Cheryl Granade Sullivan, 2004-06-15

Whether in the context of a formal district mandated program or in a grassroots effort, mentoring depends on the development of trust, respect, and communication between mentor and protégé. To be a mentor means to have a vision and enable others to participate in the vision and to go on to be mentors themselves. In this updated second edition, author Cheryl Sullivan expands on contemporary mentoring, its role as wise counselor in teacher induction and for administrative advancement, and examines new approaches evolving to help master a field that requires hard work and talent. Mentors and protégés, wannabes, and maybes all can benefit from Sullivan's direct on-the-mark delineation of the guidelines and ideas for adults in mentoring roles in the 21st century.
