The Paradox of Trauma and Growth in Pastoral and Spiritual Care Mary Beth Werdel, 2023-10-24 The Paradox of Trauma and Growth in Pastoral and Spiritual Care Night Blooming introduces and bridges the gap between the psychological and spiritual perspectives and responses in trauma work illuminating the complexity of the human phenomenon of growth through suffering that is too easily misunderstood in the context of pastoral and spiritual care Through the hopeful metaphor of night bloomers rare plants that grow because of light but bloom in the darkness it is suggested that while psychological trauma is inherently negative and suffering creates a spiritual inner night moving through it may reveal a new complex reality of the human experience not previously understood We may see ourselves others or the world in a way that is stronger wiser deeper or more brilliant than we had known before The book presents the goal of pastoral and spiritual work is not to extinguish darkness Nor is it to solely focus on the light The work is to learn how to stay awake through the night without glorifying it Such a task is far easier when we believe there might be a rare and uniquely beautiful bloom to stay awake for and that witnessing such a bloom could have great consequences for living a meaningful life

for Pastors and Church Leaders Today Gabriel Amoateng-Boahen,2016-01-15 My timely book seeks to among others to appreciate and congratulate all men and women of God in ministry and also encourage them for their continued dedication in leading the flock under their pastoral care as Chief Shepherds Bravo On a more concerned and passionate note the book seeks to equip the pastor leader with some basic ministerial skills for sound fruitful untiring and ever lasting soul impacting ministry devoid of any abuses either covertly or overtly My final aim is to challenge the pastor leader to be professional and current for contemporary ministry because society is becoming more scientific technological academic intellectual argumentative and above all critical and skeptical Our local communities are increasingly becoming more violent confused frustrated socially darker and gloomy stressful and uncontrollable The pastoral services of the pastoral leaders thus become
