Wedding Speeches - a Practical Guide for Delivering an Unforgettable Wedding Speech Sam Siv, 2014-09-02 A Practical Guide for Delivering an Unforgettable Wedding Speech Your wedding day should be the most important day of your life It is the day when all your friends and family as well as the friends and family of your husband to be gather together to celebrate your big day Unless you are lucky enough to be able to afford a wedding planner you will have so many things to think about and plan from the pre wedding parties to the wedding ceremony and reception and even the honeymoon As part of your wedding day it is expected that certain people in your wedding party give speeches to congratulate you on your newly married status and also to tell a few stories about you and the groom To a certain extent you don t need to worry about this aspect of the wedding unless you intend to make a speech yourself However you will want to have an input into who makes the speeches and how long they are because this will have a roll on effect on everything else that happens at your wedding reception Who gives the speeches and toasts at your wedding really depends on what you want It is traditional for the male side of the wedding party only to give speeches You may even want to cut this down further and just ask the best man and groom to give a speech Then again you may want to laugh in the face of tradition and make sure the female side of the wedding party including yourself have the chance to say something Of course you will need to check with everyone that they are happy to give a speech The groom and best man probably won t have much choice but others may prefer to stay quiet and simply listen to what the main members of the wedding party have to say

It's The Little Things - Francis Brennan's Guide to Life Francis Brennan, 2014-09-26 The inimitable Francis Brennan shares his philosophy for life: spread a little sparkle, dust and make the world a happier place. Have you ever wondered which fork to use when dining out? Or how to make the perfect cup of tea? If you've ever wanted to learn the correct etiquette for weddings, funerals and christenings, this is the book for you. Covering everything from gracefully handling office politics to what gifts to bring to a dinner party, this book will advise you on everything you need to lead a well-groomed and well-mannered life. Francis Brennan, the hugely successful proprietor of the Park Hotel Kenmare and presenter of RTÉ's highly rated At Your Service, believes it's the little things in life that count the most. And by following his philosophy based on manners, etiquette and respect, he has built an extremely successful business and a very happy life. With his signature charm and wit, Francis shares with you his personal code for living, including the correct way to position a toilet roll and the direction in which your pillowcase should face. Full of fun and personal memories, Francis will motivate you to pay attention to the small things that make a big difference. You get the feeling that if he ever called over to your house, you'd have a totally delightful evening drinking tea with him, and although he might rearrange the cushions on your sofa and criticise your choice of hand soap, he'd do it so nicely you'd end up offering him all the fancy biscuits. Beautiful. Wouldn't it be a great if restaurateurs got hold of Francis' book and doled it out to their deserving parents? Sinead Ryan The Herald. It's the Little Things. Table of Contents. Preface. Manners Begin At Home. Guess Who's Coming to Dinner. The People Next Door. The Big Occasions: Births, Marriages and Deaths. Planes, Trains and Automobiles. The World of Work. The Ancient Art of Grooming. How to Look Your Best on Every Occasion. Eating Out. Social Media. Epilogue. It's the Little Things.
