The International Dimensions of Democratization in Egypt Gamal M. Selim,2015-06-29 This book purports to examine the international dimensions of the democratization process in Egypt in the post Cold War era a theme which acquired significance at the academic and policy oriented levels in light of the growing internationalization of reform arrangements in the Arab world in post 9 11 and the greater involvement of external powers in Arab politics following the Arab Spring uprisings During the second half of the twentieth century the mainstream scholarship presented the democratization process as the outcome of domestic conditions not significantly influenced by actors outside the nation state With the end of the Cold War this perspective was challenged as a result of the third wave of democratization and the subsequent growth of the good governance discourse on the agenda of the international development establishment The new perspective attached a more significant role to external factors in the democratization process than was originally conceptualized

Mass Atrocities and the Police Christian Axboe Nielsen, 2022-06-16 Between April 1992 and December 1995 more than 100 000 people were killed in the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina The terrible atrocities committed in this period have been much discussed and studied and many prosecuted as acts of genocide war crimes or crimes against humanity But so far the academic scholarship has focused on the role of the military in these events This has come at the expense of considering the police s role which Nielsen here demonstrates as crucial Nielsen traces the origins of the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina to the police and associated paramilitary groups Nielsen makes this ground breaking case by drawing on a host of confidential archival sources academic research and practical experience as a widely cited expert witness in the most notorious of the war crimes tribunals His innovative new history sheds light on wider issues regarding the dissolution of Yugoslavia the Balkan wars and the region today Johan Galtung Johan Galtung, Dietrich Fischer, 2013-05-29 This is the first ever anthology of key articles by Johan Galtung widely regarded as the founder of the academic discipline of peace studies It covers such concepts as direct structural and cultural violence theories of conflict development civilization and peace peaceful conflict transformation peace education mediation reconciliation a life sustaining economy macro history deep culture and deep structure and social science methodology Galtung has contributed original research concepts and theories to more than 20 social science disciplines including sociology international relations and future studies and has also applied his new insights in practice The book is a valuable resource for researchers and practitioners and can serve as a supplemental textbook for graduate and upper undergraduate courses in peace studies and related fields
