Pemmican Eaters, The Marilyn Dumont, 2015-04-01 A picture of the Riel Resistance from one of Canada's preeminent Métis poets With a title derived from John A Macdonald's moniker for the Métis The Pemmican Eaters explores Marilyn Dumont's sense of history as the dynamic present Combining free verse and metered poems her latest collection aims to recreate a palpable sense of the Riel Resistance period and evoke the geographical linguistic cultural and political situation of Batoche during this time through the eyes of those who experienced the battles as well as through the eyes of Gabriel and Madeleine Dumont and Louis Riel Included in this collection are poems about the bison seed beadwork and the Red River Cart and some poems employ elements of the Michif language which along with French and Cree was spoken by Dumont's ancestors In Dumont's The Pemmican Eaters a multiplicity of identities is a strengthening rather than a weakening or diluting force in culture

Indigenous Poetics in Canada Neal McLeod, 2014-05-16 Indigenous Poetics in Canada broadens the way in which Indigenous poetry is examined studied and discussed in Canada Breaking from the parameters of traditional English literature studies this volume embraces a wider sense of poetics including Indigenous oralities languages and understandings of place Featuring work by academics and poets the book examines four elements of Indigenous poetics First it explores the poetics of memory collective memory the persistence of Indigenous poetic consciousness and the relationships that enable the Indigenous storytelling process The book then explores the poetics of performance Indigenous poetics exist both in written form and in relation to an audience Third in an examination of the poetics of place and space the book considers contemporary Indigenous poetry and classical Indigenous narratives Finally in a section on the poetics of medicine contributors articulate the healing and restorative power of Indigenous poetry and narratives

A People and a Nation Jennifer Adese, Chris Andersen, 2021-03-01 In A People and a Nation the authors most of whom are themselves Métis offer readers a set of lenses through which to consider the complexity of historical and contemporary Métis nationhood and peoplehood The field of Métis Studies has been afflicted by a longstanding tendency to situate Métis within deeply racialized contexts and/or by an overwhelming focus on the nineteenth century This volume challenges the pervasive racialization of Métis studies with multidisciplinary chapters on identity history politics literature spirituality religion and kinship networks reorienting the conversation toward Métis experiences today In the process this timely collection dismantles the narrow notions that continue to shape political legal and social understanding of Métis existence and convincingly demonstrates a more robust approach to Métis studies that centres Métis peoplehood and nationhood

The Fat of the Land Vilhjálmur Stefánsson, 2016-10-27 The author details his experiment in extreme nutrition an enlarged edition of Not by Bread Alone The book extols the virtues of meat in the human diet

Canadian Literary Fare Nathalie Cooke, Shelley Boyd, 2023-05-15 When writers place food in front of their characters who after all do not need sustenance they are asking readers to be alert to the meaning and implication of food choices As readers begin to listen closely to these cues they become attuned to increasingly layered stories about why it matters what foods are selected prepared served or shared and with whom where and when In Canadian Literary Fare Nathalie Cooke and Shelley Boyd explore food voices in a wide range of Canadian fiction drama and poetry drawing from their formational blog series with Alexia Moyer Thirteen short vignettes delve into metaphorical taste sensations telling of how single ingredients such as garlic or ginger or food items such as butter tarts or bannock can pack a hefty symbolic punch in literary contexts A chapter on Canada's public markets finds literary food voices sounding a largely positive note just as Canadian journalists trumpet Canada's bountiful and diverse foodways But in chapters on literary representations of bison and Kraft Dinner Cooke and Boyd bear witness to narratives of hunger food scarcity and social inequality with poignancy and insistence Canadian Literary Fare pays heed to food voices in the works of Tomson Highway Rabindranath Maharaj Alice Munro M NourbeSe Philip Eden Robinson Fred Wah and more inviting readers to listen for stories of foodways in the literatures of Canada and beyond

