Peacemaking Under Fire John Arnold, 2011 By the fall of 1968 the Vietnam War was tearing apart America as well as Vietnam But what could a 17 year old college freshman do to stop such a conflict As he walked to class one day pondering that question John Arnold suddenly heard an answer in his thoughts as clearly as if someone had spoken it You can't stop a war if you aren't where the war is His first reaction was You're kidding right But 1968 was not a time for kidding People were dying Thousands of people every week So after considering the matter for a few minutes John dumped his books in a trash can dropped out of college and enlisted in the United States Marine Corps the only military branch that could guarantee that he would get to Vietnam in his pursuit of peace Publisher's description

Marigold James Hershberg, 2012-01-11 Marigold presents the first rigorously documented in depth story of one of the Vietnam War's last great mysteries the secret peace initiative codenamed Marigold that sought to end the war in 1966 The initiative failed the war dragged on for another seven years and this episode sank into history as an unresolved controversy Antiwar critics claimed President Johnson had bungled or worse deliberately sabotaged a breakthrough by bombing Hanoi on the eve of a planned secret U S North Vietnamese encounter in Poland Yet

LBJ and top aides angrily insisted that Poland never had authority to arrange direct talks and Hanoi was not ready to negotiate This book uses new evidence from long hidden communist sources to show that in fact Poland was authorized by Hanoi to open direct contacts and that Hanoi had committed to entering talks with Washington It reveals LBJ s personal role in bombing Hanoi as he utterly disregarded the pleas of both the Polish and his own senior advisors The historical implications of missing this opportunity are immense Marigold might have ended the war years earlier saving thousands of lives and dramatically changed U S political history Quarterly Review of Military Literature ,1974 Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1999 Canadian Peacekeepers in Indochina 1954-1973 Arthur E.

Blanchette,2001-09-01 This is a collection of personal reminiscences and first hand recollections of diplomatic service in war torn Indochina beginning in the late 1950s with the International Supervisory Commission and concluding with the last days of that terrible and desperate war in Viet Nam These remarkable essays throw much new light on Canada s foreign policy in the far east and they also provide us with rare insights into the ill fated American operations Contributors range from those who served with ambassadorial rank to those who lent support in more modest capacities The Library Journal Book Review ,1967 Film & Video Finder ,1997 The American Presidency ABC-Clio Information Services,1984 Going to War P. Towle,2009-04-30 Going to War overturns conventional views of the role of public opinion the armed forces parliamentarians NGOs and writers in the formation of British debates about impending wars It shows the pressures and the reasons which have led to Britain s involvement in so many conflicts Negotiating Peace Paul R. Pillar,2014-07-14 This work draws on insights from the experimental and theoretical literature on bargaining to provide a much needed comprehensive treatment of the neglected subject of how wars end In a study of how states simultaneously wage war and negotiate peace settlements Paul R Pillar argues that war termination is best understood as a bargaining process Originally published in 1983 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton,1993

Film/video Rental Catalog University of California (System). Extension Media Center,1994 Arms at Rest Joan R. Challinor,Robert L. Beisner,1987-02-04 This outstanding collection of essays is the product of a symposium on peacemaking and peacekeeping sponsored by the National Committee for the Bicentennial of the Treaty of Paris The original papers included in this volume were written by leading scholars from the United States Great Britain and Canada to assess themes related to the prerequisites and consequences of peace The emphasis is on peaceful outcomes and the preservation of peace rather than the causes of war and the writings reflect a penetrating awareness of the many facets of peacemaking and peacekeeping Included are thought provoking discussions on the impact of war and promise of peace on women the American perception of peace as an opportunity for profit and as a private political issue the avoidance of war and the possible obsolescence of war in our own era America, History and Life ,2003 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada
