Pearson's Magazine, 1919 Pearson's Magazine 1899-1925 a monthly magazine devoted to literature, politics and the arts was founded as a New York affiliate of the London periodical of the same name, part of which it reprinted. From 1916 to 1923 it was edited by Frank Harris.    Architects of World History Kenneth R. Curtis, Jerry H. Bentley, 2014-02-05 Architects of World History presents an innovative collection of original essays by leading scholars associated with World History exploring through intellectual autobiography the ideas, challenges and inspirations that are shaping the field. Features original accessible contributions from pioneering scholars in the field. Offers insights into the process of developing a workable world history research topic and the experience of professional life as a world historian. Points to methodological challenges the scholar's current research agenda in relation to the development of world history and future directions anticipated for key areas within world history.    Modernism, History and the First World War Trudi Tate, 2013-01-01 Drawing upon medical journals, newspapers, propaganda, military histories and other writings of the day, Modernism, History and the First World War reads such writers as Woolf, H.D., Ford, Faulkner, Kipling and Lawrence alongside fiction and memoirs of soldiers and nurses who served in the war. This ground-breaking blend of cultural history and close readings shows how modernism after 1914 emerges as a strange but important form of war writing and was profoundly engaged with its own troubled history.    Drawing the Global Colour Line Marilyn Lake, Henry Reynolds, 2008-01-24 In 1900 W. E. B. DuBois prophesied that the colour line would be the key problem of the twentieth century and he later identified one of its key dynamics: the new religion of whiteness that was sweeping the world. Whereas most historians have confined their studies of race relations to a national framework, this book studies the transnational circulation of people and ideas, racial knowledge and technologies that underpinned the construction of self-styled white men's countries from South Africa to North America and Australasia. Marilyn Lake and Henry Reynolds show how in the late nineteenth century and early twentieth century these countries worked in solidarity to exclude those they defined as not white, actions that provoked a long international struggle for racial equality. Their findings make clear the centrality of struggles around mobility and sovereignty to modern formulations of both race and human rights.    Never Give In Stephen Mansfield, 1997-01-01 Churchill: A Giant Among Leaders According to Henry Kissinger, 'Our age finds it difficult to come to grips with Churchill. The political leaders with whom we are familiar generally aspire to be superstars rather than heroes. The distinction is crucial. Superstars strive for approbation; heroes walk alone. Superstars crave consensus; heroes define themselves by the judgment of a future they see it as their task to bring about. Superstars seek success in a technique for eliciting support; heroes pursue success as the outgrowth of their inner values Winston Churchill is a hero In this incisive look at his leadership in action we see what it was that enabled him to do what few others have ever accomplished in the long annals of history stand for principle and prevail

The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune women and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike

South Asia in World History Marc Jason Gilbert, 2017-03-10 This book explores how world historical processes from changes in environment to the movement of peoples and ideas have shaped and continue to shape the history of South Asia and its place in the wider world As the region has continually proved able to draw inspiration from its traditional patterns of life to innovate in the face of rapid change has been severely tested over the centuries by forces as varied as colonialism to religious fundamentalism so too has it influenced the wider world

Navigating History Umesh Ashok Kadam, 2025-09-21 This book explores the history of the Medieval Maritime Silk Route between the 4th and 17th Centuries CE as a dynamic network that facilitated extensive commercial exchange and profound cultural political and religious interactions across Eurasia and beyond It examines how trade routes connected regions such as China India Southeast Asia Southwest Asia Africa and parts of Europe creating early forms of globalization driven by mutual economic interests Chapters delve into the ethnographic impact of diasporic communities the transmission of architectural styles navigational and maritime innovations religious interactions and linguistic and culinary traditions This book also examines how political developments including the policies of regional powers played a crucial role in sustaining the network and how the arrival of European colonial powers transformed its nature through monopoly and militarized trade It provides an in depth analysis of key maritime hubs the role of technological advancements in navigation and the socio economic impacts of maritime trade on local communities By integrating diverse perspectives and interdisciplinary approaches this book offers a comprehensive understanding of the Medieval Maritime Silk Route s significance in shaping early global interactions This book is a must read for those exploring the history of the medieval Maritime Silk Route It serves as an invaluable resource for researchers students and readers with a keen interest in maritime history transregional cultural exchange and pre modern globalization Borderlands in World History, 1700-1914 P.

