Psychoanalytic Reflections on a Gender-free Case Ellen L. K. Toronto, Gemma Ainslie, Molly Donovan, Maurine Kelly, Christine C. Kieffer, Nancy McWilliams, 2013-01-11 The past two decades of psychoanalytic discourse have witnessed a marked transformation in the way we think about women and gender The assignment of gender carries with it a host of assumptions yet without it we can feel lost in a void unmoored from the world of rationality stability and meaning The feminist analytic thinkers whose work is collected here confront the meaning established by the assignment of gender and the uncertainty created by its absence The contributions brought together in Psychoanalytic Reflections on a Gender free Case address a cross section of significant issues that have both chronicled and facilitated the changes in feminist psychoanalysis since the mid 1980s Difficult issues which have previously been ignored such as the pregnancy of the therapist or sexual abuse regarded as more than a fantasy are considered first The book goes on to address family perspectives as they interact and shape the child's experience of growing up male or female Other topics covered are the authority of personal agency as influenced by the language and theory of patriarchy male centred concepts that consistently define women as inferior and the concept of gender as being co constructed within a relationship The gender free case presented here will fascinate all psychoanalysts interested in exploring ways of grappling with the elusive nature of gender as well as those studying gender studies The Poetics of Enclosure Lesley Wheeler, 2002 The Poetics of Enclosure

provocatively explores interconnections between Dickinson Moore H D Brooks Bishop and Dove in the dual context of their manipulations of the traditional lyric and use of shared images of enclosure With frequent reference to male as well as female influences and to poets marginalized by sexuality or race Wheeler usefully refines what she argues is particular to these poets shared lyric practices and concerns and links those concerns to other poetic traditions Christianne Miller
