Dear

A letterhead is the heading at the top of a sheet of letter paper (stationery). That heading usually consists of a name and an address, and a logo or corporate design, and sometimes a background pattern. The term "letterhead" is often used to refer to the whole sheet imprinted with such a heading. Many companies and individuals prefer to create a letterhead template in a word processor or other software application.

This generally includes the same information as pre-printed stationery but without the additional costs involved. Letterhead can then be printed on stationery (or plain paper) as needed on a local output device or sent electronically.

MaGee, 2018-09-25 This informative survey of Paul's epistles is conversant with the latest scholarship but written in an engaging style that emphasizes practical application. In each chapter Gregory MaGee asks and answers a vital question for understanding Paul's letters while prompting the reader to consider the discussion's personal implications. These questions get at the heart of understanding interpreting and living out the Pauline letters: Why listen to Paul? Were all thirteen letters really written by Paul? How does Paul interact with the Old Testament? What are some specific interpretive challenges in Paul's letters? How can I wisely apply Paul's teachings? What are the experts saying about Paul these days? What ideas were especially important to Paul? Students and other thoughtful Christians wishing to dig deeper into Paul's letters will benefit from this contemporary overview and will be challenged to grow spiritually and apply Paul's teachings and example.      Propel Clayton L.