Readman,C. Radding,C. Bryant,2014-05-20 Covering two hundred years this groundbreaking book brings together essays on borderlands by leading experts in the modern history of the Americas Europe Africa Asia and Australia to offer the first historical study of borderlands with a global reach The Complete Christie Matthew Bunson,2000-09 Painstakingly researched this illustrated reference captures the spirited imagination of Dame Agatha and the intriguing atmosphere of her tales Includes a comprehensive Christie biography cross referenced with plot synopses and character listings Photos throughout Reader's Guide to the History of Science Arne Hessenbruch,2013-12-16 The Reader s Guide to the History of Science looks at the literature of science in some 550 entries on individuals Einstein institutions and disciplines Mathematics general themes Romantic Science and central concepts Paradigm and Fact The history of science is construed widely to include the history of medicine and technology as is reflected in the range of disciplines from which the international team of 200 contributors are drawn Chicago's Mansions John Graf,2004-12-01 Chicago is known throughout the world for its architecture Although many people are familiar with the citys skyscrapers and public buildings they often overlook or are unaware of Chicagos mansions that are located throughout the city These mansions represent Chicagos past and its future and it can even be said that they are the very embodiment of Chicago and its architecture These fashionable residences were built to make a statement and what better way to have done this than to employ the leading architects of the time to design them These architects included men such as Louis Sullivan Frank Lloyd Wright Henry Hobson Richardson Daniel Burnham and John Wellborn Root While the citys mansions are significant because of who built them they are just as important because of who lived in them Many of these mansions were built for Chicagos elite businessmen and captains of industry men who represented old money new money and big money Just as important were the families of these men and the other residents who came to live in these mansions for they left a legacy of their own that contributed to the citys history

The First Casualty Phillip Knightley,2004-10-05 The first casualty when war comes is truth said American Senator Hiram Johnson in 1917 In his gripping now classic history of war journalism Phillip Knightley shows just how right Johnson was From William Howard Russell who described the appalling conditions of the Crimean War in the Times of London to the ranks of reporters photographers and cameramen who captured the realities of war in Vietnam The First Casualty tells a fascinating story of heroism and collusion censorship and suppression Since Vietnam Knightley reveals governments have become much more adept at managing the media as highlighted in chapters on the Falklands War the Gulf War and the conflict between NATO and Serbia over Kosovo And in a new chapter on the post 9 11 wars in Afghanistan and Iraq Knightley details even greater degrees of government manipulation and media complicity as evidenced by the embedding of reporters in military units and the uncritical openly patriotic coverage of these conflicts The age of the war correspondent as hero he concludes appears to be over Fully updated The First Casualty remains required reading for anyone concerned about freedom of the press journalistic responsibility and the nature of modern warfare      Normal Instructor and Teachers

World ,1912      The Cambridge Illustrated History of the Islamic World Francis Robinson,1996 Islamic peoples account for one fifth of the world s population and yet there is widespread misunderstanding in the West of what Islam really is Francis Robinson and his team set out to address this revealing the complex and sometimes contrary nature of Muslim culture As well as taking on the issues uppermost in everyone s minds such as the role of religious and political fundamentalism they demonstrate the importance of commerce literacy and learning Islamic art the effects of immigration exodus and conquest and the roots of current crises in the Middle East Bosnia and the Gulf Throughout emphasis is placed on the interaction between Islam and the West from the first Latin translations of the Quran to the fatwa on Salman Rushdie This elegant book deliberately sets out to dismantle the Western impression of Islam as a monolithic world and replace it with a balanced view from current issues of fundamentalism to its dynamic culture and art Francis Robinson is the editor of two outstanding reference works Atlas of the Islamic World Since 1500 Cambridge 1982 and The Cambridge Encyclopedia of Islam 1989
