of Love were selected and edited by William H Shannon Pursuing the Spiritual Roots of Protest Gordon Oyer, 2014-02-28 In the fall of 1964 Trappist monk Thomas Merton prepared to host an unprecedented gathering of peace activists About all we have is a great need for roots he observed but to know this is already something His remark anticipated their agenda a search for spiritual roots to nurture sound motives for protest This event's originality lay in the varied religious commitments present Convened in an era of well kept faith boundaries members of Catholic lay and clergy mainline Protestant historic peace church and Unitarian traditions participated Ages also varied ranging from twenty three to seventy nine Several among the fourteen who gathered are well known today among faith based peace advocates the Berrigan brothers Jim Forest Tom Cornell John Howard Yoder A J Muste and Merton himself During their three days together insights and wisdom from these traditions would intersect and nourish each other By the time they parted their effort had set down solid roots and modeled interreligious collaboration for peace work that would blossom in coming decades Here for the first time the details of those vital discussions have been reconstructed and made accessible to again inspire and challenge followers of Christ to confront the powers and injustices of today Thomas Merton Peacemaker Dear, John, 2015-04-30 A Double-Edged Sword Brenda E. Novack, 2014-05-19 On first consideration one might not be inclined to view Adolf Hitler and Dietrich Bonhoeffer in relation to Jehanne d Arc Joan of Arc but Brenda E Novack does just that She demonstrates how these three prominent figures who influenced world history all acted in accordance with what they claimed or perceived to be divine sanction of their participation in violence Taking the reader on a unique exploration of their lives and deaths Novack identifies significant similarities and differences in notions of divine call and human response conveyed by these personalities and determines how they align or fail to align with the biblical prophetic tradition Taking Jehanne d Arc as her foundational study the author engages important theological issues such as the nature of revelation evil and morality The process culminates in the construction of a model of righteous warfare and human agency presented as a tool for evaluating claims to divinely sanctioned violence and as a potentially effective alternative to an outmoded and currently inadequate just war model Case studies of Hitler and Bonhoeffer tentatively establish the model's ability to steer humanity away from unnecessary destruction toward justice compassion and peace The Heavenly Banquet Fr. Emmanuel Hatzidakis, 2013-09-01 The Heavenly Banquet Understanding the Divine Liturgy

War Sermons Gilles Teulié, Laurence Lux-Sterritt, 2009-03-26 This collection of essays ponders upon the intricate relations between the military and the spiritual from the Middle Ages to the present day In order to analyse human attitudes towards conflicts it is necessary to dwell upon the nebulous area where the religious and political spheres interweave so tightly that they become virtually impossible to distinguish Indeed despite remaining the responsibility of the state the political decision to go to war depends heavily on some spiritual underpinning since without a moral ethical or religious justification it stands for gratuitous violence and is often equated with aggression Situated as they are at the intersection of religious and political awareness war sermons are an invaluable source of information regarding societies in times of conflict Indeed whether favourable or hostile to the waging of war preachers participated in the edification of parishioners opinion The writing delivering or reading of sermons shaped the mental process of peoples who sought their ministers moral and spiritual guidance in times of crisis This collection of essays offers contributions to the renewed debate on the function of war its representations and its rhetoric as generators of identity