Not by Bread Alone Vilhjamur Stefansson, 2020-08-31 The arctic explorer's classic text on the benefits of an all meat diet chronicles his experiences and clinical studies of Inuit food habits Arctic explorer and anthropologist Vilhjalmur Stefansson spent years living with indigenous Inuit and Eskimo people He noted their general healthiness and good teeth and an absence of many of the diseases that plagued western cultures such as scurvy heart disease and diabetes Observing their dietary habits he determined that their primary food was meat both lean and fatty and that their diets were very low in sugary or starchy carbohydrates Was this meaty diet the key to their good health Stefansson's classic Not By Bread Alone chronicles a 1928 scientific experiment conducted by the Russell Sage Institute of Pathology at Bellevue Hospital in New York in which Stefansson and his colleague Dr Karsten Andersen ate a meat only diet for one year The two men stayed healthy and fared very well leading him to claim that we should reexamine our notion of what foods constitute a healthy diet Later chapters promote the benefits of pemmican a compact portable and high energy food consisting of a concentrated mix of fat and protein made from dried lean bison meat sometimes mixed with berries what you might call the original energy bar

Reclamation and Resurgence Marilyn Dumont, 2024-05-16 To describe the writing of Marilyn Dumont is to call her a poet of reclamation and resurgence Some thirty five years ago she set about documenting her life as a young Métis woman and telling the story of her people the Red River Métis and in the process she has become a principal literary voice for the Renaissance of the Métis nation To understand Marilyn Dumont's work is to understand Métis culture and history that of a people who originated in the 17th century upon the meeting of the First Nations and the newcomers the European voyageurs and cartographers who travelled along the great waterways of Turtle Island North America How does a Métis poet write about a country where its politicians and bureaucrats are honoured as national figures when they made family fortunes from confiscated Métis and First Nations lands For Dumont the answer to this question resides in telling the truth about the present and the past Through carefully crafted poems Dumont takes the reader through a range of personal and historically connected experiences grounded in emotional truth For Dumont perception like memory is as much about the body as it is the mind surfacing as visionary insight which has become the hallmark of her poetry Reclamation and Resurgence contains poems selected from A Really Good Brown Girl green girl dreams Mountains from that tongued belonging and The Pemmican Eaters as well as previously uncollected poems and includes an introduction by Armand Garnet Ruffo and an afterword Contradictory Co existence by Marilyn Dumont The Rope Eater Ben Jones,2007-12-18 When Brendan Kane accepts a stranger s offer of work two years on a ship departing the following morning the nature of the journey isn t divulged It matters not though for Kane is directionless himself having just witnessed the Civil War s horrors only to return North with nothing but the clothes on his back and as many dead soldiers letters as he could carry in his pockets Aboard the mysterious Narthex Kane meets a ramshackle crew that includes an eccentric doctor and a three handed Muslim full of horrifying lore Kane learns only that they re sailing for the Arctic in search of gold or maybe whales But when it turns out the Narthex s destination is a temperate paradise hidden amidst glaciers a mythical place Kane and his cohorts must struggle to survive not only the bleak Arctic conditions but the loosening grip on sanity of an egomaniacal captain and the data obsessed doctor With each second that passes it seems increasingly unlikely any of them will get out alive Fur Trade Brigade Schedules 1804-1874 Joachim Fromhold,2010 The Fur or Canoe Brigades had tightly orchestrated schedules with specific timetables This publication lays out the schedule of the various brigades From these schedules we can now know not only where each brigade was at any given time but also where the individuals on these brigades were and events and people they met along the way The Bookman ,1923 Scratching River Michelle Porter,2022-04-15 Scratching River braids the voices of mother brother sister ancestor and river to create a story about environmental personal and collective healing This memoir revolves around a search for home for the author s older brother who is both autistic and schizophrenic and an unexpected emotional journey that led to acceptance understanding and ultimately reconciliation Michelle Porter brings together the oral history of a Métis ancestor studies of river morphology and news clippings about abuse her older brother endured at a rural Alberta group home to tell a tale about love survival and hope This book is a voice in your ear urging you to explore your own braided histories and relationships National Literature in Multinational States Albert Braz,Paul D. Morris,2023-04-13 If literature has often informed the creation of a national imaginary a sense of common history and destiny it has also complicated even challenged the unifying vision assumed in the formation of a national literature and sense of nation National Literature in Multinational States questions the persistent association of literature and nation states contrasting this with the reality of multinational and ethnocultural diversity The contributors to this collection interrogate concepts and manifestations of nationalism in the context of literary production while evaluating the place of national literatures in multinational states at a time when social unity and political agreement have never been more elusive The volume strives for synoptic analysis via the complementary multifaceted treatment of literary creation in several geo cultural contexts Canada the Caribbean Europe India and Nigeria
