Who Needs Gay Bars? Greggor Mattson, 2023-05-30 Gay bars have been closing by the hundreds The story goes that increasing mainstream acceptance of LGBTQ people plus dating apps like Grindr and Tinder have rendered these spaces obsolete Beyond that rampant gentrification in big cities has pushed gay bars out of the neighborhoods they helped make hip Who Needs Gay Bars considers these narratives accepting that the answer for some might be maybe nobody And yet Jarred by the closing of his favorite local watering hole in Cleveland Ohio Greggor Mattson embarks on a journey across the country to paint a much more complex picture of the cultural significance of these spaces inside big four gay cities but also beyond them No longer the only places for their patrons to socialize openly Mattson finds in them instead a continuously evolving symbol a physical place for feeling and challenging the beating pulse of sexual progress From the historical archives of Seattle s Garden of Allah to the outpost bars in Texas Missouri or Florida that serve as community hubs for queer youth these are places of celebration where the next drag superstar from Alaska or Oklahoma may be discovered They are also fraught grounds for confronting the racial and gender politics within and without the LGBTQ community The question that frames this story is not asking whether these spaces are needed but for whom earnestly exploring the diversity of folks and purposes they serve today Loosely informed by the Damron Guide the so called Green Book of gay travel Mattson logged 10 000 miles on the road to all corners of the United States His destinations are sometimes thriving sometimes struggling but all offering intimate views of the wide range of gay experience in America POC white trans cis past present and future

Southern Discomfort Stella Benson, 2016-07-29 Jory Berg Alexander is beautiful talented cultured refined and well educated a sophisticated young San Francisco socialite and a recent graduate of the oldest and most prestigious all girls boarding school in the Maryland hunt country She is also an accomplished equestrian who received national recognition at a young age Her passion for riding consumes every aspect of her life and nothing can derail her plans for success until she meets Nat He is unlike anyone she has ever known undisciplined and arrogant with a volatile temper and a southern accent nearly incomprehensible to her ear He is handsome charismatic and charming when it suits him but his charm hides a darker side of insecurity and ignorance He is the product of a small rural town rife with suspicion and steeped in a tradition of intolerance and prejudice As their passion for each other grows the differences between them intensifies until betrayal and deceit finally creep in to poison and possibly destroy their relationship Opposites may attract but for how long and to what end In this novel a San Francisco socialite unwittingly becomes involved with a rakish young man from the rural South while searching for ideal love
